

Your King and Country Want You

More, more men—is Lord Kitchener's appeal to the Empire. men! Yes, that is it. Clean men, men of iron, firm, determined, hard as granite, filled with a patriotic desire to do something for their country. To that quality of manhood, there is opportunity to do something large in a practical way. Canada stands well in the present crisis, the heroic deeds of the overseas contingents have stirred the Empire to its heart's core, and we are getting to look at the facts, the majority of those who so far have made Canada famous are English born, the spirit of loyalty came with them to Canada, and at the call of the Empire they volunteered without hesitation to face war's hardships for God and the King. Old soldiers some of them, carrying medals and scars who could teach enough to offer to the world what fighting is. Who had found it against a militarism which would crush the world. It is true that Canada has not been found wanting, her roll of heroes grows, nobly they have stood the test. As in the South African war there has been a loyal response to the call to arms, but not in proportion to the population. We want more native blood in the heroic battalions at the front.

What have we done to show our regard for England, who has made Canada what it is, guarding our shores, preserving our peace and prosperity, ungrudgingly all the compensation for which is, that we do not forget. And England is grateful. We must remember that to the navy we owe the fact that New Brunswick is not today suffering the fate of Belgium. It would not be pleasant for German shells to batter St. John, we must give to England the same unstinting loyalty she serves to us.

Let us not flatter ourselves that because the Empire is right, therefore we must win. We can only conquer with the vigorous manhood which leaps to defend it, thus it is the country wants you.

Here is your opportunity: Ruskin says: "Somehow I feel as if it were grander and worthier in a man, to have made his bread by sword play rather than any other play. I had rather that he had made it by thrusting than by batting, much rather than by betting, much rather than he should ride war horses than back race horses."

If that was Ruskin's thought in times of peace, what now? Face the issue, your King and country call you, you young men with no homes, or with them; stalwart, strong, full blooded, your place is in the ranks with those who are fighting for freedom, country and home. The 55th wants you; New Brunswick wants you, to sustain her honor while the bugle summons the Dominion to arms.

Let deeds prove to be better than words. Enlist now. Put on the uniform, swell the number who will help to stem the tide of German aggression and prove to the world that Canada stands shoulder to shoulder with Australia, New Zealand and India in service and sacrifice.

If you are over twenty-one years of age, be a man, wear khaki, if married ask your wife to let you go, if under twenty-one, get your parents' consent, and report yourselves to Lt. Col. B. B. Armstrong, 2nd and 3rd Regt. at the army, and let them see that you are anxious to be on the honor roll of those who want to save the Empire.

W. G. Lane, Hon. Major, Chaplain to the 93rd Cumberland Rgt.

Town Council Regular Session Thursday Night

and the Magistrate's (may our Magistrate soon recover his health and resume his seat) this can be done.

Ald. Stuart heartily endorsed the recommendation submitted.
Ald. Stables said that as a member of the Police Committee he assured the Council and League that the Committee were going to do their best to stop the sale and the drinking of liquor. He would use every effort to enforce the C. T. A.—would allow nothing to hinder him as an alderman in carrying out his views.

Ald. Mackay said that while he agreed with Rev. Father Dixon's view, yet he thought it would be treading on dangerous ground to approach the P. M. with suggestions. It was for the P. M. to judge as to which penalty he would apply.

Ald. Mackay moved that this matter be referred to the Police Committee to see what powers they had and to act with the Committee of the T. I. L.

Ald. Ritchie seconded this.
Ald. Mackay said he was elected to enforce the C. T. A. and would do all he could to carry it out.

Ald. McGrath said that the presence of this delegation appeared to be to get an expression of sympathy for Temperance and Social and Moral Reform. All aldermen for at least the last four years had done all in their power to enforce all laws, C. T. A. included. They had done their duty as far as their power extended. It might be wise to commission the Police Committee to interview the magistrate, but he thought that the delegation rather sought the council's sympathy. They were all supposed to be in Council to enforce the law.

Ald. Doyle did not see the wisdom of Ald. Mackay's motion. The Police Committee had already expressed their determination to enforce all laws. They had appointed two Scott Act Inspectors and they wanted them to enforce the C. T. A. as best they can. The Police Committee would do their duty or others would be got to take their place.

Ald. Creighton agreed with Ald. Doyle, also with Rev. Father Dixon. He would do all he could to enforce the law.

Ald. Hayward was in sympathy with Rev. Father Dixon's plea. It was a knotty problem. The Committee had ordered the Inspectors to enforce the law. But the illness of the P. M. had interfered up to the present. Two justices had reluctantly consented to take his place. They naturally were diffident about imposing jail at first. The P. M. should be on salary, same as a Supreme Court judge. Affairs were improving. In April, 1914, there had been 7 cases of drunkenness in the Police Court. In April 1915, four. In May 1914, six; this month, so far, only 2.

Ald. Stables said that a leading lawyer had told him that to approach a P. M. with suggestions was a grievous crime.

Ald. Ritchie understood that the Police Committee were up against a hard problem in enforcing the C. T. A.

Ald. Doyle said that it was already decided that the Council and Police Committee would carry out the C. T. A. and all laws. They were only too anxious to take suggestions. Offenses against C. T. A. should be first, second and third. He did not approve of charging list every time. It was out of place to dictate to the P. M.

Mr. J. M. Troy said it was not the intention to dictate to the P. M. but to encourage him and to suggest that it would be better to imprison than fine. Many P. M.'s imprisonment. If men continue selling, they should be sent to jail.

Ald. Doyle—Magistrate should use his discretion with 1st offence. Second should follow, then third.

Rev. S. J. MacArthur said that Ald. Doyle's view appealed to all. But what the T. I. L. sought arose from the fact that what Ald. Doyle said should be done was not done. He understood that a series of first offences had been inaugurated as the best means of enforcing the C. T. A. In cases where conviction papers had been lost, we had a right to ask for jail sentence for subsequent first offences. He hoped the present P. M. would soon recover from his illness.

Ald. McGrath pointed out that the information laid has much to do with the judgment passed. When information is laid for 1st, second and third in succession, the judgments will follow in like order.

Rev. S. J. MacArthur—When there is a miscarriage of law, whose fault is it? When an actual second offence is made a "first," either the Inspector has failed to lay, or the Magistrate to ask for, a charge of second. Either the Inspector has failed to lay a second when he should, or some influence has been brought to bear upon him.

Ald. Hayward—After there has been a first offence it is the privilege of the Inspector to bring a second charge and then a third.

Rev. S. J. MacArthur and Rev. M. S. Richardson further urged the carrying out of the spirit of the law.

Mr. Troy thought it easy enough to bring second charges against anyone now selling. The magistrate should stop the Inspector laying too many "first" charges.

Ald. Stuart asked why it was that the Inspector had during last council year laid only charges for first offences. Would the Mayor ask Mr. Chamberlain to explain?

Ald. Doyle said that Ald. Stuart had just heard the Police Committee say that they have asked the Scott Act Inspectors to carry out the law. Why go into the past?

Ald. Stuart repeated his request to have Mr. Chamberlain speak for last year.

Ald. Doyle said he did not think the Mayor had the right to ask why the Chief did so and so in the past. It was all right for the future.

Mayor—You are right, Ald. Doyle. But the Chairman of Police Committee may be asked what he intends for the future.

Ald. Stuart—May I ask Ald. Doyle why in the past year nothing but charges of first offences were laid?

The Mayor ruled out of order all questions about last year's work, but said that Ald. Stuart might ask the Chief of Police what the latter intended to do in the future.

Ald. McGrath said it was not justice to the officer to try him in public. While he is an officer, it should be assumed he would do his duty.

Ald. Hayward—He will enforce the act. If he doesn't do it someone else will do the work. We don't want fines. We will assess for expenses.

Ald. Stuart said that Ald. Hayward's statement was perfectly satisfactory. He would help him in his work all he could.

Rev. S. J. MacArthur—We have confidence in the Police Com. in the officers, and in the Police Magistrate. No use going back to the past. Confirmed inebriates should be confined rather than fined. Montreal gives them option of taking a cure. He would be satisfied if cases went regularly from 1st to 2nd and 3rd.

Rev. P. W. Dixon—Yes.

On motion of Ald. Creighton and Stuart, the Council expressed sympathy with the Resolution No. 3.

Resolution No. 2 was advocated by Rev. S. J. MacArthur. A mere declaration of the authorities' intention to enforce law against truancy would have a great effect. The Truant officer might be one of the Police. There would not be very much to do. He knew of boys who had never in his stay here been at school.

Ald. Doyle had heard Ald. McGrath (a trustee) before meeting suggest that the Janitor be truant officer, and he agreed.

Ald. Mackay said it was the duty of the Trustees to appoint the Truant officer, and suggested that the T. I. L. be referred to the Trustees.

Ald. McGrath said the Trustees last year referred it to the Council. Ald. Stuart moved, seconded by Ald. McGrath, that this Council take action to appoint a Truant officer to take office next term.

On motion of Ald. Doyle and Creighton a committee was asked for to talk the appointment over with the Trustees.

People of Miramichi, Think The Matter Over

PERSONAL

Following were chosen committee: Ald. McKay, Stuart and Doyle.
The Mayor said that he understood from the Chairman of Trustees that only one extra department would be needed after compulsory attendance.

Resolution No. 1 was supported by Rev. Father Dixon. It would check bad habits, and help the schools. Policemen should be given discretionary powers.

Ald. Doyle said he often met children out at express time (midnight).

Ald. McGrath said enforcement would be difficult, as the territory from Sinclair's to Buckley's would have to be patrolled. He heard that children of all ages were allowed in the dime. A curfew law would be good to remedy this.

Ald. Hayward said that this matter had been discussed in Police Committee before it had been mentioned in the T. I. L. He would refer it to By-Law Committee.

Rev. S. J. MacArthur thus favored a 9 o'clock bell. When a by-law should be ready the parents would be appealed to from the pulpits.

On motion of Ald. McGrath and Creighton, it was referred to By-Law Com. to prepare a by-law on it.

After Rev. Father Dixon had thanked the Council in the name of the delegation, Council adjourned.

THE BEST MEDICINE FOR LITTLE ONES

Thousands of mothers say Baby's Own Tablets are the only medicine they would give their little ones. Among them is Mrs. Howard Hodgkins, St. Catharines, Ont., who says: "I am a user of Baby's Own Tablets and think them the best medicine in the world for little ones." Once a mother has used the Tablets she will use no other medicine because she feels the Tablets are absolutely safe and knows they never fail to banish all the simple ailments of little ones. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

FIVE OF FAMILY IN ACTIVE SERVICE

Four Sons and one Daughter of Alex. Watling of Chatham Have Enlisted

With four sons and one daughter on active service, the Watling family of Chatham, have just about made a record for practical patriotism.

Alex. Watling went to the front with the first contingent and was wounded while fighting in the trenches; Wallace and James Watling are members of the Army Medical Corps in the 26th Battalion, and Miss Tina Watling a trained nurse, has just arrived in England with the McGill General hospital corps.

Another brother, Jubal A., who has been in South Africa since the Boer war, and is a member of the Johannesburg detective force, has been engaged in special work on behalf of the empire.—Gazette.

SHOWER OF BOMBS

Dropped on London

Several Zeppelins Took Part in the Air Raid But Damage Was Comparatively Light.

London, June 1.—The long expected Zeppelin raid on London became a reality early today.
German dirigibles passed over the East End and over other districts of London, showering bombs. Two young women were seriously hurt and a number of other persons are reported to have been wounded. Many buildings were set afire.
The only victims whose names the Press Bureau permitted to be made public were two young German tailors named Schrader, living in the East End. They were removed to a hospital.

Several sections of London are reported to have been attacked, the dirigibles showering both explosive and incendiary bombs. The Government notified the newspapers and press associations shortly after midnight that no reports stating what sections of the city had been attacked or detailing the number of victims would pass the censor until an official statement on the raid had been issued by the Press Bureau.

The first official statement did not mention the number of attacking dirigibles, but it said Zeppelins had been sighted near Raingate, 65 miles southeast of London; in Brentwood, sixteen miles northeast, and in certain "outlying districts of London," and that many fires had been reported. This indicated that several airships composed the attacking squadron.

A supplementary statement from the Press Bureau said that bombs had been hurled in the East End and named the two German victims. Other particulars, the Press Bureau said, would be given out later in the day.
