THE RIGHT OF OLD AGE

Old age often brings regret for things left undone. One of the saddest reflections for a man well advanced in years is that he has neglected to make sufficient provision for the latter part of his life.

There is a way, simple and easy, which leads to future comfort and affluence. Endowment insurance, while providing for peaceful and pleasant days in the future for the husband and father, makes immediate provision for those dependent upon him, should he be taken away.

The unexcelled financial position of the North American, and the excellent results obtained under its Endowment Policies, make the Company a most desirable one in which to insure.
