Legislative Council.

Act did not pass the committee stage, as Sir P. T. McGrath desired information as to the number of men who would benefit by the Act, and also whether conscripts were to be debarred from its privileges. The Bill was adopted, however, with the exeception of the preamble when the committee rose and reported progress.

A Bill entitled "An Act further respecting the Cutting and Exportation of Timber" passed the committee stage without amendment. The Bill legalizes the cutting of railway ties, etc., on Crown lands during the past winter in the districts of Twillingate and St. George's, and permits their exportation.
