

Monday, October 22d, 1769.

The Order of the Day being read, the House proceeded to take into Consideration the Amendments proposed by His Majesty's Council to the Bill in further Addition to and Amendment of the Act for appointing Commissioners of Sewers; and agreed to the same.

Amendments to the Bill for appointing Commissioners of Sewers,

consider'd.

Then the House adjourn'd till To-morrow Morning Eleven o'Clock.

Tuesday, October 24, 1769.

Mr. Salter, from the Committee appointed to examine the Public Accounts, reported the proceedings of the said Committee therein, and the House having taken the said Report into Consideration, came to the following Resolutions:

Report of the Committee appointed to Examine the Public Accounts.

Resolv'd, That it appears to this House, that the Sum of £70. 1. 2. is due from Benoni Danks, Esq; Collector of the Duties of Impost and Excise at Cumberland, exclusive of Four Notes of Hand from different Persons, amounting to £43. 3. 3. transmitted by him to the Treasury as Payments, but which still remain unpaid, and that the said Benoni Danks, has not ~~submitted~~ any Account for Duties collected since the 30th April last; that there likewise appears to be due by Mr. Samuel Wethered, of Cumberland, the Sum of £89. 14. for Duties of Impost and Excise and License Money.

Resolutions thereon.

Resolv'd, That it appears to this House, that by the Accounts of George Cottnam, Esq; Collector of the Duties of Impost and Excise at Louisbourg, to February 1768, there has been collected there the Sum of £201. 7. of which there has been paid into the Treasury only £90. which, with the charge of £40. for Commissions, £40 for a Waiter and Guager, and £19. 0. 6 1/2 for sundry Expenses
