

PAGE BLURRED /
PAGE BARBOUILLEE

C164589

It is fitting that we -- of this generation -- should also seek to make our contribution.

As heirs to the common law -- perhaps our greatest contribution can be made -- in directing men's minds -- to the study of the essential principles of freedom.

Let us engrave its great truths
on our monuments of stone and of marble.

Let us preach them from the pulpit -- and thunder them in the columns of our free press.