In the Crow's Nest

CROW'S NEST.
ON THE WAY TO CROW'S NEST—THE HIGHEST WOODEN BRIDGE IN THE WORLD.

Rolling up to the Crow's Nest Pass are olive green foothills without a tree upon them—natural cattleruns clothed with succulent short grass. Here are seen occasional outcrops of rock, which in their four or five feet of height show all the characteristics of a mountain range; miniatures of the Rockies, with crag and precipice and cool reproduced on the smallest scale. With a bag of salt one could lay on glaciers, touch the peaks with white and have a toy range which any Eastern schoolteacher could set up in her classroom with advantage to herself and her pupils. Canadians east of Medicine Hat know too little about the construction of this Continent and about the glorious engineering of Nature.

Consider the Crow's Nest itself. The name brings before some of us a schedule of railway-rates; to others, a series of coal mines. These are derivative impressions. The original Crow's Nest is a mountain rising to 9,000 feet and more above sea-level and visible for many miles. The rock-peak, as one looks from the foothills is set like a fuzzy, round crow's-nest on the sky-line. Leading up to it are the olive-green billows fading into a soft, blue haze.

In the distance near the peak is a snow-white precipice, which they tell us is two miles wide and a mile high. It is all excellence and loveliness until one travels twenty miles farther. Then it gleams like the fangs of a wolf. It is the rock-face of Turtle Mountain, cleft from top to bottom in 1906 to the destruction of the mining town of Frank.

To-day the whole valley, two miles wide, is a tempestuous chaos of white stone blocks, some of them as big as a house, all with jagged edges and sharp corners. They are piled from fifty to one hundred feet high above the original valley level. The railway line climbs over the debris. Beneath it lies the broken city. On either side of the avalanche stand a few deserted houses, windows out, glaring like skulls upon the newer town. The whole valley spells terror and tragedy. Even yet people talk of Pompeii and Herculaneum, but they are like to forget the more terrible fate of Frank when rock by millions of tons fell a mile out of the sky.

FIVE YEARS' AGONY ENDED

When He Took "Fruit-a-tives" For Rheumatism

The Medicine Made From Fruit
There can be no doubt that "Fruit-a-tives" is the long sought remedy for Rheumatism and Lumbago. From all over Canada come letters testifying to this fact. Mr. John E. Guilderson of Parrboro, N.S. writes: "I suffered badly with Rheumatism for five years—tried different medicines—was treated by doctors in Amherst—and here at home—but the Rheumatism came back. In 1916, I saw an advertisement for "Fruit-a-tives" and took a box and got relief, so I took them for about six months and the Rheumatism was all gone and I have never felt it since." 60c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. Farm Wiped Out And Stock Blown Away

The entire farm of F. J. Howship, one mile west of Grandore, Sask.,—house, stable; granaries and half a dozen smaller buildings—has been wiped out by lightning and wind. Lightning struck the house and it was a mass of flames in less than a minute. The farmer and his wife and child escaped. When they reached the open there was nothing to be seen of any of the farm buildings except heaps of wreckage here and there. The wind carried a big fanning mill nearly 800 yards. It also lifted a hay-rack and dumped it down 176 yards away. Machinery was scattered all over the landscape.

One hundred and fifty chickens were killed. Howship could not find any of his pigs. They had been blown away. The cloudburst which had accompanied the lightning and wind was the worst experienced in seventeen years on the prairies. Farms close by were practically untouched.

PREMIER DENIES ELECTION RUMOR

Hon. Dr. P.J. Veniot, interviewed over the long distance telephone at his home in Bathurst Sunday evening, emphatically denied the truth of a report emanating from Fredericton over the week end that preparations were being made for a general election in September. "The story is manufactured out of whole cloth," said Mr. Veniot. "It is absolutely without foundation in fact. No action of this nature has even been contemplated." Other prominent members of the government party were equally emphatic in their comment on the report.

Spring-time Revelry in Garden City

1—Mrs. Walter Nichol, placing the commemorative wreath.
2—Parliament buildings at Victoria as seen from veranda of Empress Hotel.
3—Queen of the Mayrines Frolic at Victoria B.C. in her royal coach.
4—Queen Della Balla entranced at the entrance to the Parliament Buildings.

THIS year the citizens of Victoria B. C. celebrated the eightieth birthday of this garden city and for three days beginning with the twenty-fourth of May the city frolicked. During the previous week the May Queen had been chosen and with her maids of honor had travelled to neighboring cities inviting her sisters and brothers from Nanaimo, Vancouver and New Westminster, and her cousins from Seattle, Bellingham and Portland to join in a three day frolic in her delightful gardens. The neighboring cities responded to her bidding to the extent of sending their Mayors and hundreds of their populace to take part in the spring-time revelry.

The initial ceremony of the three day fete was performed when Mrs. Walter C. Nichol, wife of the Lieutenant Governor of the province of British Columbia placed a beautiful floral wreath on the handsome bronze statue of Queen Victoria which stands before the parliament buildings, in the name of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. The landing of the May Queens from H.M.C.S. Patricia followed this ceremony, a tender bearing their Majesties to the broad stone steps leading directly to the parliament buildings. Here they were given the freedom of the city by Mayor Maynard and were crowned by His Honor the Lieutenant Governor of British Columbia.

Then came the Grand Parade, entered into by almost every automobile in the city and participated in by every public spirited firm and individual of Victoria. Bellingham Wash, Nanaimo, and Esquimalt sent picturesque floats and the recently inaugurated Canadian Pacific motor ferry plying between Vancouver Island and the former city gave hundreds of Americans an opportunity to enjoy a real twenty fourth of May celebration.

During the three days many sports events were arranged and on the Thursday and Friday evenings elaborate balls were given in the armories and at the Empress Hotel. Amid the historical surroundings of Beacon Hill, where as the name implies beacon fires were built in the early days for the guidance of sailors off the Island coast, the picturesque Frolic Pageant was staged on Friday. The Passing of the Pessimaet was the title given this much heralded event which portrayed the indictment and reformation of many types of civic grouch.

Saturday, as other days, witnessed band concerts given throughout the city streets from early morning until late at night. A home-made circus and regatta provided madame entertainment at the Gorge and the picturesque night attack by Indians staged in these natural surroundings recalled very vividly the pioneer days of Vancouver Island and brought to the close a civic carnival of brilliant splendour when the Queen of the Pacific Cities paid homage to the memory of her royal name sake, Victoria the Good.
