READ the proceedings of yesterday.

At Twelve o'clock, the House proceeded to Government House with their Address, in answer to His Excellency's Speech at the opening of the Session; and having returned, the President reported, that His Excellency had been pleased to receive the same, and to give an answer thereto, which was read by the Clerk, and is as follows:—

Mr. President, and Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council;

I receive your Address with the sincerest thankfulness.

The sentiments expressed by you upon the blessings lately granted by Almighty God to the Nation, are well calculated to prove how deeply they are appreciated in this Island, foremost in loyalty to Her Majesty our beloved Sovereign.

I thank you for the assurances of your examination into the state of Education generally, and that also of the Central Academy, with other matters as they may be submitted; the Colony has much to hope for, in this exercise of your talent and care.

H. V. HUNTLEY, Lieut. Governor.

Government House, January 28th, 1842.
