"Not as I Will." Blindfolded and alone I stand; With unknown thresholds on each hand; The darkness deepens as I grope, Afraid to fear, afraid to hope, Yet this one thing I learn to know Each day more surely as I go; That doors are opened, ways are made, Burdens are lifted, or are laid By some great law unseen and still.

Jig Sawing and Planing, a Specialty. Blindfolded and alone I wait; Loss seems too bitter; gain too late; Too heavy burdens in the load. Too few the helpers on the road; And joy is weak, and grief is strong, And years and days so long, so long Yet this one thing I long to know Each day more surely as I go. That I am glad the good and ill By changeless laws are ordered still.
