CHARGE OF TIME.—The Bible Christians in future will have service in the afternoon at 3 p. m. each Sabbath, in their church.

Wingham.
SURGICAL.—Mrs. Macdonald and Bethune of this town performed a successful surgical operation on the wife of Mr.
Chas. F. Kent on Tuesday last week.
For some time past Mrs. Kent has been suffering from a tumor on her thigh near the hip. This the doctors cut out, and the lady is rapidly recovering. The tumor weighed about one pound.—[Advance.

Walton.
AGAIN SOLD.—Mr. James McDonald has disposed of the Post Office Store and property which he purchased last week from Mr. Patterson, to Mr. Richard Pollard, for the sum of $3,000. Mr.
Pollard takes possession on the first of April. He will carry on a general store and the post office. The people of Walton will be sorry to lose Mr. Pollard but what will be their loss will be Walton's gain. We wish him every success, and hope he may speedily make his pile in his new sphere.

Paramount.
STOLEN.—Mr. J. & B. Allen's granary was entered last week by some unknown party, and a small quantity of wheat taken therefrom.

DEBATE.—An interesting debate took place here on Friday evening last between some of the members of Dewdrop Lodge No. 396, M. T. A. The subject discussed was:—"Which was the more beneficial to the community at large, the credit or the cash system?" R. D.
Cameron (captain), J. McDonald, J. G.
Murdoch, J. Murdoch and A. Towle advocated the former, while D. G. Mackenzie (captain), S. Kirk, E. W. Richards and W. Davis upheld the latter system. The committee that had been appointed to decide the debate, having listened carefully to the long and animated discussion, gave their decision in favor of the credit system.

Blouvalde.
On Saturday evening last, the farm residence of Mr. Conn, belonging to Mr.
Jos. Richardson, of Stanley, was totally destroyed by fire. It seems that the fire originated between the ceiling and the second floor somewhere near the stovepipe. Although part of the family were at home not much of the contents were saved, the fire having made much headway. On the contents there was no insurance, therefore Mr. Conn's loss is considerable, and as he only moved here last spring much sympathy is felt for him.
There was an insurance of $100 on the Hewick Company.

PROPERTY SOLD.—At the sale of the estate of the late John Messer, on the 25th ult., all the property was sold. Mr.
Wm. Messer bought the store at Blue-val for $400, the Duff farm was sold to Wm. Epplett for $3,500, the boundary farm to Rev. J. McCartney for $2,100, the Blueval cabinet factory to Joseph Leech for $150, the store in Wingham to T. A. Mills for $2,800. The homestead at Blueval was bought in for the widow.
The prices realized in all cases were reasonably fair. C. Tait Scott, Esq., did the selling.—[Advance.

Lochalsh.
BURY.—Farmers in this community are busily engaged in taking out firewood and hauling timber and other materials for building purposes, of which there will be considerable the ensuing summer.

OBITUARY.—We regret to have to announce the death of an old and much respected resident of Huron, that of Mr.
Alex McDougall, which took place at his residence on the 24th inst. Though not a strong man constitutionally, a cancer which started in his throat last fall was eventually the cause of his death.
His funeral took place on the 26th inst., and was attended by a large concourse of his friends and acquaintances. The remains were interred in Lochalsh centery. He leaves a wife and several small children to mourn his loss.

HYMENAL.—One of those little events which put everybody in good humor, occurred in this place on Tuesday last at the residence of Mr. M. McKenzie, when Mr. Duncan McKenzie of Wheatland, Dakota, and Miss Jennie (G. McKenzie, daughter of the late Mr.
Donald B. McKenzie of Ashfield, were united in the bonds of matrimony.
After partaking of a bounteous repast, the wedding guests amused themselves by "tipping the light fantastic toe" to the martial music of the bagpipes, or that of the soft lilting violin. The young couple purpose moving to their home in Dakota shortly.

Colborne.
SOLD.—Mr. Lawrence Manning has sold his farm of 50 acres to Mr. Thomas Morris, for $3,500.
Special meetings are being held in Bethel B. C. Church's near Benmiller.
Rev. T. Broad, of the circuit, presiding.
Maple sugar making is about to commence now. Preparations are being made on all sides. Believing editors in general to be very fond of sugar cake we will remember the editor of the "Signal".

Mr. John Robertson, of Colborne, invited a few of his most intimate friends to celebrate with him the anniversary of his thirty-first year of wedded life, and judging from Mr. Robertson said his wife's happy face, they have been pleasant years. Mr. Robertson is one of the pioneers of Colborne, and had his share of the hardships incidental to early settlement, helping to improve two farms.
He has advanced with the country, and is in possession of one of the best farms in the township to-day, with every comfort and luxury, and best of all, he is contented with his share. His friends met to the number of thirty, during the afternoon, and shortly after six we were summoned to the dining hall, to a repast which did Mrs. Robertson credit for the manner she had provided for the wants of the inner man. Viands were provided in the utmost profusion, and of excellent quality. After ample justice had been done in this department, the evening was most agreeably spent with toast and glass to mine host and hostess, and after all the topics of the day had been discussed at full length, the company were entertained with a few songs by Messrs. John Buchanan, Donald McGillivray, with the assistance of Mrs.
Wm. Robertson, who rendered an old Scotch song in their native tongue,— Gaelic—which was very much applauded.
Mrs. Robert Young sang two songs very nicely for an old lady of 83 years, as her voice still retains the melody of younger days. And after the "wee sma' hours ayont the twal," the company slowly dispersed. Before departing they sang "Auld Lang Syne," with clapped hands, and congratulated each other on the pleasant evening they had spent. Thanking mine host and hostess and wishing them many years of health and prosperity, hoping to meet them again next year.
I remain, ONE THAT WAS THERE.

A Sappy Scribbler.
The distinguished gentleman who has charge of the soap department in the columns of the Mail, puffs Sir Charles Tupper and Mr. Josiah Burr Plumb every opportunity he gets, and when he does not get an opportunity he makes one. If we believe all that he says of Tupper and Plumb, we will believe that they have profundity without obscurity, perspicuity without prolixity, ornament without glare, terseness without barrenness, penetration without subtlety, comprehensiveness without digression, and a great number of other things without a great number of some other things. The gentleman who has charge of the soap department should eat some salt.—
