Back Up the Committee.

It is surely very regrettable ted expenditure. Of course we plentiful at this season as in fitted out. The savings are drawn previous years, but remembering that the Regatta comes but ing that the Regatta comes but have that on the evidence of the once a year, and that old and bankers." young alike are eagerly anticipating that one day of pleasure and enjoyment, it is not in keeping with our inherited sport instincts that by reason of excessive economy, a financial deficit should prevent the holding of the one series of Aquatic Sports in the whole twelve month. And this is what will likely happen, unless the reported shortage in collections is met before 8 o'clock to-morrow night. The period between to-night's meeting and the start of the first race on Wednesday morning, is leave for the Labrador very brief and a special effort will have to be made if the Committee's estimate of necessary $10 in next winter's inevitable famine. funds is to be realised. And it would be a poor compliment to the splendid spirit of enthusiasm shown by these gentlemen if St. John's were to fall short of that which is expected of it. Such would be utterly unworthy the sporting proclivities of the population, and would do more to indefinitely close down subse- arranged. quent Regattas than any other tween the crews has not yet been the apprehension of those responsible for these dastardly acts. factor. Express Passengers.

A resident of Argentia, named Meade, was brought to the city by Saturday night's train and taken to the Hospital. The man had been working on the Argentia branch line and was engaged discharging a ballast car, when a quantity of rock and debris crashed on him breaking his leg and causing other injuries. On the arrival of the train the injured man was taken to hospital in the ambulance.
