NEWBORO

MONDAY, Jan. 22.—E. E. Hutchings of Winnipeg, Man., who has been on a business trip to New York and Ottawa, is at present visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity.

The prospects of a canning factory for Newboro, in the near future, is agitating the minds of our most enterprising citizens.

The Baptist social, held at the residence of Mrs. Wm. Breese on the evening of Jan. 16th., was well attended. The proceeds, which amounted to $27, is in aid of the Baptist personage, Westport.

Mr. Edward Rice, an old resident of this neighborhood, died on Jan. 8th after a lingering illness. The deceased had reached the advanced age of 93. The remains were placed in the vault at Philippsville.

Miss Mary Lyons is at present taking a course in the Brockville Business College.

The Portland band, while on its way to Westport on the evening of the 19th, favored us with a few well rendered selections, which we enjoyed as a treat. The boys deserve considerable praise, considering the short time they have been under training.

Mr. Clark Whelan, undoubtedly the oldest resident of the county, died at Singleton's Corners on the 17th inst. He had long passed the centenarian point being 105 years of age. Mr. Whelan was quite active up to a day or two previous to his demise.

The Elgin junior hockey team played our boys the opening match of the season on Saturday, 13th on the Newboro rink. The score was 4 to 1 in favor of Newboro.

There is considerable competition in the wood market this winter.

On Thursday morning the 18th inst., at her own home, by the Rev. J. Clippam, Mrs. M. Fifield, relict of the late Frank Fifield, was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. Spicer, widower, of this place. After a sumptuous breakfast, in which a number of their friends participated, the happy couple left for Ottawa, via Perth, where they propose spending a portion of their honeymoon with friends. We take much pleasure in extending our congratulations to the newly married couple, who are highly esteemed by the entire community.

GREENBUSH.

MONDAY, Jan. 22.—The little boy that came to Edward Smith's is the centre of attraction now.

Our neighbor, Mr. Gifford, is comfortably settled on the Keeler farm.

Miss Eyre is giving good satisfaction as school teacher.

Several of our neighbors are preparing to move to the North West in the spring.

Miss Jackson of Plum Hollow has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Gifford, this week.

Mr. Fred Olds and sister, Miss Winnie, have been visiting friends at Pike Falls.

Mr. Hiram Hanna of Manitoba made several calls lately. He was born and spent his school days in Greenbush.

Mr. H. L. Kerr has sold several of his pure bred fowls to Mr. Spicer of Prescott, and has a large number more of first prize birds for sale. Any parties wishing to purchase first class fowls will do well to correspond with him, as he is selling his entire stock.

ADDISON

MONDAY, Jan. 22.—Mr. Lett Kelly of Jasper was the guest of Mr. Richard Kelly, King st., on Sunday last.

Mr. James Moulton of the Pacific Coast is visiting his many friends in this section for a few days.

Dr. Brown has been quite indisposed for a few days, but his many friends will be glad to hear that he is able to be around again.

Mr. Gord Bratton of Lyn has been engaged for some time drawing wood to the Palace cheese factory.

Quite a number of the elite of our village and a few from Brockville assembled at one of our King street residences last week, where a very pleasant time was spent in social games for a few hours. After a sumptuous repast was served, the party broke up sorry to part, hoping soon to meet again.

The proprietor of the Model farm at Mt. Pleasant is erecting a fine bank barn at present. He intends putting in a first class silo, and when completed it will surpass everything of the kind in this section.

It is rumored that Mayor Langdon of Mt. Royal is about to dispose of his fine property and purchase a farm in the vicinity of Glossville.

SEELEY'S BAY

SATURDAY, Jan. 10.—Mr. John N. Chapman, marine engineer, after spending a profitable season on the lakes, has returned home to spend the winter.

Mr. J. McAlonan was the successful competitor in the baby contest given by the German Remedy Concert Co., his little daughter, Vera, winning a handsome dinner set.

The meeting of the Farmers' Institute, held in the Select Knights' hall on the 17th inst., was well attended. The principal speakers, Mr. A. P. Ketchen of Bruceville and Mr. A. M. Campbell of Dominionville, gave excellent addresses, which were well received by all present.

Stacy Bros. are getting material on the ground to build a brick shop and show room as soon as spring opens.

The 9th annual and 33rd quarterly session of Leeds District Division Sons of Temperance was held at Maple Grove church, Gananoque Junction, on Wednesday, Jan. 17th, and was well attended, over fifty delegates from the different divisions being present. A large amount of business was transacted. In the absence of the D. W. P. Bro. C. E. Tennant, the chair was taken by Bro. T. I. Ellis, D. P. W. P., who performed the duties in acceptable manner. The election of officers for 1900 resulted as follows:

D. W. P.—Wm J. Webster.
D. R. S.—A. Likey.
D. Treas.—T. Patience.
D. Chap.—N. Webster.
D. Con.—H. F. Gilbert.
D. Sent.—A. J. Seal.
D. Supt. Y. P. W.—J. Dillon.
D. P. W. P.—C. E. Tennant.

The officers were installed by T. I. Ellis, C. D. G. W. P. The next meeting will be held at Lyndhurst in March next, the date to be fixed by the executive.

A public meeting was held in the evening and was well attended. The chair was taken by Wm J. Webster, D. W. P., who filled the position in a very acceptable manner.

A very pleasant programme was provided by the local division, assisted by others, which was well received by the large audience present.

Mr. Andrew Carson of Oxford township has been elected warden of the united counties of Leeds and Grenville.

The prison investigation at Havana is revealing an astounding state of affairs. Men have been found who have been waiting for years to be tried.

Under the Spanish system the judges and officers were paid by fees, and got all the money a man had and then left him to rot in jail awaiting a trial.

We scarcely appreciate, until we know how justice is administered in other countries, the priceless heritage we have in our British system.

Rev. Van Camp's Departure.

Kingston Whig: Rev. A. B. VanCamp, for some years the popular pastor of the Holiness Movement chapel in this city, left on Saturday to take over the work at Warburton, a village in the rear of Lunenburg.

Mr. Van Camp has done good work in his church, having been the chief power in building the fine chapel on Division street and in otherwise strengthening the status of the church in this city. On Friday he graduated, with first class honors, as a nurse, taking the correspondence course in the Detroit college of nursing, of which J. G. Evans, M. D., is agent in this city. Mr. Van Camp's successors here are Miss Colthart and Miss Evans, both of Ottawa.

UNIONVILLE FAIR.

Annual Meeting Held on 17th Inst.—Financial Reports Presented, Officers Elected and Other Business Transacted.

A very small attendance of the members of the Unionville Fair Association met in annual meeting on Wednesday last. Less than a dozen members exclusive of the officers, were present.

Dr. Giles of Athens was voted to the chair and B. Loverin performed the duties of Secretary.

The Treasurer's report showed that he had received from all sources the sum of $1,476.20, and had paid out $2,050.23 leaving a balance due him of $574.03.

The election of officers resulted as follows:

President—N. H. Beecher.
1st. Vice Pres.—D. J. Forth.
2nd Vice Pres.—Anson Manhard.
Directors—R. J. Jelly, Geo. Taplin, C. J. Gilroy, Wm. Neilson, Josh. Gilroy, J. B. Saunders, Dr. J. G. Giles, John M. Percival, and John I. Quinn.

Auditors—F. L. Moore, B. W. Loverin.

At the close of the annual meeting the directors met and appointed H. H. Field secretary, at a salary of $50, and Ed. Davis, treasurer at a salary of $25.

Mr. Andrew Carson of Oxford township has been elected warden of the united counties of Leeds and Grenville.
