
Photographs were not so common fifty or sixty years ago as they are to-day, and the correspondence to secure many pictures we desired was not as fruitful as we wished. Leaders, therefore, must be remembered by their names, although we sincerely regret the absence of photographic representation.

Readers may discover some inaccuracies. If so, we offer our sincere apology. We tried to secure accuracy, and in some cases letters were unanswered or even returned.

The circumstances and the time prevented that close investigation so necessary and desirable.

We hope that the main purpose of the book—
The memorial of a God-fearing people,
The increasing good of the Hillsburg people,
The glory of God through His Church

—may be accomplished, and that the good intentions of the originators and author of this history will be accepted by the congregation and friends of St. Andrew's, Hillsburg, in lieu of the many lacks, of which we are quite aware.

“Now for my friends' and brethren's sake,
Peace be in thee, I'll say;
And for the House of God the Lord
I'll seek thy good away.”
