Arab's whole family is located in a village a few miles from Iannalia. Midshipman Decharr, sent to Renelleon Saturday on horseback with a message, was stopped beyond the lines and captured.

A communication between DeLesseps and Arabi was merely to assure the safe conduct of 188 Greek subjects, some invalids and some Sisters of Charity.

The Governor of the town of Munich, 136 miles southwest of Cairo, endeavored to resist the attempt of Arabi to interrupt railway communication, but was sent to Cairo and imprisoned in the citadel.

The French directors of the Feh and Cair waterworks are retained at the post under guard. Murders are continually occurring in the railway trains. The mob search every train for Christians.

TEMPERANCE SOCIETY AT MAIDSTONE. A Temperance Society under the auspices of Rev. Father Molphy, parish priest, has been lately organized at Maidstone. Last week Rev. C. M. B. A. NOTES.

Notice is hereby given to the officers, members and representatives of the Grand Council of Canada of C. M. B. A., and also to the Spiritual directors of branches, that the Third Annual Convention of said Council will be held at the hall of Branch No. 2, City of St. Thomas, Ontario, on Tuesday, 26th inst., commencing at 9 o'clock a. m.

The undersigned will be at the American House, on and after Monday morning, August 7th, where officers and delegates will please report on their arrival, and present their credentials. Special rates, $1.00 per day, at American House, and also at the English House, for delegates and members attending our convention.

We have been informed that on July 12th a decree was issued, by Judge Chipman, for one half of the Beneficiary of the late Michael Finnane, a member of the C. M. B. A., to be paid his widow, Eleanor F. Finnane, and the other half to his sister Bridget.

There are in New York State 50 C. M. B. A. Branches with a total membership of 3320. Grand Deputy Doyle of St. Thomas has about completed arrangements with the R. R. officials to issue tickets at reduced rates to delegates to our C. M. B. A. Convention.

A correspondent wants to know, "why we do not insert in our C. M. B. A. notes, receipts of Beneficiaries paid by our Supreme Council." The reason is that the Supreme Recorder does not send us copies of said receipts, and according to our S. C. constitution, to do this, does not seem to be a part of his duty.

A correspondent wishes to know, "why we do not acknowledge the Beneficiaries paid inserted in the official organ would be a satisfaction to our members, and would probably tend to increase our membership. During the ensuing term we shall endeavor to have this done."

Sam. R. Brown, Secretary Grand Council.

PIENIC AT GODERICH. We have before us a neat little school book of illustrations of Bible stories for the use of small children. This work is admirably adapted to the use of children who have begun to read with facility, and should be extensively used in Catholic schools. It is published by Benziger Brothers, New York.

No Catholics Among the Nihilists. Count Tolstoy, the new Russian Home Secretary, hates two kinds of people with all his hatred, that a Tartar is capable of. These two descriptions of persons are Catholics and Poles; and considering that pretty nearly all Poles are Catholics, it stands to reason that these ten million unfortunate subjects of the Czar's come in for a double share of his excellent animosity. When the Count was at the head of the Ministry of Education, Poland certainly felt the full weight of his displeasure very severely; but in his new position his likings and dislikings, as far as nationality and creed are concerned, have less bearing on his actions, and besides, he meets with numerous opportunities of setting himself how utterly unwarranted are his prejudices. Take the following notice which we translate from a Russian official return:

"In the months of May and June 644 persons were arrested on the charge of conspiracy against the Sovereign and against the welfare of the State. Among these 644 persons, all classes, professions and sexes are represented; but not a Catholic nor a Pole is to be found among them."

We have repeatedly directed attention to the fact that the Catholics, and as a consequence the Poles, are the most loyal of the Czar's subjects; and the burdens of Count Tolstoy's office would be immensely lightened if the Catholic faith were to become the faith of all the people of Russia. That would be the end of Nihilism.—London Universe.

REV. FATHER LILLIS. Address and Presentation to this Worthy Priest. (Hamilton Times).

Only a few days ago the sad rumor which was circulated in Watford, that through the wishes of Bishop Crichton, the Rev. Father Lillis was about to be removed from that mission to Hamilton, filled the hearts of the parishioners with regret. At first they were inclined to disbelieve the sad and unexpected news, but it proved too true, as on last Sunday his reverend preacher's last farewell sermon in Watford.

The manner in which the reverend father was esteemed by all denominations was established beyond a doubt on last Sunday by the presence of a large number of Protestants to listen to his farewell discourse. The church was crowded to the doors. His reverence referred in kind words to the friendly feelings which had existed between himself and his parishioners in Watford during his ministry of eight years, and the feeling of sorrow and regret which he expressed in the face of the congregation, a great number of whom could not refrain from shedding tears.

Rev. and Dear Sir,—It is with feelings of profound sorrow that we in the face of the wishes of His Lordship, you are about to be removed from this mission. Such an unexpected separation is most grievous to you and to the members of your parishioners with dismay, and on the eve of your departure the undersigned, on behalf of the members of your parishioners, avail themselves of this opportunity to give expression to the grief they experience.

We are glad to have you with us, and we are glad to have you through your pious teachings have been reclaimed from the path of vice to one of virtue. Since your coming to Watford you have been attending to the spiritual instruction of the children, make your departure extremely regretted.

It is pleasing to know that your reverend mission is in a very satisfactory condition, and that you are ever more and more devotedly attached to your parishioners. We are glad to hear that you have also been greatly improved during your ministry among us. And now it becomes our duty to bid you adieu with the most hearty and affectionate wishes for your success in every undertaking you may undertake in the future.

Yours affectionately, Thomas English, Jas. Crane, John Flynn, son, Patrick Downey, son, Michael Doherty, Charles Daly, William O'Neill, Charles Daly.
