BY KEE LANCE

At the Season's End.
The dusk comes soon and the game is slow:
The play drifts by in a sluggish flow:
Only a day or two until
The stands are bare and the park is still.

Only a day or two to score
The winning run to a frenzied roar:
The Player files through the homebound gate—
The season ends—but the Records wait.

The dusk comes soon whatever the game:
The day is brief on the trail of Fame;
But we loaf along and we look ahead
Till the race is run and the dream is dead.

Until, far back to the winning score,
We find that we come back to bat no
more:
We curse the luck and we call it Fate
The season ends—but the records wait.

FANS ARE WONDERING WHAT FRANK BAKER WILL DELIVER IN WORLD'S SERIES

Athletics' Third Baseman Keeps Baseball Followers Guessing—Will He Repeat the 1911 Work, Fail or Do Better? That's the Question.

What will Frank Baker do in the series of 1913?

That is the question the fans have been asking themselves ever since he became certain that the Athletics can League this year. They will recall his good work with the bat in the series of 1911 against the Giants when he poked out home runs on both Mathewson and Marquard and thereby won one game and tied another in the ninth inning, giving the Athletics a chance to win it in the eleventh.

What will he do? Will he get any more home runs? Will he become the batting hero by hitting in the pinches? Will he star in the field? It is seldom that a player enjoys the double share of fame, that came to Baker in that world's series. It is unlikely that he will again perform with as much elat and success. But then, in the uncertain game of baseball, the unexpected generally happens, and it is possible that he may duplicate his previous performances, or even go them one better.

He is hitting the ball as hard as ever, although his home runs during the past season have been less frequent than formerly, and there is no doubt that he will lug a heavy bat and a good batting eye into the series. The eyes of the entire baseball world will be upon him every time he steps to the plate.

What will he do?

B. C. I. FIELD SPORTS—SOME GOOD CONTESTS

Annual Field Day Held By the Students on Friday—Results of the Various Events.

Yesterday afternoon at Agricultural Park the annual Brantford Collegiate Institute field day was held when nearly 100 pupils and teachers gathered, including a splendid array of the young ladies of the school, who graced the occasion by their presence. Principal Burt and lady teachers were to have been a committee to look after the events for young ladies, but owing to the fair ones wishing not to portray their athletic prowess in the presence of such a representative gathering of renowned sportsmen, the events were not run off. It is rumored in Collegiate circles that the young ladies are about to form themselves into a suffragette society, and will accompany the rugby team when that bunch of stars visit a near-by town, Galt by name. By this kind reader, you will gather that the young ladies attending the Institute are the best of scrappers.

The Sports

The Institute was closed for the afternoon, and at 1.30 the athletes, and admirers gathered at the park, and the events were at once run off. There was not great deal of competition in the senior events, but those who entered to a man were good athletes, and Roy Patten, who won the championship, did not secure it with any great ease. "Scotty" MacDonald, of local athletic fame, secured second place, and Douglas Jones third place. There was more competition in the junior events, in which Edgar Simpson and Ross Deagle were tied for the championship, each securing 21 points.

A Walk Away

They called it a Rugby match, but it should have been a "walk away." The Rugby afforded the team an excellent workout for the game this afternoon with Galt at Agricultural Park. The team proved themselves too fast for the youngsters, going right through without much resistance.

At half time, a number of the seniors, in order to give the half backs and some of the line players a still better workout, went over on the town school side.

Results of the Events.

The results of the events are here given:

BROKEN HAND FOR ATHLETIC "ROOKIE"

Baker's Understudy Hurt in Game at New York Yesterday.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4.—This was an unfortunate day for the Philadelphia champions, unfortunately because the weather was too cold and blustery for their pitchers to get a good tuning up for the world's series and unfortunately because Orr, the first substitute infielder, had his right hand broken. Philadelphia won the first game by 13 to 10 and New York the second, which was called on account of darkness at the end of the sixth, by 2 to 1.

Orr's injury was received in the second game when he touched out Hartzell who tried to steal third base in the fourth inning. Hartzell's spikes were driven into Orr's hand and one of the bones fractured. This was the second accident of the series, with New York, Catcher Schang having had his hand hurt by a foul tip yesterday, but the injury is not thought to be serious. Sore: First game—New York 10, Philadelphia 13; second game—New York 2, Philadelphia 1.

What will he do?

SERIES CAUSES AN UNEVEN DIVISION OF THE SPOILS

Proposed to Substitute Inter-League Post-Season Series of Games.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—This year may be the last to see a world's series according to interesting baseball gossip here. In many quarters agitation for the abandonment of a world's championship each fall and the substitution of an inter-league post-season series in which all of the sixteen major league clubs could share has been going on for some time, and according to the reports here, at least one of the three members of the National Commission has suggested that it may be feasible to do away with the world's series after this year. It is said that August Herrmann, chairman of the commission and owner of the Cincinnati club has breached the idea, with a plan that the regular league season be reduced to 112 games in each league, to be followed by an inter-league schedule of 64 games, by which each National League team would play four games at home and four abroad with each American League team. The total winning percentage for the two schedules might determine the title of world's champion.

The present wrangle between members of the New York and Philadelphia teams who will be parties to the championship fight this year, and the National Commission because of the rule prohibiting series players from writing or allowing the use of their names over newspaper stories has given immediate halos to the argument for abandonment of the big series after this year. Those arguing for such action point out that out of sixteen major league clubs only four have shared in the world's series spoils since 1909.

SECOND PLACE FOR SENATORS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 4.—By breaking even in their double-header here yesterday, Washington clinched second place and Boston fourth in the American League race. The Red Sox took the first game by 2 to 0, mainly through the airtight pitching of Leonard, who held the locals to two hits. Shaw, a Washington recruit from York, Pa., was hit hard. Manager Griffith trotted out the Washington youngsters to look them over. First game—Boston 3, Washington 0; second game—Boston 3, Washington 11.

RUDOLPH WAS GOOD.

BOSTON, Oct. 3.—By defeating Brooklyn, 3 to 1 and 7 to 6, in today's double-header Boston clinched its hold on fifth place in the National League standing for the excellent fielding enabled the Boston team to win the first contest, two double plays nipping what appeared to be the start of rallies for Brooklyn. First game—Boston 3, Brooklyn 1; second game, Brooklyn 6, Boston 7.

THREE NEW PITCHERS FOR TORONTO CLUB

Trio of Right-Handed Youngsters Caught in the Draft Net.

TORONTO, Oct. 4.—Word reached Toronto headquarters last night to the effect that three young right hand pitchers, drafted by the Leafs had been awarded to the club. They are Bradshaw of the Berlin club of the Canadian League, John L. Sullivan of the Portland, Me., club of the Berlin team, but he showed through-out the season that he possessed the qualifications of a good twirler.

Bradshaw won five and lost seven games with the disorganized New England League, and Graham of the Appleton team in the Wisconsin Illinois circuit.

"Patsy" Flaherty, the former Toronto pitcher, recommended Sullivan to the Leaf management. Sullivan's final performance of the season was an exhibition game against the Boston Nationals, in which he was not safely until the eighth inning.

Graham is a product of the Don Valley League of this city. He was regarded as the best twirler in the Wisconsin-Illinois League, and attracted the attention of several scouts. The Chicago Nationals drafted him, but owing to the presence of so many other youngsters the draft was cancelled and Toronto got him.

President McCaffery left last night for New York. During his stay in that city he will close for either Mac, Ga., or Marlin Springs, Texas, for training purposes.

A local enthusiast informs The Courier that he would like to see sporting, jumping and other like sports encouraged among the boys of the public schools. Should this matter be taken up among the public schools, the enthusiast would give a special challenge prize to be competed for each year and won by points. Other prizes would also be put up in the form of ribbons for first, second and third prizes for all events. The sports could be run off annually and on a Saturday so as not to interfere with the regular school work. If the events could be arranged, the first annual meet would take place this fall. The enthusiast does not wish his name given publicity at this date, but would be pleased to meet any of the principals of the various schools. All communications addressed to "Athletic Enthusiast," care of this office, will be delivered.

ALLEN IS CHAMPION.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Benny Allen of Kansas City won the world's pocket billiard championship last night, defeating Alfred De Oro of Cuba, the title holder for several years, by a total score in the three nights' play of 600 to 516.

BENEDICT FOR MONTREAL.

MONTREAL, Oct. 3.—It is whispered around hockey circles that Benedict the Ottawa goalkeeper, who some claim is just as good as Percy LeSueur, is dissatisfied with his position in the capital and is looking towards other fields to conquer. It is even stated that he is in communication with the two senior clubs in Montreal on the quiet and that it would not be a bit surprising if he became a fixture in this city for next season.
