BRYANSTON'S TREAT. The Advertiser correspondent sends the following details of an event briefly referred to in a previous issue: Bryanston people seldom enjoy such rare treats as they did on Sunday and on Monday evening last, and the results both socially and spiritually, as well as financially, were as great as the most sanguine could expect. On Sunday morning the services were conducted by Rev. Robert Johnston, of St. Andrew's Church, London, and in the afternoon and evening by Rev. Thomas Wilson, of King Street Presbyterian Church, London. Every participator was loud in high appreciation of the services rendered by these two em-inent divines. The choir from Granton led the praise on all three occasions. On Monday evening an entertainment was given by Prof. Barron and his choir of about 30 voices of the London Conservatory of Music. In the choruses the harmonious blend-ing of the voices was splendid, more especially the male voices. The solos by the Misses Higgins and Templeton were good, but little Miss Bennett rewere good, but little Miss Bennett received the Ilon's share of appreciation. Her rendering of the solo in "Nearer, My God, to Thee," will long be remembered by the lovers of music in the audience. Mr. Barron's solos were also well received. Miss Proudfoot recited a selection from "The Bonnie Briar Bush," and "A Song in the Market Place," with great effect. At the close of the concert, the pastor of the church, Rev. Mr. Little, announced the financial proceeds of the anniver-
