A SOCIAL EVENING.—Miss Ferguson, King street gave a musical party to quite a number of the young of both sexes on Monday evening. The time was entirely devoted to music and a very pleasing program was carried through. All declared they had a real good solid time.

LOUSE MATTERS.—The members of Albion lodge will celebrate their anniversary by holding a social entertainment. Star council at Peniac has extended an invitation to the city organization to pay a fraternal visit. A social will be given by the Star council at an early date.

PARLOR CONCERT.—The concert given at Mrs. David Hatt's residence on Monday night was largely attended. The F. O. M. W. orchestra assisted, and a select program of vocal and instrumental music was rendered. The concert which was in aid of the Spring Hill sufferers realized nearly $70.

AT HARVEY STATION.—The members of the music and singing class who have been steadily practicing this winter under the direction of Professor Fox, had a very successful concert on a few days ago at Harvey station. The affair was largely attended, and was one of the events of the season.

RESOLUTION OF SYMPATHY.—The university students connected with the literary and debating club have forwarded to A. W. and Mrs. Coburn, of Harvey station, their heartfelt sympathy in their sad affliction, through the death of their son Andrew W. and recorded the same on the minutes of the society.

A GENEROUS COLLECTION.—The children and adult scholars attending the Sabbath school in connection with St. Paul's church have not been backward in contributing to the relief of the Springfield sufferers. The collection raised by the Sabbath school amounts to the generous sum of $25.28. Bravo, St. Pauls!

IN AID OF THE DISTRESSED.—The citizens of Fredericton have responded nobly to the appeal in aid of the Springfield sufferers. In addition to the amount voted by the city council, the collections are approaching eight hundred dollars, and it is thought that one thousand dollars will be Frederickton's contribution to the fund.

THE ICE TRACK.—The plough was busy at work on the river from St. Mary's to Nashua on Wednesday. As the weather was favorable, the votaries of the track and stable will again assemble at their favorite rendezvous. It is intended to hold a series of events on the river track during the opening week of the legislative session.

A CASE OF BLOOD POISONING.—Dr. Frank M. Brown of this city has been consulted and confined to his room this week in consequence of a poisoned finger, the pain from which extended right up the arm. It is thought the poison was contracted during the recent operation performed on a patient at the Victoria hospital.

PROVINCIAL FARMERS.—The annual meeting of the provincial farmers' association of New Brunswick to be held in this city on Thursday, the 17th inst., will be attended by professors Wm. Saunders, J. W. Robertson, and H. W. Blair, of the experimental farms. Several important subjects will be discussed by these prominent agriculturalists.

VISITING CLEVERMEN.—The Rev. Mr. McGregor of Amherst occupied the pulpit at St. Paul's on Sunday last, and preached two very impressive discourses. Evangelist Whittier concluded his labors in this city on Monday. His revival services have been largely attended. Dr. McLeod will lecture at Upper Brighton on Monday at the P. C. Baptist church.

SEVERELY ILL.—Mrs. Ketch mother of Willie Ketch barber of this city was on Monday evening last taken with a paralytic stroke. Dr. Seery was quickly in attendance, and found his patient in a very serious condition, and the gravest results were feared. On Wednesday the patient was reported to be mending rapidly, and the worst was thought to be over.

MRS. AUSTIN EXC.—James Sullivan, a young and enterprising farmer of Kingsclear, intends moving to Manitoba early next month. He has one of the best farms in the district but has of late years felt the agricultural depression keenly, owing to the bad markets, and the poor prices offered for commodities. He intends to try stock raising in the great Northwest.

BAPTISTS.—At the Baptist church on Sunday last the Rev. F. D. Crawley, assisted by Dr. McLeod administered the rite of baptism to thirty-two converts. A brief but powerful address was delivered by evangelist Whittier. The ceremony of baptism was also observed at the Free Baptist church, the Rev. F. C. Hartley pastor officiated, and two persons received the rite.

THROWING LIGHT ON THE SUBJECT.—A Boston paper says that the provincial man in this city hired Tremont Temple for Thursday night, and arranged for the results of the elections to be wired to them. As soon as the figures were received they were thrown by the stereopticon upon canvas. During the interval the immense audience were entertained with views of Canadian scenery.

A DOG INCIDENT.—A complaint was laid before the police magistrate on Tuesday by a citizen who alleged that he had been bitten by a dog belonging to a man living on Brunswick street. The defendant strongly denied the ownership, and the case was dismissed. A policeman states that the dog alluded to is harmless. It is not known which was the most, the man, or the dog, as the case appeared to be wrapped up in mystery.

THE ELECTRIC LIGHT.—A representative of the Edison system has been in this city this week and has been interviewed on the cost of the requisite plant. It is understood that the total amount necessary to fix up the whole business would be $25,000, and the citizens may as well pause before committing themselves to this great expense. The proposed York street school is estimated at $10,000, and this will be quite an undertaking by itself.

A Douglas Flirtation.

One of the Douglas boys relates that a young student who is taking an educational course in this city, has been very much alarmed at the conduct of a friend of his, who has been remarkably attentive to the student's finances during the absence of the student in the city. The pair dined together on Tuesday morning, and during their visit the student invited the young man to his boarding house. Having excused himself for a half hour, he communicated a bold plan to a friend of his, who was mutually agreed upon. The two thereupon dressed for a drive, and going to the stable yard drove off for a ride round town in the Douglas boy's sleigh. When they returned about five o'clock, p. m., they found the young man very sheepish, the man was gloomy and the fair lady penitent. The student hopes it will do them both good, and is much pleased as was the lady who aided him in carrying out a bold experiment. Mutual explanations followed and no more flirtations will be allowed on both sides.

Before the Bench.

Two young emigrant lads, who have been working in this city for the past three years, distinguished themselves on Wednesday morning by appropriating $48 of other town's money, and on Wednesday morning, they were taken to the police station. One of them, Fred Clark, lodged with E. B. Morton, telegraph operator at the city C. P. R. station, and he alleges that John Kirch induced him to steal the money from Morton's house. As soon as the robbery was effected the boys started for Marysville. This was about nine o'clock on Wednesday morning. The sleigh was taken left was discovered and information laid before the magistrate. Sergeant Van der Meer, accompanied by E. B. Morton, started for Marysville and apprehended the boys at L. Goodspeed's house on the Canada eastern. The money was recovered all but a few cents, and the boys were brought back to this city, and remanded until Saturday by police magistrate Marsh.

Sold that Time.

The boarders at a certain house on King street have been often amused by the anxiety displayed by one of their number to be the first to enter the supper room. So late as seven o'clock on Monday the boarder would rush from the office and be first at the fray. On Thursday the ubiquitous boarder was the victim of a smart trick. The supper bell was not rung, and the boarder, with the concentration of a landlord locked the door, and slipped round the premises by a back entrance to the supper room. After an interval of fifteen minutes the door was unlocked and the young man invited to come in, who was rather surprised to find the boarders all assembled. From the chaff which followed it is probable he will in future take his seat at the supper table in a leisurely manner.

The Fredericton Market.

There has been a scarcity of dry wood this week. Prices are quiet, and business dull. On Wednesday several loads of good beef had to be carried home again, the farmers having failed to find purchasers. We quote: Beef, 4 to 5 cts; mutton, 4 to 5 cts; pork, lamb, none; veal, none; sausages, 10 cts; hams, 9 cts; turkeys, none; chickens and ducks, none; eggs, 30 cts; cheese, 12 cts; lard, 13 to 15 cts; butter, 15 to 17 cts; eggs, per doz: 20 cts; carrots, 80 cts; turnips, 60 cts; potatoes, $1.00; buckwheat, $1.25; oats, per bush, 50 cts; hay, $7 to $9; straw, $5; socks and mitts, none; cordwood green, $3; dry, $3.50 to $4. On the whole prices have fallen, and poultry has been scarce.

A Narrow Escape.

Ex-private Jones of the Infantry school, who left this city in January last to work in the Springfield mines, had a very narrow escape on the day of the fatal explosion. He was engaged upon his usual occupation of timekeeper in one of the surface slopes when the explosion occurred, and such was the force of the sudden blow, the ventilating doors in the slope were immediately blown to atoms, and soon the poisoned gas began to mingle with the atmosphere. Trying a handkerchief round his mouth, Jones escaped in company with three others, managed to gain the surface, half suffocated with the choke damp and exhausted by the fright and exertion they had undergone.

Wesley's Centennial.

On Sunday last the centennial services in commemoration of the death of the founder of methodism at the Methodist church were largely attended. At the morning service the Rev. Job Stenton in commenting on the life of the great reformer, gave a history of the foundation of evangelism, and at the evening service gave some interesting statistics relative to the growth of the doctrine, of its introduction into the provinces, and the life of the zealous worker in its cause, Bishop Doane. On Tuesday and Friday evenings special services were held, and the collections devoted to the superannuated and parsonage aid funds.

How a Vote was Gained.—The land lord of one of the city hotels was anxious to procure a declaration on Thursday afternoon to record his vote, but unfortunately all his teams were engaged. He applied to a conservative friend and was told the charge would be two dollars, whereas a liberal farmer staying temporarily in the house offered to take him up to the polling station and bring him back free of charge. He accepted the offer and with excellent judgment voted for Thompson, which was mainly the outcome of the generous act, as he had been undecided before respecting the rival claims of the two candidates.

HYMNICAL.—There was a quiet little wedding in this city on Wednesday evening at the residence of Willard Carvell on Northumberland street. The happy pair were Richard's O'Brien and Miss Susie Burden both of this place. The Rev. F. D. Crawley officiated in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends, and after the nuptial knot had been tied, present sat down to a sumptuous repast. There were many beautiful presents to the bride, and all their friends extended them their hearty congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Burden will reside in this city.

BASE BALL.—There is discussion in sporting circles of the formation of an inter-provincial league composed of the principal ball clubs in the maritime provinces. The expenses of the scheme it is said would be light and the formation of such a league would be a great impetus to ball. It is proposed that all the towns unite to cover the expenses, which would largely be met by gate receipts. A Halifax paper wants to know who will take the initiative steps to start the organization.

DISPLAYED USUAL FORBEARANCE.—Ald. Bichey was conspicuous on Tuesday night's debate over the electric light business by his urbanity and tact. He took very little part in the debate, and it was only when expressions of monopoly, intimidation, and other polemical tropes were hurled up, that he rose to order. The worthy alderman's conduct was in striking contrast to that of his other brethren. They should take a leaf from his book and avoid gross personalities.

ACCIDENT ON QUEEN STREET.—On Monday morning at Simon Nails this city, was standing on the sidewalk near the Queen hotel, he was struck down and run over by a horse belonging to Dr. Harrison, which had run away. Mr. Nails was at once conveyed into the Queen hotel, and Dr. Crockett sent for, but beyond a severe prostration the doctor found his patient had escaped serious injury. He was able to proceed homewards.

CHORAL SOCIAL.—Mrs. Coombes, organist at St. Mary's Episcopal church, on Tuesday evening entertained the members of the choir at her residence, Gibson. A very pleasant time was spent by all.

CITY FATHERS IN SESSION.

A Full Board Present and a Lively Debate.

The usual monthly meeting of the city council on Tuesday was attended by a full board, Mayor Allen occupying the chair. The auditors report was read and adopted as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Item, Amount. Roads and streets: $103.95; Public works: 16.75; Administration of justice: 3.20; Sewerage and water: 54.89; City hall: 11.21; Market: 7.00; Contingencies: 34.28.

The report of the tax committee was adopted and shows that for the past month nearly $900 had been collected. Ald. Gilman chairman of the Lipset committee reported that an investigation had been made into the alleged damages done to complainant's residence by water flooding his cellar, that the amount claimed through the attorney Wm. Wilson was $100, and that the committee had found no cause for the amount as claimed by Wm. Wilson.

Cheques were drawn in favor of Martin Nowlan for $100 on account of running steam testing apparatus, and for $75 on account of snow ploughing done by Aaron Smith. The wharf committee asked for further time to reconsider the leasing of the lots on the high water wharf leave was granted. A cheque was drawn to return the money to R. Golding for loading done at same wharf. The special electric light committee submitted their report and petitions signed by the citizens in favor of water flooding his light system controlled by the corporation. A warm discussion ensued, and there were some lively arguments for and against the proposed measure. It was finally moved by Ald. McPherson and seconded by Ald. Walker that the report and petitions be handed back to the committee, the same to be again reported on at a future date; carried.

A cheque in favor of the Springfield fund for $200 was unanimously ordered; and it was moved and seconded that the clerk be ordered to prepare a bill to issue four per cent bonds to retire bonds maturing in July next. Ald. Moore submitted a statement from Miss Hainey of Maryland hill complaining of articles destroyed by the flooding of her cellar. Referred to the road committee.

On motion of Ald. Estey a legislative committee of three, consisting of Aids, McCann, Walker, and Estey, was appointed to superintend the preparation of bills to be presented to the house during the next session. The council then adjourned.

A letter from Springfield acknowledging the receipt of funds collected by sergeant Boutleier has been received at the Infantry school.

Water Works.

The statistics gathered from the report on water works are very interesting. The total length of pipes laid for distribution is 9 miles, 5,141 feet. Of this quantity 240 feet was laid last year. The mains pass through 1,000 houses, supplying 100,000 houses with water. The average daily quantity of water supplied is 413,775 imp. gallons, which averages 622 gallons per day. To supply this quantity of water 603,500 lbs of coal were used, and the total cost for fuel was $1,230.61.

THE MEADOWS TOTAL SCHOOL.—Superintendent Lenton, in a recent address to the children of the Methodist Sabbath school, said that from its inauguration in 1837, down to the year ending the official and teachers connected with the school down to the later date had departed this life with the exception of George Hart, J. S. Turner, of Montreal, C. G. Turner, of Tracadie, Judge Tuck, Mrs. G. Thompson, Mrs. Dr. Lathern, Miss Winter, and Mrs. N. Vradenburg.

SOME MISTAKE.—Mitchell Goodline started from Hanwell on Thursday to exercise his franchise at Springfield, and was objected to by Mr. Hudson, who stated that although the name was on the list the voter had been dead four years. Mr. Goodline says he has been a voter for 25 years and was never refused before. There must have been a great blunder somewhere. Mr. Goodline travelled 32 miles on Thursday, and lost his vote.

A DAILY MAIL.—One of the funniest canvasses was made by the conservative candidate of this city a few days ago in a widely scattered settlement, where the houses are about two miles apart from one another. The settlers were all solemnly promised a daily mail, if they would vote for the grand old man. No doubt they felt tickled at the prospect.

THE HERALD OF SPRING.—The weather prophets can truly say that March has come in like a lion, but whether it will go out like a lamb remains to be seen. The country is in a dreadful state, and travelling is very difficult owing to the snow drifts. Monday was one of the coldest nights of the season, and the keen winds of Thursday made a perfect blizzard.

AN OLD FRED REVISIT.—The man Milroy who was set upon last fall by a crew of men at Morrison's mill and severely beaten, met one of his old antagonists on Queen street, Thursday. A fight immediately ensued, and Milroy made a desperate attack upon James Morgan, one of his old assailants. Morgan was rescued, and the crowd dispersed on the appearance of two of the city police.

CALL EXTENDED.—At a meeting of the congregation of St. Paul's church on Monday evening, it was unanimously resolved to extend a call to the Rev. Mr. McGroger of Amherst, N. S. It is said that the reverend gentleman will in all probability accept the position offered him, the value of which is $1,000 per annum, with a free manse, and a prospect of a further increase.

FROM THE FAR WEST.

What one Newspaper Man Wrote to a City Friend.

A HERALD reporter recently received a letter from a friend who is running a newspaper on the Pacific coast, and he says: "Out here the Salvation army meets in the open air; the buds are beginning to appear on the bushes; the wild flowers are peeping forth, and if one were not reminded that the delinquent taxes were due one would be happy. Winter has not even blown his breath to frost the landscape, and the happy return of Chelalis is preparing for his summer clothes."

"This is nothing new to Fredericton readers," wrote the reporter back in reply, "for even here the Salvation army congregate in the open air. It is true the buds and wild flowers are rather late, but the delinquent taxes have not been paid. We have had frequent frosts of snow, but the sleighing and coasting parties have made up for the blows of winter."

"Respecting the idea of clothes gentle spring has been noted by all the clothiers in the city, and there is an unusual rush in the tailoring trade, and take it all in all we enjoy our winters here about the same as you do on the flowery landscapes of Washington."

DIETETIC NEWS.—On Thursday the C. P. R. telegraph company, with their usual promptitude, made arrangements to have a wire communicated to the liberal committee rooms. The public were enabled to have the direct returns announced to them as they were flashed from all parts of the dominion.

FREDERICTONIAN'S EFFORT.—George R. Parkin who was for many years connected with the teaching profession in this city, and who is at present in London Eng., contributes a very interesting article in Australian cities in this month. He is attracting considerable attention as a writer.

A HOPEFUL SOCIAL.—Several of the uninitiated have desired to be informed what our exchanges mean by a hoppy social, which is announced to take place in the Temperance hall on Monday next. As the public are cordially invited, an opportunity for enlightenment is presented to them.

A BAD TIME OF IT.—James Fraser the post-hack driver in this city had a bad time of it on Friday evening owing to the bad roads and the accumulations of snow. But James had quite a party to convey to the Marysville carnival, and by perseverance and pluck he got there all the same.

THE MEADOWS TOTAL SCHOOL.—Superintendent Lenton, in a recent address to the children of the Methodist Sabbath school, said that from its inauguration in 1837, down to the year ending the official and teachers connected with the school down to the later date had departed this life with the exception of George Hart, J. S. Turner, of Montreal, C. G. Turner, of Tracadie, Judge Tuck, Mrs. G. Thompson, Mrs. Dr. Lathern, Miss Winter, and Mrs. N. Vradenburg.

SOME MISTAKE.—Mitchell Goodline started from Hanwell on Thursday to exercise his franchise at Springfield, and was objected to by Mr. Hudson, who stated that although the name was on the list the voter had been dead four years. Mr. Goodline says he has been a voter for 25 years and was never refused before. There must have been a great blunder somewhere. Mr. Goodline travelled 32 miles on Thursday, and lost his vote.

A DAILY MAIL.—One of the funniest canvasses was made by the conservative candidate of this city a few days ago in a widely scattered settlement, where the houses are about two miles apart from one another. The settlers were all solemnly promised a daily mail, if they would vote for the grand old man. No doubt they felt tickled at the prospect.

THE HERALD OF SPRING.—The weather prophets can truly say that March has come in like a lion, but whether it will go out like a lamb remains to be seen. The country is in a dreadful state, and travelling is very difficult owing to the snow drifts. Monday was one of the coldest nights of the season, and the keen winds of Thursday made a perfect blizzard.

AN OLD FRED REVISIT.—The man Milroy who was set upon last fall by a crew of men at Morrison's mill and severely beaten, met one of his old antagonists on Queen street, Thursday. A fight immediately ensued, and Milroy made a desperate attack upon James Morgan, one of his old assailants. Morgan was rescued, and the crowd dispersed on the appearance of two of the city police.

CALL EXTENDED.—At a meeting of the congregation of St. Paul's church on Monday evening, it was unanimously resolved to extend a call to the Rev. Mr. McGroger of Amherst, N. S. It is said that the reverend gentleman will in all probability accept the position offered him, the value of which is $1,000 per annum, with a free manse, and a prospect of a further increase.

RECENT DEATHS.—The oldest inhabitant of St. Stephen, Percival Dupluis, died on Tuesday last. He was 103 years of age, and was said to be in complete possession of his faculties to the last. He was much respected in St. Stephen as he very old citizen.

MISS JANE MITCHELL.—Miss Jane Mitchell daughter of Alexander Mitchell of this city died on Monday last at her residence on George street. Deceased had been subject to fits of epilepsy, and had been
