THE EVENING TELEGRAM

THE EVENING TELEGRAM, LIMITED, PROPRIETORS.

St. John's, Nfld., Tuesday, March 13, 1923.

Sir Robert Bond Foretold Correctly.

We append to-day an extract from the letter of resignation which first appeared in the columns of The Evening Telegram on January 10, 1914, in which the Right Honorable Sir Robert Bond warned the country against the ruinous consequences that would follow from the plans of Mr. W. F. Coaker to control the affairs of the Colony through the medium of the Fishermen's Protective Union, and in the interests of that organization and none other. If Sir Robert had had the vision of a prophet he could not have predicted more accurately what has come to pass in Newfoundland than he did at that time. One has only to read his letter to realize with what true, patriotic vision and statesmanship he discerned the trend of events, and the consequences that would ensue if Mr. Coaker succeeded in his design to subordinate the interests of the country, as a whole, to the particular interests of the faction for which he spoke, and disregarded the common weal in order to dominate public affairs, and impose his own will on the Government as he has done the past three and a half years. But not even Sir Robert Bond, wise and prescient as he was with the lessons of statesmanship in other countries to guide him in his conclusions, could have pictured the real disaster that has befallen this island through the infatuated intentions of Mr. Coaker to control and direct its affairs, and to set up his unwise judgment against that of everybody else in Newfoundland, whose opinion counted for anything, excepting the few unprincipled politicians who permitted him to work his will upon our hapless country, so long as they enjoyed place and power and pelf unto themselves.

Bond's Warning
Against CoakerAs True To-Day as When Written Nine Years Ago.

(Extracts from Sir Robert Bond's letter of resignation, as published in The Evening Telegram, January 10, 1914.)

Let me put the position plainly. I had retired from public life with the close of the Session of 1912, and most reluctantly consented to re-enter it last autumn, out of deference, for what was made to appear a popular demand for my services. Among those who approached me in this connection was the Fishermen's Protective Union. The political aspirations of the President of that Union and his attitude towards both political parties had created doubt as to the possibility of securing unanimity of action on the part of all who were opposed to the policy of the present Government. However, the President of the F. P. U. opened negotiations with me for a basis of agreement. Negotiations were somewhat prolonged, but on the 26th day of August I wrote him my decision, concluding with these words: "The Fishermen's Protective Union must be content with a fair and reasonable recognition in the party and above all must trust me fully and unreservedly in dealing with both platform and representation. On no other condition can I consent to lead the Opposition Party in the approaching contest." Two days later the President of the F. P. U. wrote me stating that he considered my communication satisfactory, adding: "I, on behalf of the F. P. U., offer you my loyal support as Leader of the Liberal Party in the coming election, and while you endeavour to do all possible to perform the policy enumerated, you can depend upon the hearty support of the Union candidates." This was accepted by me in good faith as a perfect guarantee of loyalty and co-operation, and I at once announced through The Evening Telegram my decision to lead a "United Opposition" to the polls. Subsequent events, I regret to say, have shown that my confidence was misplaced. The fact was first revealed in the private letter written by the President of the F. P. U. to Capt. Adolphus Yates under date August 30th and published by the latter in the Daily News on October 2nd. It was therein set forth that the pledge of "loyalty and support" given by the President of the F. P. U. to the Liberal Party was only a mere matter of expediency and that at the next General Election the F. P. U. would "lead its own party in a fight to secure the reins of power."

F. P. U. PRE-EMINENCE.

I need scarcely remind you of all that occurred subsequent to that date to shake our faith in the pledge of "loyalty and co-operation" given us by the President of the F. P. U. It is sufficient to refer you to his Address to the Supreme Council of the F. P. U. published in the Fisherman's Advocate of December 6th, wherein he declared "we co-operated with the Liberal Party in the field, as unless we had done so the whole responsibility (of fighting the Government) would have been cast upon my shoulders, a responsibility I was not prepared to shoulder. The result of the election has proved without doubt the power and influence of our Union, and indicates the necessity of establishing the F. P. U. all over the Colony and fighting at the next election, whenever it comes, as a Union Party."

The foregoing reveals the fact that as far as the President of the F. P. U. is concerned the aim of the Union shall be the control of the Government of this Colony by that Union; that its energies shall be directed to that end irrespective of the written pledge, given by him to me on behalf of the Union, of loyalty to and co-operation with the Liberal Party, in securing the adoption of the policy set forth in my Manifesto of October last. The duplicity which before the election was revealed in a private letter to Captain Adolphus Yates, after the election was thus announced to the Supreme Council of the F. P. U. and through the columns of the Fishermen's Advocate to the general public. While its declaration was humiliating and dishonorable to the Liberal Party, it was also necessarily destructive to that unity which I had re-entered public life to establish and maintain. What I ventured to predict to those who so strongly urged upon me to lead the present Opposition Party has been realized. Prophecy may be a gratuitous form of error, but looking forward is a duty of politics. As leader of the Opposition I am now brought face to face with disloyalty within our ranks which takes the form of a set purpose on the part of a majority of the Opposition to dominate the councils of the party and work towards the end that the reins of Government shall be in the Fishermen's Protective Union.

A DOMINANT FACTOR.

The recent political contest resulted in the defeat of a large number of my Liberal supporters, and has left the Opposition Party in a minority of fifteen members, eight of whom are representative of the F. P. U. The Union is thus a dominant factor. Under ordinary circumstances I would have readily accepted a situation that the fortunes of political warfare had brought about, but, in the light of the Union President's self-proclaimed disloyalty and policy, an intolerable position has arisen so far as I am concerned. I have been rendered powerless to direct and guide the policy of the Liberal Party, and I am not prepared to aid the policy of the President of the F. P. U. which he had declared to be the seizure of the Government of this Colony by the Union over which he presides. It has to be remembered that the F. P. U. has closely associated with it trading and manufacturing concerns incorporated for the carrying on of a business and is only incidentally a political entity. Now in the year 1900 a corporate body having large and varied business interests, the Reid Newfoundland Company, endeavored at the polls to obtain control of the Government of the Colony. I led a party in opposition to them, defeated their design, and kept them in their proper place, during my term of office of nine years. In my opinion it would be no less objectionable for the corporate business concern known as the F. P. U. to "secure the reins of power," and while I am prepared, as I clearly evidenced in my correspondence with the President of the F. P. U. in my Manifesto of October last, and in my platform utterances during the election campaign to uphold the right of the F. P. U. to a fair and proper representation in party Government, I shall strenuously oppose any attempt on their part or on the part of any other corporate business concern to seize the Government of the Colony. Government should be made the most efficient instrument for bettering the actual conditions of life among all classes who make up the Country and should not be converted into a mere machine for advancing the interests of any particular body of individuals.

Victory all Along the Line.North, South, East and West
the slogan for clean government is being sounded.

On every side is being heralded the glorious news that the Opposition Candidates are assured of victory at the polls, even in the one time Coaker stronghold.

What else can one expect when it can be seen on every hand ruin, desolation and despair wrought by the worst reaction of political mistis this country has ever known.

St. John's West has again set the pace, and even the most optimistic of the Squires-Coaker supporters is at his wits end to bolster up a rotten cause, and is forced to the admission that the Prime Minister cannot even win in his own district.

Sir Richard Anderson Squires just a little over three years ago, was given a chance by the electors of this Dominion to show what he could do.

The whole country to-day realizes that the confidence placed in him then has been misplaced. Many who backed Squires could not forget the words of Coaker, who termed him "That Black Rascal" nor those of Sir Patrick McGrath who said "Squires could not be trusted." We see now how true these statements were. The man who made the first utterance has since become the political boss of Squires and flourishes the whip, and the whole country is to-day suffering in consequence.

The misdoings of the Coaker-Squires combine will take years to repair, and only strong men, men of ability, and well versed in the commercial affairs of the country can accomplish this task. The Opposition, led by Mr. Bennett, is daily adding to its rank men of this calibre.

There is certainly no joke about the issues before the country to-day. The Mail and Advocate can joke and sling mud and just as much as they please, but the people are awake to the seriousness of the situation.

Jokes, unfulfilled promises, mud slinging, etc., can no longer fool the people.

It is high time for the sake of decency for the Mail and Advocate to take a tumble to themselves and cut out abuse and insinuations. The public demand something better.

Another four years of Squires-Coaker rule and the grass will grow on Water Street, the roots are already there.

Voters of St. John's, you know too well how the Coaker-Squires policy has affected this city. Be determined on this polling day to sound the death knell of Coakerism and all that it means.

Premier Squires has had his chance. Urged in by his boss he has succeeded in thrusting every industry in this city and the country with the result that Newfoundland has been driven on the rocks.

The fishermen of the north are awake and intend with the rest of the country to take a hand and assist in sweeping the Coaker-Squires cabal from power, and to save Newfoundland for Newfoundlanders.

HAWKES BAY AND PORT SAUNDERS FOR OPPOSITION.

Yesterday Mate Churchill of S. S. Edmund Donald, who is looking after the ship which is frozen in at Port Saunders, sent a message to Capt. C. P. Moore which indicates that the political situation in this Northern District, like the rest of the country, is running strong in favor of the Bennett party. The message reads as follows:

"To Capt. C. P. Moore, St. John's. Everything good, weather frosty, Hawkes Bay and Port Saunders solid for Opposition."

Woman Suffrage.

The Methodist College Literary Institute have issued a challenge to the Advocate and exponents of Woman Suffrage to debate this question on Thursday evening next at 7.45 o'clock. Needless to say the challenges have been accepted with alacrity and Counsel for the defence will appear in full and complete array.

St. Bon's New Rink.

PRIZE DRAWING LAST NIGHT.

Last night prizes for the lottery held in connection with the new St. Bon's rink were drawn by G. F. Kearney, J. G. Higgins, Eric Robertson, J. Barron, and Sean McGrath and resulted as follows:

1st Prize, $50—Won by Master Jack McGrath, Gloucester, Mass.

2nd Prize, $25—Won by Patrick Kehoe, Gilbert Street, Grand Falls.

3rd Prize, $20—Won by Miss Lydia Jackman, 23 Freshwater Road.

4th Prize, $20—Won by Master C. Donnelly, Gower Street.

5th Prize, $10—Won by Mr. G. Meaney, 271 Water Street, West.

A further effort to raise funds to pay off the debt on the new rink will be made on St. Patrick's Day, when a grand concert and comedy will be held in the Aula Maxima. A large number of the city's leading musical talent will take part in the concert. The comedy sketch is in most capable hands so that a very enjoyable evening is assured.

Mercantile Hockey.

STEER BROS TEAM THE WINNERS.

A very interesting game of hockey was played last night in St. Bon's rink, between teams from Messrs. Steer Bros. and C. P. Bennett & Co. The former aggregation won out by four goals to three. One of the players, named Jackman, collided with an opponent during the progress of the game, and was laid low for some minutes. A return game will be played at an early date.

ELECTORS,
TAKE NOTICE!

COAKER IS NOT "ANNOUNCED"

The Reason Why He Is Kept in The Background.

Every elector should make a note of the fact that while Sir Richard Squires has come out with an announcement in the Advocate and the Daily Mail, with big black head lines and a lot of flattering references to every other candidate who is to contest a district for him, he has suppressed any references whatever to Mr. Coaker. Of course, the reason for this is that Squires wants to push Coaker in the background, and keep him as much as possible from being a subject for discussion during the next two months, well knowing that Coaker's unpopularity is such that the mere mere is heard of Coaker's connection with Squires, the poorer is the chance for Squires to be elected.

When the Premier started to fill up the districts he began with the announcement of the candidatures of Mr. Cave, for Bay de Verde, Captain Randall for Trinity, then Mr. Halfyard and Mr. Hibbs for Trinity, then Dr. Barnes for Harbor Grace to Green Bay, with Capt. G. Jones and Mr. K. Brown, then Mr. Grimes for Pogo, and following this that Messrs. Poole and Cheeseman would run again for Burin, and that then Mr. Scammell was going back to St. Barbe. But up to this moment there has not been a word about Mr. Coaker contesting Bonavista. It was left for Mr. Coaker to "announce" himself, which he did in a message from Port Union to the Advocate, published a week ago as a farewell to the sealers, in which he said that he, Winsor and Abbott would be again contesting the district.

COAKER IS DOMINANT FACTOR.

Nobody can mistake the significance of this. Every other candidate was announced with a flourish of trumpets, but Coaker's candidacy was kept as quiet as possible, and is to be kept quiet so far as the Government papers are concerned. Coaker is the ruling power, but Squires does not wish this fact known. He still tries to fool the country into believing that he is in control, but anybody can see what the real condition of affairs is. Another reason why Squires suppressed Coaker's candidacy is that he has never forgiven Coaker for exposing the fact that he got $5,000 from the Reids in Bank of Montreal notes some time before the last election. Coaker, who in those times described his leader as "that black rascal Squires" made from his place in the Assembly, in the session of 1918, a charge that Mr. Squires, who at the time was Colonial Secretary and was Chairman of a Committee of the Executive Council to deal with claims made by the Reid Company against the Government, had received $5,000 in Bank of Montreal notes from Mr. H. D. Reid. We quote from Mr. Coaker's speech on that occasion as follows:—

"This gentleman (Mr. Squires), last October and November with myself and others of the Executive Council, composed a sub-committee of Council to consider claims arising out of the Branch Railway Contract. The then Colonial Secretary, Mr. Squires, was chairman of this Committee. The claims under the Branch Railway Contract amounted to hundreds of thousands of dollars. This man, who is attacking me in the Star, and exhausting the English language to find sufficient words to vilify me, as quoted in the article 'Throw Him Out,' opened up negotiations with the Reid Newfoundland Company in reference to the supposed failure of one of the Reids to live up to promises made respecting financial aid to the Star, which negotiations ended by the payment in Bank of Montreal notes of $5,000 by Mr. R. G. Reid to the then Colonial Secretary Mr. R. A. Squires. The public will be solely concerned with that aspect of the matter which led the Chairman of such a responsible committee, trusting and dealing on behalf of the Dominion with claims of such vast proportions, accepting at such a time $5,000 paid him by a Company, whose claims were under consideration and adjustment. I leave the public to decide as to how clean the hands of such a man are. I believe that if I were the man accepting this $5,000 under such circumstances, I would have been hounded out of public life long before this, and would probably find myself enjoying a rest on the banks of Quidi Vidi."

Electors, can you vote again for this Squires-Coaker-Gallagher combine, who have ruined the country. No! Never! Assert your manhood and vote for Commercial Hockey.

CABLE CO. BOYS PLAY MERCANTILE TEAM.

What promises to be a spirited game of hockey takes place tonight in the Prince's Rink, when the Commercial Cable Co. sextette and a combined team from Bowring's and Harvey's will try conclusions. The former aggregation has an exceptionally good line-up, and in clashing with the two strongest teams in the Mercantile League, the game should revolve itself into a hotly contested match from start to finish. The game starts promptly at 7 o'clock.

Sealing News.

SHIPS MAKING POOR PROGRESS. Judging by the messages received from the Sealing Fleet last night, it looks as though the steamers are having a very trying time owing to the exceptional ice conditions. The southerly wind of to-day will very likely loosen up the floes, and allow the ships to make some headway. News of a more encouraging nature will probably be received to-morrow, which date is set aside by law for the commencement of killing. The following messages were received from the ships last night:—

BOWRING BROS. LTD.

Viking—In heavy sheet ice, making slow progress, steering North West. Position 30 miles east by south St. Paul's. Blowing a gale from N.W., snowing hard at intervals; too thick to see far ahead. All well.

Terra Nova—Ice tight, very jammed, large sheets, difficult to get through. Impossible to do anything without swell.

Sagone, (7 p.m.)—Position 3 miles E. Bonavista, tight ice as far as can be seen. Following ships in sight: Eagle, Terra Nova and Seal. Following stowaways on board: Thomas as Crew, 53 Line Street; Edward Murray, 31 King's Road; Fred Lowe, 73 Quail Wat Road; William Davis, 63 Carter's Hill.
