

THE HURON SIGNAL

Published every Friday Morning by Mc Gillivray Bros., at their Office, North St. of the Square

GODERICH, ONTARIO.

And is despatched to all parts of the surrounding country by the earliest mails and trains.

By general admission it has a larger circulation than any other newspaper in this part of the country. It is one of the oldest, newest and most reliable journals in Ontario.

Terms.—$1.00 in advance, postage pre-paid by publishers; $1.75, if paid before six months $2.00 if not so paid. This rule will be strictly enforced.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.—Eight cents per line for first insertion; three cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Yearly, half-yearly and quarterly contracts at reduced rates.

JOB PRINTING.—We have also a first-class jobbing department in connection, and possessing the most complete outfit and best facilities for turning out work in Goderich, are prepared to do business at prices that cannot be beaten, and of a quality that cannot be surpassed.—Terms Cash

FRIDAY, JULY 27th, 1883.

A TRAINING IS NECESSARY.

There is no business or calling in the world where so many outsiders feel like rushing in and, without having had any previous experience, undertaking to "run things" as the newspaper trade. The idea that it requires a thorough training to successfully publish a newspaper never seems to enter the minds of many of those who look upon the journalistic profession as a highway to riches and stepping stone to preferment.

The telegraph operators strike is still unsettled. The men are acting in a respectable way, and have much sympathy with them, especially the United States operators.

AN OUTSPOKEN ORANGEMAN.

The duplicity of Sir John A. Macdonald and his obsequious henchman, Mackenzie Bowell, has stirred up the more daring wing of the Orange Brotherhood in Ontario, and a rebellion against the political managers of the order is now in progress.

On another page will be found hints on the treatments of persons rescued from drowning. A perusal of the very simple rules given will give a very clear idea of the proper mode of dealing with those snatched from a watery grave in an unconscious condition.

The fate of poor Webb is a sad one. He appears to have been a man of good habits, but he overrated his ability to cope with the raging waters of Niagara at the Whirlpool, and lost his life in the attempt to master the terrible current.

In another column allusion is made at greater length to an interesting report issued by the authority of the Ontario Government on the subject of the "Necessity of Preserving and Replanting Forests."

Two farmers in Leicester have been fined a shilling each with costs for docking a horse's tail. It was proved that the operation was painful and unnecessary, and performed only in conformity with fashion.

LIGHTNING'S HAVOC.

Terrific Thunder Storm in West-ern Ontario.

Goderich, Exeter and Seaford Especially Visited—No Lives Lost.

Saturday evening last about 8.30 o'clock a heavy thunderstorm burst over this section, and for a couple of hours a heavy rainfall set in. The lightning was very vivid, and the detonations of thunder were frequent and heavy.

Another thunder storm set in which was far more violent and destructive, so far as Goderich was concerned, than its predecessor. The lightning was the most continuous and vivid ever witnessed in this section.

Henry Rothwell's house in St. Patrick's ward was struck, but with the exception of a little damage about the chimney nothing worth noting occurred.

Mrs. Campaign's boarding house on West street got hit, and the crockery was rattled around in a lively manner. The occupants escaped uninjured, and no lives were lost.

On Sunday morning at about 3.30 Mr. and Mrs. Kirkbride, whose bedroom is on the lower floor of their house on Stanley street, were awakened by a very severe peal of thunder.

A fearful storm of thunder and lightning and rain had passed over Quebec and neighborhood Sunday. A house was struck by the electric fluid and completely destroyed on one side of the St. Lawrence.

It is with regret that we announce the death of Mr. Reuben John Brough, City Engineer, which occurred at his residence on Bloor-street West on Saturday afternoon.

From the Toronto Globe. It is with regret that we announce the death of Mr. Reuben John Brough, City Engineer, which occurred at his residence on Bloor-street West on Saturday afternoon.

On another page will be found hints on the treatments of persons rescued from drowning. A perusal of the very simple rules given will give a very clear idea of the proper mode of dealing with those snatched from a watery grave in an unconscious condition.

The fate of poor Webb is a sad one. He appears to have been a man of good habits, but he overrated his ability to cope with the raging waters of Niagara at the Whirlpool, and lost his life in the attempt to master the terrible current.

In another column allusion is made at greater length to an interesting report issued by the authority of the Ontario Government on the subject of the "Necessity of Preserving and Replanting Forests."

Two farmers in Leicester have been fined a shilling each with costs for docking a horse's tail. It was proved that the operation was painful and unnecessary, and performed only in conformity with fashion.

The telegraph operators strike is still unsettled. The men are acting in a respectable way, and have much sympathy with them, especially the United States operators.

On Saturday evening, about 9.20 o'clock, a terrible storm of rain and wind passed over this place, creating most intense excitement. Hotels, churches and

THE WORLD OVER.

Setaway is dead.

Portage la Prairie, with a population of some 3,000 souls, has a debt of $277,000.

A proclamation has been issued at Ottawa quarantining vessels from Mediterranean ports.

Nineteen British bred Clydesdale horses, were landed at Montreal Saturday, for the west.

The French have taken a railroad Saturday, from American. One company has a system of dinner cars on its line.

Wilcox, in jail at Des Moines, on a charge of murder, had a day of insanity from joy on learning that the real murderer had been caught.

Three hundred British immigrants arrived at Montreal Monday night en route to the North-west, and 360 more the following night for the same destination.

Cholera has spread to Russia, where a few cases are reported. The existence of the dread disease at London, Eng., is denied.

Some drunken rongs in Montreal attacked a countryman named Rily on Monday night, and beat him severely, under the impression that he was the Irish informer, Carey.

Further details of the cyclone at Eaton Rapids, Mich., on Monday, state that an entire flock of sheep was blown away, and have not since been found.

Angela Caridia, of Nevada, a native of Italy and 38 years old, claims to be the strongest man in the world. He places the middle finger of his right hand under the foot of a person weighing two hundred pounds and lifts him to a table four feet high.

It is a peculiar fact that out of all the Tory petitioners in election cases so far examined not one of them knew or would tell where the money came from that they had to put up with the petitions as security for costs.

The tug Frank Moffat collided with the ferry steamer Grace Dornier on the St. Clair River, at the mouth of Black River, opposite Sarnia, on Tuesday, striking her on the port side near the stern, and sinking her.

The telegraphers' strike has caused a discussion as to the advisability of the Government assuming control of the telegraph service.

Mary Havens Brencham Fox writes thus appreciatively of Mrs. Langtry: "Mrs. Langtry is a most remarkable woman. On a fine complexion, a good head of hair, a gash of a mouth, large, wholesome teeth, a bust as flat as a Boston crenker, very ugly arms, at all times big, long, thick, wickedly slender and midly-kneed legs, a very shamble of a walk, a violently coarsened waist, she has established a reputation for beauty almost divine."

President Arthur evidently believes that there is a limit beyond which office-seekers should not go. One of the tribes, Logan McKee, of Kentucky, was recently introduced to him as a Republican constituent.

The bachelors are about to have a hard time of it. In Manitoba it is proposed to tax them fifty dollars a year. In France, one of the amendments to the military law proposes to put all the bachelors into the first-class of reserves, to be called out first in time of war, and compelled in time of peace to extra drills and manoeuvres.

Shopperton. A load of hay 22 feet in length, 14 feet wide and 16 feet high was recently blown into the barn on the bridge by W. G. Bogie's boys team. Alcega McGee built the big load, and W. G. Bogie did the pitching.

Dunlop. One of our farmers sold a horse to a Goderich township farmer for $175 one day last week.

The facetious Joshua Juggles, of Port Albert, makes merry at the expense of yours truly, and dubs us "Prof." He seems very anxious about the number of gushings hatched out here by Spanish hens.

Vendor predicts a very dry August, with intense heat and short spells of cold, with frost at night.

Leoburn.

J. Strachan has returned home from Sault Ste Marie much improved in health, and will likely soon be in Goderich with some of his Dunlop chums to give the quitters of your town a brush with the quito.

Dextor Wins.—That long expected game of croquet between one of our leading bachelors and the Dunlop journalist came off on Monday last. Both were ably supported by a fair partner.

One Year's Difference. The knot is tied. The groom and bride. Without an early care. Sail up the lake. Where they can take A little sin and air.

New York, July 21.—Judgment was rendered yesterday in favor of Edward Banks, the negro who sued C. V. J. Okenberg for $250 for blood taken from Banks for transfusion into Okenberg's veins, while the latter was partially asphyxiated. This is ten cents a drop.

Colborne. The barn of Mr. W. H. Baer is again in position upon stone foundation and looks conspicuous as ever.

On the 19th inst., at the bride's residence, by the Rev. Dr. Lewis Thomas Hood to Jane, third daughter of Francis Laird, Esq. of Sharon, Pennsylvania.

MR. W. F. FOOT, ORGANIST AND choir-master of St. George's Church, is prepared to give instruction in the following branches of musical study viz: Organ (church and cabinet) singing at sight. Voice culture, thorough bass and harmony.

The subscriber has received instructions from Mr. Samuel Johnston, executor, to sell by Public Auction, on Wednesday, Aug. 8, 1883.

The Cheap Tea Store, JUST RECEIVED. A LARGE SUPPLY OF CANNED FRUITS AND CANNED MEATS OF ALL KINDS.

Fresh Groceries. Also a fine assortment of Crockery & Glassware. IN THE LATEST DESIGNS.

Teas a Specialty. THE DARLING IMPERIAL SEALERS. IN ALL THE SIZES.

Teas a Specialty. Also a splendid assortment of GOOD HARVEST MITTS. G. H. OLD, THE GROCER. GODERICH. July 26, 1883.

THE SIGNAL. Will be sent to any address for the BALANCE OF 1883. FOR 60 CENTS.

Wheat, (Fall) 40 bush. Flour, 10 bush. Oats, 10 bush. Peas, 10 bush. Barley, 10 bush. Potatoes, 10 bush. Hay, 20 ton. Butter, 10 lb. Eggs, 10 doz. Cheese, 10 lb. Short, 10 cw. Bran, 10 cw. Chop, 10 cw. Wood, 10 cord. Hides, 10. Sheepskins, 10.