CHARLOTTE COUNTY EXHIBITION NEAR AT HAND

On Sept. the 14th, the gates of the Char lotte County Exhibition to be held at St. Stephen will be opened to the public. Those who will be fortunate enough to be able to attend the Show on any one, or all of these days, will be amply repaid for any effort they have made to see the big Show. More enteries than ever are assured in all departments. The booths tained a number of friends on Thursday are all engaged, and ground space is being rapidly taken up. In addition to customary features of > making an extensive exhibit, which will consist of everything appertaining to farming as carried on on a practical and scientific basis. This exhibit will occupy fifty feet in length and will be instructive as well as attractive. The outdoor attractions, which will be given free to the public, have been secured at a great cost and will include some of the most daring feats ever attempted i previous Shows held by this Association,

The purses offered for the horse racing The purses offered for the horse racing will have the effect of bringing the fastest horses to compete that any exhibition is securing, and doubly good racing will be seen for those who enjoy this sport. The exhibition of 1915, will be the best ever held by the Association, and the manage ment have every reason to feel pleased with the outlook Remember the dates September 14-15-
