"That this meeting consider that their money had been well invested, and that they urge the management to collect all money due the company in Manitoba and the Northwest, without delay."

Several of the shareholders agreed to collect the money due in their localities. Mr. Clokey explained that the majority of this delinquent stock is covered by notes, and up to date the company has not in any way pledged these notes, but have carried them as an asset.

had out some first-class representatives of the breed, while in Hampshire Downes Teller Bros., of Paris, were the only exhibitors. The grades and crosses developed some competition, whether under 1 year going to Lloyd-Jones Bros., while in pen of 3 under 1 year, L. Parkinson got 1st, A. H. Luxton, of Milton, 2nd, and Lloyd-Jones Bros. 3rd. Weather, under 1 year, 1st, L. Parkinson; 2nd, W. E. Wright; 3rd, Lloyd-Jones Bros.

The dressed carcass classes were of particular interest, the entries being numerous and in many places the competition strong. In mutton and bacon carcasses the tendency to give insufficient exercise, to the end that fat accumulates instead of flesh, is well shown at this time of the year. The winnings were distributed as follows:
