OBITUARY.

On retiring from his second term of office as President Dr. Phelan was made the recipient of a very handsomely engraved locket by the members. The presentation was made on their behalf by Rev. Spiritual Adviser Cure Bernard in a few well-chosen and highly compliment-ary remarks, to which Dr. Phelan very elo-quently and feelingly replied. The members afterwards entertained the doctor at a recherche supper at the Canada Hotel. Branch 113 is in a most flourishing condition. Mrs. Lawrence Coffee, Rosedale. The death of Mrs. Lawrence Coffee, which had been for some time expected, occurred at her husband's residence, Rosedale, on Friday last. The sad announcement caused heart-felt sorrow amongst a large number of friends and acquaintances, some of whom had known her from girlhood, and all of whom appreciated her fine womanly qualities, her mulability, her charity and henevolence. Deceased was sister to Mr. William O'Con-nor, of the Railway Mail Service, and of Mrs. N. Melady, Parliament street. She leaves to mourn her loss, besides her bereaved husband, several sons and daughters, for whom there is widespread sympathy in this community and elsewhere. At the time of her death Mrs. Coffee was in the sity-first year of her age. May her soul rest in peace 1-Doronto Irish Canadian. We offer our heartfelt condolence to Mr. Mrs. Lawrence Coffee, Rosedale. To the Editor of the Catholic Record: DEAR SIR—At a special meeting of Branch 43, held to-day, it was moved by Brother D. W. Downey and seconded by Brother O. K. Fraser, that this Branch desires on the solemn occa-sion of the death of its beloved spiritual ad-viser and first charter member, Rev. I. J. Mc-Cartney, to place on record its hich apprecia-tion of his great worth, and the manifold priestly qualities which have endeared him to his brother members and former parishioners, and to express their deep sorrow for the loss sustained not only by this Branch but by the Catholic people and priesthood of eastern On-tario.

We offer our heartfelt condolence to Mr Coffee because of the sad misfortune that has befallen his home. - ED. RECORD.

befallen his home. - ED. RECORD. Miss Helen Agnes Norris, London. Very many will regret to hear of the death of this good lady, which occurred at her resi-dence in this city on Sunday, 17th inst, in the fifty-first year of her age. She had been sick only a very short time, but was accorded the privilege of receiving all the rites of the Church before her death. Miss Norris was well known in this city and respected most highly by a numerous circle of friends. Thrown uport her own resources at an early age she bravely faced the world and earned a comfortable living for herself by teaching a private school. Many of our prominent men of business and ladies walking in the best circles of life have cause to look back with gratitude to the careful and conscientious training they received at the hands of Miss Norris in their tender years. Her mind was cast in a noble mold, and God alone knows the extent of her goodness, her kindness, her charity, worked out quietly and unostentations tously as the years passed on. She was ever home will be the prayer of all who knew her. High Mass of Requien was celebrated in the cathedral for the repose of her soul on Tuesday morning last, after which the faneral proceeded to St. Peter's cemetery. Mrs. Crowder, Fingal. Address and Presentation. The following address and presentation was a few weeks ago made to Miss Quirk, teacher, of Dornoch: To Miss Quirk – Dear Teacher – We come together this evening as scholars to express our vell wishes and gratitude to you for your kind attention and the deep interest which you have taken with us in the past year. The esteem in which you have been held among us in the past we now show bycoming together as social beings and presenting you with this plush tollet work box, which is the willing contributioned a few of your many friends and w-ll wishers in thi-locality. It is with heartfelt regret that your stay among us cannot be prolonged. It is not always sunshine nor is everything that glitters gold. We would at this time remember that we

TOWN OF DUNNVILLE.

ITS ENTERPRISE — ELECTRIC LIGHT SYS. TEM—NATURAL GAS WELLS—WATER-WORKS — THEIR COST — HÖSE AND FIRE COMPANIES — WATER - WORKS CONTRACTORS — THE BANQUET — THE FUTURE OF DUNNVILLE—ITS SUMMER RESORT, ETC.

The town of Dunnville, the principal com-mercial centre of the county of Haldimand, has long been well known to commercial men as one of the best business points in the Pro-vince of Ontario. During the past few years it has not only increased its importance in a business way, but has made rapid strides towards securing conveniences and advan-tages which are not to be found in many places of much greater pretensions. The town itself is well situated at the head of the Welland Canal feeder — a situation which gives it excellent water power, which is uti-lized quite extensively for milling and manu-facturing purposes.

rives it excellent water power, which is uti-lized quite extensively for milling and manu-facturing purposes. ELECTRIC LIGHT SYSTEM. A few years ago a local company, of which Mr. W. F. Haskins, banker, is Presi-dent, put in an excellent electric light sys-tem, by which the streets, business places and residences are lighted. The light is prob-ably one of the best in the Province and is supplied, it is believed, cheaper than at any other point. For instance, the arc lights, of 2,000 candle power, are given for street light ing at $1 per week for the other halt. THE GAS COMPANY. The Dunnville Natural Gas Company, of which Mr. F. J. Ramsny, merchant, is Fresi-dent, was formed in Fobruary, 1801, with a capital of $5,000, which has since been in-creased to $20,000. Two wells were drilled by the Carmody brothers, and a good supply of gas obtained. The Company have placed about eight miles of pipe and are at present turishing about one hundred and fifty con-sumers with gas of a very good quality. It is expected that another well will be put down in the spring, as the demand for it is winter used the gas for fuel or lighting are loud in its praise, claiming that it gives en-ting of domestic requirements natural gas is much cheaper than coal or wood, and is very popular with all who have tried it. Before nonther year its use in this town will be uni-versal. THE WATER-WORKS. versal.

THE WATER-WORKS.

THE WATER-WORKS. THE WATER-WORKS. Probably, however, the greatest step which the town has taken in the direction of progress was made on the 30th ult., when the new system of water-works was completed and tested in the presence of thousands of people. This step had its origin with Mr. F. R. Lalor, the present efficient and excellent head of the municipality, who, some tour years ago, began to make a study of the sub-ject and at last his perseverance has been crowned with success. Several experts were present at the inauguration, including Chief Calder, of the Brantford Fire Department; Mr. Hunting, the Contractor; Mr. Hender-son, the overseer; Mr. Burns, boiler Manu-facturer, of London; Mr. Hargart, mechan-ical engineer, of Walkerville, and others. These gentlemen one and all pronounced the new system a success. The ratepayers, who carried the water-works by-law by an almost unanimous vote, must be pleased to find that those who are experts in such matters say that the town has to-day one of the best systems in the Dominion, and cer-tainly one of the cheapest. It is but proper that credit should be given to the GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY, which has aided and encouraged the town to the GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY, which has aided and encouraged the town very much in the carrying out of the project. They leased their fine pumping house and appliances—the best upon the line of the G. T. R.—at a dollar a year to the town and entered into contract to pay the town and aufficient to pay the yearly running expenses of the whole system. The townsneople are much gratified at this very generous conduct upon the part of the company.

of the whole system. The townspeople are much gratified at this very generous conduct upon the part of the company. There are in all about three miles of mains, sized 8 inches, 6 inches and 4 inches, at dif-ferent points, and thirty-five hydrants, situ-ated in all the different principal parts of the town. The severe trial to which the new system has been submitted shows that the pressure is ample for all purposes—in fact is greater than in Hamilton or Toronto. In proof of this it may be stated that at three extreme points, east, west and north, the hydrants were opened at the same time and so great was the force that through 750 feet of hose, attached to each hydrant, streams were projected fully 150 feet high. Such powerful volumes of water thrown far above the loftiest buildings should be enough to convince the ratepayers of the perfect effic-iency of the system and make the citizens feel that in the event of a fire their property and lives would be protected from the ravages of the devonring element. The town is much pleased with its system of water-works and it has a right to be so, particularly when it is considered that so far as known THE COST 18 LESS THAN ONE-HALF of what it costs other towns for a similar service. The whole outlay for mains, works and it has a right to be so, particularly when it is considered that so far as known THE COST IS LESS THAN ONE-HALF of what it costs other towns for a similar service. The whole outlay for mains, pump, etc., including the interest on the expenditure-indeed the system as it stands complete-is covered by an annual payment of $523.11 for twenty years, while the estimated rental per annum for domestic and manufacturing purposes is upwards of $1,000. Such being the case it can be well under-stood that the Reeve, Mr. F. R. Lalor, who is a most popular and painstking officer, together with the efficient Council, composed this year of Messrs. Cooley, Bennett, Robbins and Latimore, feel very much grafified over the success of the scheme. They are now arranging for the placing of electric tire alarms, and it is hoped that the town, with all these appliances and its splendid class of buildings, will be rated by the underwriters in classification B. for insur-ance purposes. HOSE AND FIRE COMPANIES. It should be mentioned here that the town has as hose and fire companies, these which have for years past carried off the best troolies in tournaments upon this and the other side of the international boundary line. These companies will now be stimulated and supported even better than before and will do even greater service than heretofore. THE CONTRACTORS. The contractor for the work was Mr. Miles Hunting, of Hamilton, and he has done his work in a most excellent manner, not a little of the credit being due, however, to Mr. Henderson, who has had the superintendance of construction and has discharged his duties to the satisfaction of all concerned. The engrine and hydrants are the work of Stevens and Barns, of London, and they are to be con-gratulated upon the class of article supplied. Messrs, Kerr and Co., of Walkerville, built the pump, and it works most admirably. All the engrine and hydrants are the new for the con-tractors have carried out their part of the work in a way which commands the hearty approval of the Boath of Brother Barrett, Winnipeg. The North-West (Winnipeg) Review says: It is with feelings of the deepest regret that we have to chronicle the death of Thomas Jas. Barrett, brother of Mr. J. K. Barrett, man-gring director and editor of the Review. The deceased was born in Hamilton, Ontario, on the 8th of October, 1853. His father having removed to the township of Puslinch, county Wellington, shortly after his birth, he received the neighborhood. He received his higher while primary education in the country school of the neighborhood. He received his higher while no the Collegiate Institute of Ham-ilton and the High School of Belleville. He subsequently occupied the position of Princi-nal of the Perth and Almonte Separate schools. In 1881 he was appointed to a position in the outside service of the Department of In-land Revenue and at the time of his death condon, Ontario office of the Department. He was a member of Branch No. 4, C. M. B. A., Londo Ont. The Review extends to Mr. Barrett and his family our deepest sympathy it the sad bereavement which the endy densice of his brother causes. After the installation and other business was finished in the branch room the Brethren and a few invited friends sat down to a magnificent supper in the Murphy House. The spread was simply immense, as is invariably the case when anything of that kind is undertaken at the Murphy House. The chair was occupied by Brother J Kirby and the vice chair by Brother H J Downey. The first toast, "Cauada Our Home," effected a well put, pointed and patri-etic response from Dr. Coughlin of Arthur, and also some good practical remarks from Mr. Wm. McDermott. "Success to the C. M. B. A.," was responded to in good style by Mr. Joseph Halley of Arthur, and Mr. Downey and Mr. J McDermott sang "The English, Irish, Scotch-man." "The Agricultural Interests," was coupled with the names of Messrs. McDermott, Haley and M Cooney sang a song each. "The Mercantile Interests," was coupled with the names of Jos. Haley of Arthur, J Kirby and A Griffin of Elora. J J Crette, Wm. Fitzpatrick and songe followed, and the jollity was con-tinued till alate hour. It was an otheraby gra-tifying feature, that while liquor of all kinds was one table, the entire company were very moderate in the use of it, and consequently there was not on any one present at the supper the signification. The parity as a jolly social one, and all who had the good heck to be there spent a very nice time indeed. The C. M. B. A have therefore made a good start here, and set an excellent example of well judged moderation and abstinence from excess.

There is much excitement in Paris over the decision of Lieutenant de Bauge to sacrifice a brilliant military career for the life of a priest. Some months ago the young officer was in the hospital at Tours, and there he re ceived the kindest attentions from the Sisters of Charity. These exhorted M. de Bauge to fulfill his duty as a Chris-de Bauge to fulfill his duty as a Chris-tian, and many were the conversations he had with the hospital priest. At last he decided to leave the army, and consecrate his life to religion as Jesuit priest. The father of the new candidate for holy orders is Colonel de Bauge, who invented the cannon that bears his name. Fortitude has three signs by which it may be known. The first is silence under pain : "Jesus held His peace." The second is meekness: "He opened not His mouth." The third is gladness under wrongs: Peter and John re-joiced that they were counted worthy to suffer for the Name of Christ.—Car-dinal Manning.
