-Edward Cookston, the young man whose love landed him in jail, appeared before Squire Lacey this morning. The charge of using threatening language towards Mr. Dennis was settled by Cookston being bound over to keep the peace for a year.

-James Hobbins and Hugh Semple this norning elected trial by jury on the charge of having attempted to rob Ernest Hornley of his hand satchel. The trial will take place at the June sessions. Both prisoners applied for bail, and the sum was fixed at $200 each, and two sureties of $200. Both are vet in jail.

-The firemen had a long run to William and Hill streets this morning to see a chimney smoke. Yesterday someone opened the market box for another chimney fire, but neglected to pull down the button. A policeman came along and locked the box and the chimney died out of its own accord. A citizen this morning suggested that the City Council should do something towards entorcing the cleaning of chimneys, brilliant picture of splendor. Queen Vicespecially at this season of the year. Mr. George Oliver, of Vancouver, B. C., has purchased from Mr. A. A. Campbell, real estate dealer, the Western University grounds, on St. James street, for $17,000. This is one of the largest transactions in city acreage that has taken place in the local real estate market for some time, and evinces the confidence outsiders have in the increasing value of London realty.

OTTAWA NOTES.

(Special to the ADVERTISER.)

OTTAWA April, 19. It is stated on good grounds that the petition now being signed by the Roman Catholic bishops in reference to the school question is addressed to the Queen, and asks that the Imperial Parliament amend the Manitoba Act of 1870 so as to have the effect of restoring separate schools in that province. It is also said that the Quebec members of the Cabinet threatened to appeal to Rome if the bishops did anything to force them to resign.

The Bell Telephone Company's Bill was promoted by Mr. White, of Cardwell. It takes authority to issue bonds or debentures to the amount of 75 per cent of its paid-up capital stock. As this is $2,500, 000, the new issue amounts to over $1,700,000. The bill was reported. A bill to incorporate the Nepigon and James Bay Railway was reported. It runs through a country populated by Indians only, so the value of the charter may be judged.

EAST MIDDLESEX LICENSES.

Temperance and Liquor People Before the Commissioners.

Mr. Weekes and Others Speak-These They Want Cut Cff.

The East Middlesex license commissioners met this afternoon in Coote's block with John Kennedy, Ilderton, (chairman), Allan Bogue, Westminster, and Wm. P. Scatchard, Nissouri; and Inspector Durand

Mrs. May Thornley, president of the W. C. T. U., with Mrs. Ware, Dr. Arnott of the London and Western Ontario Prohibi-Union; Rev. G. J. Kerr, Thorndale; Fred Daly, G. N. Weeks, of the East Middlesex Temperance Association, approved to appeal against the granting of new licenses. Squire Edwards appeared to protest against the granting of a license on the Hamilton road, east of the city.

Messrs, Gibson, Saunby, Wilkins, Scarrow and Greenway appeared to oppose the granting of a fresh license in London West. Messrs. Jefferies, Coate, Ludwig, Barnes, Parke, Richardson, Morkin, Dewar, Mc-Donald, Sare, Ward and several others, representing the license interests, were

Mr. Weekes was the first speaker. He urged that no new licenses be granted in the vicinity of the city. In Westminster, in accordance with a bylaw recently passed, a reduction of one license has to be made, and he asked that Mr. Collins, of Glanworth, be deprived of his, he being the least deserving. In West Nissouri two had to come off by law, and he thought that the two southerly ones at Rebecca and Crumlin were the least needed. Rev. Mr. Kerr followed and asked that the same hotels be cut off in Nissouri as mentioned by Mr. Weekes. The commissioners were still sitting at the time of going to press.

MARRIED IN SPLENDOR.

Victoria's Granddaughter Wedded to Her Cousin at Coburg.

Great Crowds - Rich | Costumes - The Queen Wears a Crown of Diamonds.

Conurc, April 19 .- Soon after daylight the streets were fined with a happy-faced and orderly crowd of people in holiday attire. West Council will be held on Tuesday | The crowd kept increasing until, by 9 o'clock, the great equare in front of the ducal palace was packed. At 9:30 Empress Frederick made her appearance, dressed for a drive. A mighty cheer went up and the crowd seemed wild with enthusiasm. Members of various royal families assembled here for the marriage of Grand Duke Earnest to his cousin, the Princess Victoria Milita, of Saxe-Coburg, passed and repassed in front of the palace and were greeted with cheers and other manifestations of feelings of good will which inspired the crowd. Excursion trains loaded with visitors were constantly arriving, and continuous streams of rustics poured in on foot from every direction, many having walked ten or twelve miles. The marriage ceremony in the palace chapel began at 12:30 p.m. In the wedstreet, who fell on a barbed wire fence the ding procession to the chapel the Duchess by hanging himself. other night and badly lacerated his face, is of Sare-Coburg, mother of the bride, was escorted by Emperor William of Germany, and followed by ex-Em-Nothing new has transpired in regard to press Frederick, who walked alone. he appointment of a commanding officer The Prince of Wales and the Czarewitch came next, walking side by side. Queen Victoria was escorted by her son, the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, the father of the bride, and was seated in an armchair in the front row of seats semicircling the altar. The seat next to her was occupied by Emperor William next to whom was the Duchess of Coburg. Corresponding seats on the other side of the aisle were occupied by the Prince of Wales, ex-Empress Frederick and the Czarewitch. The other royal personages in attendance occupied seats in three rows of chairs immediately back of the first.

When the bride and groom entered a signal was given, in obedience to which all the bells in the town pealed simultaneously, and when the rings were exchanged a salute of 21 guns were fired. Dr. Mueller, Supreme Councilor, officiated at the ceremony, assisted by Court Chaplains Bender and Hausen, The magnificent jewels and bright dresses of the ladies of the ducal court, and their royal guests the gorgeous uniforms of those in military garb and the exquisitely beautiful costumes of the bride and her attendants formed a most toria wore a crown of diamonds. She remained seated through the ceremony. The other royal and imperial personages and all other guests stood while Dr. Mueller addressed the bridal couple and received their responses. After the benediction the bride and groom turned to the Queen and kissed her affectionately. The bride then kissed her parents, the Prince of Wales and other royalties. The procession was re-formed and marched out of the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March. The guests went immediately to the great hall where the wedding breakfast was served. When the bridai party left the church the cheering of the people was deafening. The floral and other decorations of the church were of the most magnificent description.

The scores made in the spoon match at the drill shed last night were ahead of anything previously recorded in these competitions, and is the result of steady and consistent practice. It is to be hoped that the shooting men will remember this when the work at the Cove ranges begins early in May. Pte. Robson made the very fine score of 48 out of a possible 50, and was tied by Cot.-Sergt. Jacobs with 46 and two added on account of being in the second class. In shooting off the tie, Sergt. Jacobs won the spoon, proving his right to be in the first class: The scores were:
