National Art Society's Gifts.

A $10.00 ENGRAVING FOR $1.25

- 1.—"The Good Shepherd," by Dobson, R. A. "I am the Good Shepherd and know my sheep and am known of mine."
- 2.—"The Shepherd of Jerusalem," by P. R. Morris, A.R.A. An impressive scene on the summit of Mount Calvary after the crucifixion.
- 3.—"La Madonna dei Ansidi," by Raphael. A touching representation of motherhood and childhood and one of the noblest embodiments of Christianity ever painted. The original was recently bought by the British Nation for $350,000, and the National Art Society has secured the only copperplate that exists: each of the above measures 3 1/2 x 2 1/2 inches.
- 4.—"The Monarch of the Glen," by Sir Edwin Landseer, 3 1/2 x 2 1/2 inches.
- 5.—"The Challenge," by Sir Edwin Landseer, 3 1/2 x 2 1/2 in.
- 6.—"The Sanctuary," by Sir Edwin Landseer, 3 1/2 x 2 1/2 in.

The Rt. Rev. Bishop Sweetman, of Toronto, writes:

TORONTO, Feb. 16, 1897.
"I have to thank you for sending me copies of the 3 engravings published by the National Art Society, of the well-known pictures, 'The Madonna dei Ansidi,' 'The Shepherd of Jerusalem,' 'The Good Shepherd.' The object of the Society, to disseminate among the people a taste for a pure and more elevated standard of art, and to put it within their reach to replace the inferior and too often debased types that disfigure rather than adorn their homes, by copies from the best masters, which will educate both eye and mind, is worthy of all commendation and encouragement. You have my permission to use my name as one of the patrons of your Society."

The Rt. Rev. Bishop Hamilton, of Ottawa, writes:

OTTAWA 16th Feb., 1897.
"I hasten to make my acknowledgments of your kindness in sending me three engravings of the National Art Society. 'The Good Shepherd,' 'The Shepherd of Jerusalem' and 'The Madonna dei Ansidi,' are admirably fitted to promote the excellent objects which the National Art Society has set before itself.
Any of the above six engravings will be sent carriage paid to any address in the postal union for $1.25 each or $3.00 for three. The supply is limited. Applications will be attended to in order as received. If supply is exhausted, money returned in full. Please mention this paper.
SPECIAL 8 DAYS' OFFER. The National Art Society have agreed with the CANADIAN CHURCHMAN to present any of the above engravings at a further reduced charge of $1 each or $2.50 for three, to any of our readers who cut out this paragraph and send it with their order to the Society within the next 15 days.

The Success of anything depends upon the publicity it receives

Therefore, when a Sunday school entertainment is to be held, or special church services are to be conducted, it is important that as many persons as possible be made acquainted with the fact. There is no better way of accomplishing this than by attractive poster and newspaper advertising. We print posters that people stop to read, and compose advertisements for newspapers equally attractive.

The Clock of Nature

By Hugh Macmillan, D.D., LL.D.
author of "The Ministry of Nature." 12mo cloth, $1.50

"The title of this book, taken from that of the first chapter, indicates its nature and scope. Based upon our Lord's parable of the leafing of the fig tree as a forecast of the coming summer, and therefore as a sign of the greater events and higher truths, the various chapters are meant to expand the significance and adaptation of the parable. I trust that they may all help to illustrate the spiritual revelation of God in Christ, by the revelation of God in nature, and prove that, as a dial of the clock reveals the unseen movements within its case, so the visible world reveals the working of the invisible."—From THE PREFACE.

How to Read the Bible

Hints for Sunday-School teachers and other Bible students. By Walter F. Adeney, M.A., Professor of New Testament Exegesis, New College, London. 12mo, cloth, 50c.

"A most admirable little work. We know of no book which deals with this subject so clearly and adequately within so small a compass. An enormous amount of information is packed into this little volume, but its compression never causes obscurity and it is so simply written that a child could understand it. It speaks of itself modestly as 'Hints for Sunday-school Teachers and other Bible Students,' but it is one of the very few manuals which are well worth the study of the clergy."—THE GUARDIAN, London.

My First Duty

Twelve short instructions on "My Duty Towards God." By Juliet C. Smith. With an introduction by George H. McCrew, D.D., St. Bartholomew's Parish, New York. 16mo, cloth, 50 cents.

Love of God, The

Addresses on the Seven Last Words, together with a Sermon for Palm Sunday and one for Easter Day. By Rev. H. B. Rastarick, Rector of St. Paul's, San Diego, Cal. 16mo, cloth, 60 cents net.

Children's P teacher, The

A Year's Addresses and Parables for the Young. By the Rev. J. Reid Howatt, author of "The Children's Pew," etc. 12mo, cloth, $1.50.

Mr. Howatt's previous volumes of similar sermons show him to be a rare genius in the children's pulpit.

Key of Life, The

Addresses on the Seven Words from the Cross. By Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, Rector of Grace Church, Brooklyn. 12mo, cloth, 60 cents net.

"These sermons, or rather addresses, of the Rev. Dr. Brewster strike us as aiming at the exact point which is desirable. They are not doctrinal, but rather are meditatively emotional, with just the right blending of thought and feeling, and we do not wonder that the congregation privileged to listen to them wished to have them take permanent shape in print."—THE CHURCHMAN.

"More Copy"

Being a second series of Essays on Religion, Literature and Life. By Hugh Miller Thompson, D.D., Bishop of Mississippi. 12mo, cloth, $1.00.

Whittaker's Churchman's Almanac and Parochial List for 1897. Price 25 cents.

Any of the above sent by mail on receipt of price.
