THE SEMI-WEEKLY KLONDIKE NUGGET: DAWSON, Y. T., THURSDAY, APRIL 4, 1901.

RECEIVED BY WIRE. TURKEY'S SULTAN

Flees From His Palace on Account of Intricate Finan-· cial Difficulties.

MARIES EIGHT MONTHS IN ARREARS

Brother of Present Sultan Will he Proclaimed Mohammed V.

J. HILL REPORTED AFTER C. P.

Report Causes Boom in Stock-British Government Protests Against Russian Aggressiveness.

From Tuesday's Daily. via Skagway, Constantinople, March 27, via Skags scheme to ay, April 2.- The sultan has fled from illion dollars' hispalace and the finances of the Turkressing and is government are in inextricable ckefeller, the confusion. The salaries of all governother capital ment officals are eight months in the roads mi arrears and nothing on hand wheret of the Miswith to pay them. There is no doubt s of the roads but that the Ottoman troops have reave not as yet ceived a severe check at the hands of the Arabian insurgents who have issued a manifesto in which the present sulamited.

bed.

1 26, via Skag-nen- robbed a oo in cash and $30,000. The vith dynamite,

several citizens

t the burglars,

WIRE

ENE

Hundred

Worth

AL SANCTION

Inder Palace

RY IN OHIO

tched-Brazil

olution

ay's Daily.

WS.

an is denounced and his brother provia Skagway. claimed sultan with the title of Mowith dynamic nammed V. The insurrection is daily der the cas St. Petersburg. milities are the new party will be sucterested in the cessful. be very ner

Jim Hill After C. P.

Montreal, March 28, via Skagway, April 1. - Canadian Pacific stock yesterday jumped up 31/2 points on account of what appears to be a well authenticated rumor that Jim Hill is buying up the road.

England and Japan.

April 2.- The British government has that platform and give a correct imitation RECEIVED BY of the reel. He contented himself with keeping time with his foot and thereby deprived the audience of a fare treat. Messrs. McPherson, Chataway and Nye rendered solos and each had to respond to encores.

The meeting closed with "God Save the King," and everyone departed, having spent a very pleasant evening.

Fatal Gift of Beauty.

If Louisa Parris had not been endowed with the gift of beauty, she would now in all probability be languishing behind the walls and bars of a North Carolina prison.

Within no long time she expects to be free to go where she will. And freedom means that she will marry at least the man for whose sake she has sinned and suffered.

Tryon City, Polk county, N. C., is in the heart of the mountains, and it is there that the moonshiners carry on their secret work.

The Parris family own a farm about four miles from Tryon City, and here Louisa, a typical mountain beauty, lived until she was 16. In spite of her lack of education she was the belle of the town. Joining the Parris farm is the home of the Redmond family, near relatives Dawson are only temporary." of the well known moonshiner and outlaw, Redmond of South Carolina. In this family was a son, Ralph Redmond, and these two, seeing each other at school and about the farm work, fell in love. When the Parris family moved to Tryon City, Ralph and Louisa were engaged to be married. The girl Will Constitute "Fleat" of Comwas ignorant of the fact that her love was a moonshiner, and he was careful to prevent her finding it out.

In Tryon City Louisa became a greattown, fell desperately in love with the of his jealousy.

easy to find proofs of his connection running for several years. So far, howevevr, he had escaped discovery, as gated 5225 pounds of cariboo and mouse gowing more exciting and the prob- his plant was so well hidden in the Johnson's efforts and the help of a special officer Redmond was caught at work power.

his suit.

Johnson had furnished the information on which Redmond had been ket fortnightly so as to apprehend any arrested and the distillery seized and which is brought into the market durbroken up. Miss Parris was informed of this. When Johnson made his next visit, he was charged with treachery and was advised never to return Johnson became desperate. He tried to malign the character of Miss Parris by slandering her to the other young men of the town. His declarations For Grace Drummond's Ex-Huswere made known to Miss Parris, and she sent him a note asking that he call He came promptly. They met on the front porch. After accusing him of telling lies about her sne plunged a penknife into his heart, and he died at her feet. Miss Parris showed no emotion when she saw Johnson breathe his last. She expressed no regret.

HENRY J. WOODSIDE

WIRE.

Fears American Methods and Lawlessness in Dawson.

Vancouver, March 28, via Sakgway, April 2.-Henry J. Woodside, formerly editor of the Yukon Sun, in correspondence to the outside press opposes the incorporation of the city of Dawson as calculated to strengthen the dominion of American over Canadian influence in that town. He says incorporation will lead to the adoption of American methods and to lawlessness. He denies the solidity of the proposers of incorporation and advises the Canadian press to not take seriously actions and resolutions passed by the Dawson Board of Trade. He says:

"The Board of Trade is at present controlled by those whose interests are chiefly in Alaska or whose interests in

GAME MAY BE SOLD

mittees Report to Council.

The committee appointed by the Yukon council to look into the status of er belle than ever, and soon William the game situation met last evening Johnson, one of the young men of the and after due deliberation decided to and court expenses. present a favorable report to the coungirl. He proposed to Miss Parris and cil requesting that those having game was rejected. This was the beginning on hand be given an opportunity to son said.-S. F. Examiner. dispose of it, but to prohibit any fur-Johnson had heard it reported that ther amount of game to be brought in Redmond was a moonshiner, and it was for disposal. On the 29th of last month a report was obtained from all with the distillery which he had been the meat markets in town as to the amount of game on hand and it aggreand 1029 ptarmigans. Most of this has mountains that the revenue officers had been disposed of by this time leaving never been able to find him. With only a small balance on hand at the present time.

On the 24th of last month one party at the still, which was running at full had a cache of ten tons a short distance up the Klondike and there were several They were all put in Columbus jail, other parties with smaller amounts, but but with the assistance of friends on it is understood that these have all the outside they soon escaped to the been brought to town and disposed of mountains. Redmond's absence gave and what is left is included in the Johnson a clear field, and he renewed amount as obtained on the 29th, so that the Tanana. A letter written here the there will be very little if any left up 17th of September was received by him completed and in operation for 100 The triends of Redmond had not been the creeks to spoil.

000. The wedding dinner, consisting of all the delicacies of the Yukon valley, cost a fabulous sum, and the rejoicings of the friends of the happy couple, lasting about a week, were also very expensive. The high price of champagne caused no diminution in the supply. Then came the journey to San Francisco. At every stopping place the groom insisted on buying expensive presents for his bride. Mere gold was too common to be considered, so she graciously consented to accept diamonds, pearls, emeralds and other baubles.

Before leaving the Klondike Anderson invested in a few additional claims, and so when he got to San Francisco he had only about $300,000 in cash. He bought a fine residence and turnished it luxuriously. After that he hired a safe deposit box, which once a day be visited for the purpose of drawing money to be used by his wife. On his Has Chamber of Commerce and visits to the bank Anderson used to wear a dress suit, including what he called his "plug hat and his claw hammered coat" outfit.

But all this came to an end yesterday. In a complaint filed against his wife, Anderson said that she took advantage of his absence from the city to obtain possession of all his property, safe deposit box and all. It was shown that Anderson had cruelly threatened to shoot his wife and that he kept a loaded pistol under his pillow. Therefore her demand for a divorce was granted. Anderson said he was willing to have the marriage ties dissolved if he could only get enough to pay his who came from Juneau by the Senator, expenses to Dawson. She gave him back the $50,000 mansion and furniture, besides $10,000 in cash. For herself she kept $130,000 worth of real estate and places of Alaska. whatever trifling sums of money she

"No more society life for me; I'm going back to the Klondike," Ander-

A DEAD ONE IS NOME

According to Letter From Former Dawson Printer.

A letter from Nome dated January ooth was received in Dawson by the last Nome mail which arrived last Fri- It is a very creditable sheet. day afternoon. It was from Phil Ernest, received from any point up river above ropolitan airs by incorporating.

The City of the West Coast Now Contains 500

GROWING

People.

APROVEMENTS ARE

ALDES

BUILDING MATERIAL CHEAP.

Many Good Strikes Lately Made Good Wages for Mechanics-Future Prospects Bright.

[From Tuesday's Dally.] According to E. F Miller, an oldtime Skagwayan, but now of Valdes, that town is in a very flourishing condition and promises to go ahead rapidly until it becomes one of the important

Reciting some of the things which may have saved after paying household took place in the Prince William sound port in the past few weeks, he enumerated the organization of a chamber of commerce, ot which F. D. Kelsey, a former prominent attorney of Juneau, is president, and Bert Rockford, late of this city, is secretary, and the organization of a camp of the Arctic Brotherhood, with a membership of 5 or 80.

The population he estimates at 500. The citizens have subscribed $4000 for the building of a wherf, and Mr. Miller is now going to Seattle to get a piledriver to do the work.

The town already has a paper-the Valdes News-edited by Mr. Rockford.

While at Sitka Mr. Miller purchased formerly in the employ of the Nugget. a quantity of lumber, which will be The writer states that up to the date sent to Valdes to build a town hall, the letter was written no mail had been and shortly the place-will put on met-

The government telegraph line is ondon, March 28, via Skagway, idle. They had satisfied themselves The police are going to take a sys- the lettetr must have reached Tanana building it to Fort Eghert on the Vaabout a week prior to his writing, but miles from the town, and the work of and escaped mining town wark on th the Baltimor to the civi General Phil n Matched. 26, via Skap ients have be ies and Ruhli ionship in this lational Sport principals to #### apts. razil.

to the Herald untry is threat Admiral Mell purpose of th e a signal for the presiden nd during he monarchis of the city and xcitement p ## med.

via Skagwaj ting in Sou the failure d to arrive st ? ndents say the but that it w ore Boer resi en made se ia railroad, b late J. C. Si nerly assista

s. officially col octorate rect States Embas rlin Academy entered a protest against Russian aggressiveness in China, and there are indications that England will join hands with Japan in the inevitable struggle

FREE LIBRARY SMOKER

Entertainment Punctuated With to see her. "Puffs" Last Night.

It was well for Peter Steil and Miss McRae that they did not attend the moker given at the public library last via Skaguas, night, for had they witnessed the big clouds of smoke which filled the room in all probability they would not have lived to tell the tale this morning. The hall was well filled with men who while the program was being rendered enjoyed themselves by puffing ingrant Havanas or cigarettes, while others who preferred their pipes were given the best brand of smoking tobacco trom Dawson's supply.

The cigars, etc., were furnished by the A.C. and A. E. companies, Charles Milne and others.

The affair was all that was promised by the committee; the program was Not too long and each number was well rendered.

Mr. R. P. McLennan was to have aresided but not being present Mr. Mc-Pherson was asked to take his place. Mr. Hall opened the program with a pland solo followed by Mr. Cowan in dialect and stuttering recitations. Wm. Ashe in coon songs did himself proud. The fire hall instrumental quartette omposed of a banjo, guitar, mandolin and flute makes very fine music and are compelled to play several times. The feature of the evening was "The

At the next term of the superior court Miss Parris was indicted for murder. She was represented by the best lawyers and by their advice pleaded guilty of murder in the second degree and was sentenced to the penitentiary for 15 vears.

The beauty of the untaught mountaineer impressed her jailers and the good ladies' who visited the prison. The King's Daughters of Raleigh especially took great interest in the fair convict.

They readily induced Miss Parris to sign an agreement that if released she would surrender herself to the King's Daughters and go to the House of the Good Shepherd in Maryland and there remain until she had been trained so that she could make an honest living. She was pardoned on this condition and was immediately taken to the House of the Good Shepherd.-Ex.

When J. R. Gandolfo first arrived in Dawson in the spring of '98 he brought bis attentions by throwing handfuls of with him 115 cases of oranges and gold nuggets on the stage in lieu of lemons which he sold at $75 per case roses, which were too expensive. "king Bird," played by Chief Stew- and thought he was making a big "Pes, which caused Col. MacGregor to down to $30 and $35 per case, all of ago. the his seat and it looked for a which goes to show that the Dawson "At the time of the marriage Anderson father, Richard Vates, as governor of time as if he were going to get on the market is very unstable.

tematic record of all game in the maring the closed period.

NO MORE HIGH LIFE

band, Charley Anderson.

I've had my fling with people, 'Nobbed with the upper ten; I've gone right through the social swim-Lord, let me live with men!

I'm going back to Dawson, Back where I want to be; I'm tired of high-life notion And swell society.

I've lived and loved—and lost her— She's fixed for life, all right; Back on the banks of Bonanza I'll make just one more fight

I've gone the limit in clothing-Plug hat and swallow-tail, And diamonds and patent leathers That made the sun turn pale.

l've run the hotel paces, And traveled East and West; But the mud log Klondike cabin Of all the earth is best

I've had my fling with people, Nobbed with the upper ten I've gone right through the social swim-Lord, let me live with men. C. S. AIKEN.

Another Klondike romance has had its ending in the divorce court. Mrs. Grace Anderson has been granted a legal separation from Charles J. Anderson, a reputed millionaire, on the ground of cruelty, and before the parties left the courtroom they settled their financial differences, after which they parted on apparently good terms, The most interesting chapter in the Anderson family history was the experience in Dawson. He was owner of a rich placer claim and she was an actress in a variety theater. He began

The little actress was impressed by the harmonica, with a banjo ac- thing. Last spring, two years after, Anderson's method of paying court to miment. As an encore he played he purchased at wholesale lemons at her, and when he proposed she accepted ever elected to his office. He was in-<sup>a Righland</sup> reel imitation of the bag- $85 per case. This year they have gone him. That was a little over a year was credited with being worth $1,000, - the same state 40 years ago.

by boat before the river closed.

No news had been received from the both ends. outside since early in the fall and they As tog developments in the mineral were not even informed as to who was line Mr. Miller spoke freely, saying outside since early in the fall and they at the November election here is very little going on.

The Topkuk mining case which ina big array of legal talent on both that could be desired. sides the contest would probably prove interesting.

David B. Tewksbury who was 'emnow United States commissioner and nency. Buildings are going up as fast recorder for Kougrock district.

On the 19th of January there ocsnow banked up to the eaves of the streets 10. feet deep.

The thermometer that day was 15 below, but had registered 36 below.

Bonanza King Alone Sold.

Sheriff Eilbeck did not get entirely out of the steamboat business this afternoon, but he did by his auction materially reduce his stock. Today at 2:30 o'clock was the advertised time for offering at public auction the steamers Eldorado and Bonanza King, but when the former was put up only $3,500 was offered on her and, as the order of sale explicitly stipulated that no bid under $7500 would be considered, she was put back on the shelf.

The Bonanza King sold for $7500, M. McDougal of the Victoria Market, being the purchaser.

The sheriff says that he will later receive private bids for the Eldorado. The bidding started today at $500 for the Eldorado and $3000 for the Bonnza King.

Richard Vates, the new governor of Illinois, is the first native of the state kan, March 23. ever elected to his office. He was in-augurated January 14, which was the exact date of the inauguration of his father, Richard Vates, as governor of the source of a $50 check to be applied to their the source of the source o augurated January 14, which was the

- cherry

kon will shortly be prosecuted from elected president of the United States that the Virgin Bay mine, after drifting all winter, has just struck a rich Nome he says is a very dull camp in vein. From as far back as 200/miles Le winter time and everything is very in the interior fine specimens of copper cheap. There are a few saloons and a ore have been brought out, and the relittle gambling, but aside from that ports are of the most encouraging kind.

In fact, at many places along the government wagon road splendid copper volves bundreds of thousands of dol- prospects are being found, and on those lars, was soon to be tried and as there is developed the most the showing is all

The wooden bridge which is being built from the city to the trail by the government- is nearly completed. The ployed on the Nugget staff last year is town already wears an air of perma-

as material can be obtained, and there are very few tents to be seen. The curred a very heavy blizzard and the government quarters are all of logs. A fine postoffice building is up and seven cabins and there were drifts in the saloons and three churches are in course of construction.

> Coal is quoted at $18 to $20 per ton. and rough lumber at $30 per thousand. Carpenters are in ready demand at s and $6 per day for private work, but the government pays only $5. The town is provided with an abundance of fine water and water power, which it is contemplated to utilize in the future for generating electricity and turnishing power for other purposes.

The new wharf at Valdes will be a great boomer for the commercial interests of that place and will make the slow and dangerous process of unloading vessels with barges, which has so impeded progress there, a thing of the past. The citizens subscribed liberally to a fund to build it, but it is under stood the Alaska Mail Steamship Company, which operates the Aloha on the run from Juneau to Unalaska touching Valdes and other intermediate points, took the long end of it and will control the dock. It is calculated to have it ready for use within 90 days, -Alas-

library and recreation roo