Public Notice!

The following extracts from "Orders in Council" respecting the payment of Pensions and other Allowances to the dependants of Seamen of crews of Mercantile vessels engaged in the export of Newfoundland produce to market, are published for general information:—

- 1.—The master of all sailing vessels carrying cargoes of Newfoundland produce to market, shall, before sailing, forward to the Colonial Secretary, a statement giving (a) the full name; (b) Age; (c) Place of birth; (d) Residence; (e) A complete statement of dependants, and (f) the Address of each of such dependants, of himself and each of the members of his crew.
- 2.—The benefit to accrue to such dependants are similar to those payable to the dependants of members of the Royal Naval Reserve and of the Royal Newfoundland Regiment, under "The War Pensions Act, 1917." Claimants desiring further information or application forms may obtain same from the Secretary of the Board of Pension Commissioners for Newfoundland, at Room 10, Militia Buildings, Water Street, St. John's, East. Claims will be heard and adjusted by the Board of Pension Commissioners for Newfoundland.

W. W. HALFYARD,
 Colonial Secretary.
 Oct. 1, 1918. Oct. 2, 1918.

TORIC LENSES

ARE MORE BECOMING THAN FLAT LENSES.

The edges of Toric Lenses do not show as prominently as those of flat lenses. They fit in close to your eyes. You will find Torics much more becoming and useful. They give you a wider, clearer field vision. You should know about Toric Lenses. Let us explain them.

R. H. TRAPNELL,
 Eyesight Specialist,
 St. John's.

NOTICE

At the Monthly Meeting of Learning Lodge, No. 54, on Thursday, the 2nd, BUSINESS OF SPECIAL INTEREST will be discussed. A large attendance is requested. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to attend. By order of the W. M.

PUBLIC NOTICE!
St. John's General Hospital!

The Artificial Limb Department of the General Hospital will open on or about October 10th, and will continue in operation until October 31st. It will be as heretofore under the management of an expert limb fitter direct from the J. F. Rowley Company, Artificial Limb Manufacturers, Chicago, Illinois. All those requiring new limbs can be measured and accurately fitted. Old limbs requiring re-adjustment and repairs will receive attention, and expert advice may be obtained on all matters pertaining to the Artificial Limb and its use. For further particulars as to cost, etc., apply to the Superintendent.
