

"At the first meeting of the supreme officers of the Knights of Columbus following the terrible calamity in Japan, $25,000 has been appropriated from the general fund of the Order for America's Japanese relief work. All councils and individual members of the Order are urged to give the most generous support to this necessary undertaking in behalf of the stricken people of Japan."

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday, Sept. 30.—St. Jerome, Doctor, was born in Dalmatia, A. D. 329 and was sent to school at Rome. After distinguishing himself by his brilliancy in his studies he obeyed the call of God and, making a vow of celibacy, fled from Rome to the Syrian desert where for four years he learned the lesson of divine wisdom in solitude, penance, and prayers. He was recalled to Rome by the Pope and given the task of revising the Latin Bible which was to constitute his noblest work.

Monday, Oct. 1.—St. Remigius, sometimes known as Remi, was the son of noble and pious parents. He was acclaimed Archbishop of Rheims when he was only twenty-two years old. To him is accorded the distinction of having converted and baptized Clovis King of the Franks who at that time was warring the north of France from the Romans. The King was baptized on Christmas Day, A. D. 496 and his people followed their ruler in acceptance of the true Faith. Remigius also opposed the Arians in the South of France and when he died in 533, the nation was a Catholic kingdom.

Tuesday, Oct. 2.—The Holy Guardian Angels. God has charged His angels with the ministry of watching and safeguarding every one of His creatures that behold not His face. Kingdoms have their angels assigned to them and men have their angels; these latter it is whom religion designates as the Holy Guardian Angels. The existence of the Guardian Angels is a dogma of the Christian faith.

Wednesday, Oct. 3.—St. Gerard, abbot, was of a noble family in the county of Namur, France. Having been impressed with the fervor of the monks of St. Denis at Paris he desired to consecrate himself to God with them. After ten years spent in this monastery he was sent by his abbot in 981 to found an abbey on his estate at Brogue, three leagues from Namur. After spending twenty years in the reformation of several monasteries, he shut himself up in his cell to prepare his soul to receive the recompense of his labors. He died in 959.

Thursday, Oct. 4.—St. Francis of Assisi was born in 1182. He was early inspired with a love of poverty and humility. Many joined themselves to him and were constituted a religious order by Pope Innocent III. The order rapidly spread throughout Christendom. After visiting the East in the hope of martyrdom, St. Francis alternated between preaching to the multitude and fasting in desert solitudes. During one of his retreats he received on his hands, feet, and side the print of the five bleeding wounds of Christ.

Friday, Oct. 5.—St. Placid, martyr, was born in Rome in the year 515 of a patrician family. At the age of seven his father took him to the monastery of Subiaco and at thirteen he followed St. Benedict to the new foundation at Monte Casino. When scarcely twenty-one he was sent to Sicily to establish a monastery. Five years later the place was overrun by the barbarians who burned everything to the ground. St. Placid, his two brothers Eutychius and Victorinus and his holy sister Flavia who had come to visit him, as well as twenty monks were put to death.

Saturday, Oct. 6.—St. Bruno, was born at Cologne about the year 1030. He cultivated his rare natural gifts at Paris and was later made canon of Cologne and later at Rheims. Resolving to forsake the world, he and six others applied to Hugh, Bishop of Grenoble, who led them into a wild solitude called the Chartreuse. There they lived in poverty, self-denial and silence, meeting only for the worship of God. Bruno was called to Rome by Pope Urban II, but the noise of the great city disturbed his solitude and, after refusing high honors, he obtained permission from the Pope to resume his monastic life in Calabria. There he lived in humility and mortification until his death in 1101.

MALMEDY PARISH CHURCH ELEVATED TO CATHEDRAL

Cologne, Sept. 4.—Monsignor Ruten, the Bishop of Liege and Eupen-Malmedy, has made the Malmedy parochial church a Cathedral and has appointed as canons the dean and pastor of Malmedy, as well as the pastors of some of the neighboring villages.

Malmedy, which in the year 600 was called Malmidarium, was the seat of an ancient monastery called Stavelot. The dukedom of Stavelot was a rich and happy land during medieval times, and the Abbot of Malmedy-Stavelot was a powerful prince.

Practically everything was destroyed during The Thirty Years War, Marshal Turenne was sent into Germany by Louis XIV. and Malmedy with its old fortifications was devastated. However, the dukedom preserved its identity and autonomy for 1112 years. In 1815

Malmedy became Prussian. Now it is part of Belgium.

The inhabitants of Malmedy and its environs, as well as a part of the inhabitants of Liege and Namur are called "Wallonen" as the soldiers of the Spanish cavalry in the 16th century were called. They have a language much similar to the French.

The parochial church at Malmedy, now a cathedral, is a very large and beautiful building. It is famous for its melodious carillon.

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY OF CANADA

CALLS FROM THE MISSIONS

$250 WANTED
Grand Beach, Man., July 8, 1923.

Right Rev. Monsignor O'Donnell, President of the Catholic Church Extension Society, Toronto.

My Dear Monsignor O'Donnell:

We, workmen, habitually living in Winnipeg, have chosen to take our families away from the city during the hot months of the summer, and give them the advantage of living in the open air and enjoying the advantages and proximity to a water place. We have in view their health besides the resting and recreating advantages. We have the faculty of renting lots at $15 for the summer months and camping on same. We put in this information to show that in so providing our families with the advantage of spending the hot months at a summer resort, we are not incurring extravagant expenses.

We are short of an indispensable—a Chapel. We are to have the priest attending our families and giving them Mass, etc., every Sunday. We have been advised to call on the charity and the kindness of the members of the Catholic Church Extension Society for help. A gentleman, we wonder if we commit indiscretion by mentioning his name, one Mr. Phalen, has advised us to apply to you and in case we should secure a $250 contribution from your Society, he will himself contribute the same amount. With our own contribution in cash and labor, that help would enable us to build that so much needed and desired Chapel.

Therefore we hopefully lay our appeal before the members of the Board of the Catholic Church Extension Society, confident to see it granted.

Yours very respectfully

N. Reynolds, William Reynolds, W. Sharples, W. Francis Chadwick, M. L. Chadwick, Edgar Kelly, A. Buckingham, Jas. McPhee, C. Belamey, E. J. Pounds, I. M. Benson, J. D. Reynolds, M. Ferguson, M. Rathwell, A. Macdonald, G. O. Bellamy, A. Macdonald, E. MacKinnon, G. D. Myers.

The facts here recited are as stated.

ARTHUR BELIVEAU, Archbishop of St. Boniface.

A CHAPEL WANTED
Young, Sask., July, 1923.

Right Rev. Monsignor O'Donnell, President of the Catholic Church Extension Society, Toronto.

My Dear Monsignor O'Donnell:

Through the Catholic press we have learned of the good work of your Society, and we understand that you are particularly considerate of the needs of the Church in Western Canada.

We are at present in urgent need of a new church in Watrous, and are anxious to build in the near future, but the undertaking is almost entirely beyond our circumstances. The old church or shell is so cold in winter that the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass cannot be offered in it. Hence we turn to you for help.

Watrous is a town of two hundred families, on the Canadian G. Railways, between Winnipeg and Saskatoon. We have only twenty families, six in the town and the remainder from the country, others indifferent through marriage. About ten families give active support.

In the past Mass has been offered once a month, but under present conditions we are aided by more priests, and able to say Mass almost every Sunday in summer and every two weeks during the winter.

To conclude, the newness to our country, the cosmopolitan character of our people and present conditions, constrain us to seek help from without. We hope that you can give our case favourable consideration.

Yours faithfully,
REV. JOSEPH O'LEARY.

We strongly recommend the application of the Rev. Father J. O'Leary to the charity of all.

JOSEPH H. PRUD'HOMME, Bishop of Prince Albert and Saskatoon.

$100 WANTED
North Bay, Aug. 24, 1923.

Right Rev. Monsignor O'Donnell, President of the Catholic Church Extension Society, Toronto.

My Dear Monsignor O'Donnell:

There is a small chapel at a place called Gros Cap on the shore of Lake Superior, some 20 miles above the Soo. The shell of it is up, but as there are few families there they cannot put up enough money to finish it. In its present state it would be impossible to use in winter. It should be clappedboarded at least. I gave $50 myself, and if Extension would give $100 the building could be made habitable for the winter season. I trust you may be able to give this $100 contribution.

Yours devotedly in Xto.,
D. J. SCOLLARD,
Bishop of S. S. Marie.

RIO DE JANEIRO NEW CITY HALL IS BLESSED BY ARCHBISHOP LEME

Rio de Janeiro, Sept. 10.—An unusual and most impressive ceremony was the solemn blessing of the new City Hall, or Palace of the Municipal Council, which took place recently. The cornerstone of the building, which is one of the finest in the city, was laid in 1918, and construction was completed only a short time ago.

Archbishop Sebastian Leme, Coadjutor of His Eminence Cardinal Arcoverde was invited to perform the ceremony. The Archbishop was received by the city authorities, headed by Senor Nogueiro Penido, who, in a brief address, asked the Archbishop "to bless the Palace which is to house the Legislative Body of an eminently Catholic city which is, at the same time, the capital of an eminently Catholic nation."

Among those attending the ceremony were Senor Azeredo, Vice-President of the Senate; Arnulfo Azeredo, President of the Chamber of Deputies; Andres Cavalcanti, representative of the Supreme Court; Commandant Moraes Rego, representative of the President of the Republic, the Minister of Marine, Don Alejandro de Alear, several other Ministers of State, and many persons prominent in the official and social world as well as a large number of deputies, the diplomatic representatives of Chili, Mexico and Uruguay and numerous priests and editors.

TAKE CARE OF BABY

The life of a baby depends more or less on the sanitary care taken by the mother. Many an infant has had disastrous results from using a poor and unsanitary rubber nipple.

Millions of "Nobility" Nipples have been sold and not one satisfactory case has resulted. It is a clear transparent nipple of excellent rubber, thoroughly antiseptic and will stand sterilization to the highest degree without collapsing. Buy the "Nobility" Nipple, the best for the baby. Sold at all drug stores.

BURSES

FOR EDUCATION OF PRIESTS FOR CHINESE MISSIONS

What is a Bursar? A Bursar or Free Scholarship is the amount of $5,000, the annual interest of which will perpetually support a student, till he becomes a Priest and Missionary in China. The sum itself is securely invested, and only the annual interest is spent for the training and education of a candidate for the priesthood. When one student has reached his goal, another takes his place, and thus all who are contributing towards the Bursar Fund will be helping to make Missionary Priests long after they have been laid to rest. Imagine how much good can be done by one priest and missionary! Let everyone, therefore, according to his means contribute to such a meritorious work. Send your contributions to Father Fraser care of the CATHOLIC RECORD.

Dominion of Canada

Refunding Loan 1923

5% Bonds

Dated and bearing interest from 15th October, 1923, and offered in two maturities as follows:

20 year Bonds due 15th October, 1943
5 year Bonds due 15th October, 1928

Principal payable at the office of the Receiver-General at Ottawa or that of the Assistant Receiver-General at Halifax, St. John, Charlottetown, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Regina, Calgary or Victoria. Semi-annual interest (15th April and 15th October) payable at any branch in Canada of any chartered bank.

Denominations: $100, $500, $1000

All bonds may be registered as to principal only, and bonds in denomination of $500 and authorized multiples thereof may be fully registered.

These bonds are authorized under Act of the Parliament of Canada, and both principal and interest are a charge upon the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

To Cash Subscribers
Offering Terms

This issue presents a most attractive investment. The security is incomparable and the income return high. The bonds will occupy an investment position equal to that of Canada's Victory Bonds.

The bonds are offered for cash at the following prices:

20 YEAR BONDS
98.25 and interest yielding 5.14%

5 YEAR BONDS
99 and interest yielding 5.23%

This offer is made subject to prior sale and to advance in price.

To Holders of 1923 Victory Bonds

In addition to the bonds offered for cash it has been arranged that all owners of Victory Bonds due November 1st, 1923, may exchange their holdings for the same amount of the new issue. They will receive in cash the difference between the face value of their maturing bonds and the purchase price of the new security, namely: at the rate of $1.75 per $100 for 20 year bonds and $1.00 for 5 year bonds.

Special Privilege

Interest coupons on bonds exchanged are to be retained by the owner and cashed on November 1st. As the new bonds will be dated October 15th, holders who exchange will thus receive an extra half month's interest thereby reducing the cost of 20 year bonds from 98.25, and 5 year bonds from 99, to the following:

20 YEAR BONDS
98.02 and interest yielding 5.16%

5 YEAR BONDS
98.77 and interest yielding 5.28%

Holders are urged to act promptly as this privilege is subject to withdrawal.

Dominion of Canada bonds are the most attractive investment obtainable in Canada.

Orders may be telegraphed or telephoned (collect) and exchanges made through any of the undersigned or through your usual dealer or bank.

The right is reserved to allot a less amount of bonds than applied for, and to sell for cash more than $50,000,000.

These bonds are offered for delivery in interim form on or about October 15th, 1923, when, as, and if issued and delivered to us.
