The Greatest known Remedy for the Relief and Cure of RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, SPRAINS, BRUISES, MUSCULAR SWELLINGS, SORE THROAT, SORENESS of the CHEST or BACK, or wherever a LINIMENT is required. It also cures the worst case of PILES.

London, June 29, 1899.

My horse sprained the inside cord of the hind leg in getting up in the stable. He could not touch his foot to the ground. I got a bottle of Doyle's Liniment. I first bathed the parts affected with hot water and applied the Liniment three times a day. In three days I was able to drive him. I consider it one of the greatest remedies I ever used for a sprain.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Good Thing From Hungary.

Under the auspices of the Apollinaris Company, London, a very valuable mineral water, adapted for medicinal purposes, has been introduced into this country under the name of "Apenta." This product is a bitter water, derived pure and in a perfectly natural condition, from springs situated near Budapest, Hungary.

It belongs to the class of purgative waters; but its action happens to be of a mild and non-irritating character, due to the presence of a large quantity of sulphate of magnesia, which exceeds in quantity the sulphate of soda. The former is the milder purgative, and the somewhat crude action of the soda sulphate of other waters is therefore said to be avoided in "Apenta." **

A DINNER PILL—Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healing nutriment, it becomes a poison to the system. Dr. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions and convey the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with indigestion.

RECEPTION TO THE NEW PASTOR

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Sowerby Warmly Welcomed.

City Ministers of Other Denominations Extend Greeting—A Pleasant Social Evening.

Last night in the school room of the Talbot Street Baptist Church a reception was tendered to Rev. Dr. Sowerby and Mrs. Sowerby. That they may be assured of the hearty co-operation of the congregation and all the ministers of the city, was made plain by the large number of members present, and by the cordial welcome extended by the visiting clergymen.

Among the latter who were on the platform were: Rev. W. H. Ciaris, of the Southern Congregational Church; Rev. W. M. Walker, of the Wortley Road Baptist Church; Rev. Dr. Johnston, of St. Andrew's; Rev. T. S. Johnson, of the Adelaide Street Baptist; Rev. Mr. Boon, of the Maitland Street North Baptist Church, and Rev. C. C. Owen, of the Memorial Church, each of whom gave short addresses of welcome.

Rev. Mr. Owen, while extending to Rev. Dr. Sowerby and his wife the sincere well-wishes of himself and congregation, remarked that while there were in his denomination a large number who believed in burning incense, he could not but judge from the odor of goodly things coming from the kitchen, that the ladies of the Baptist Church also believed in burning incense. He joined with the other ministers in extending to Rev. Dr. Sowerby the assurance of hearty welcome from the clergy of London.

In reply Rev. Dr. Sowerby thanked the congregation for their cordial reception, and the clergymen for their kindly utterances. He was afraid that the congregation was expecting too much of him, as he was but a weak man, whose life had been made up of blunders and mistakes of all kinds. Although he appreciated the good work being done by other denominations, and would rejoice with them, yet he was a Baptist by conviction. He wanted his people to trust him. He assured them that they could expect hard work from him, with honest sympathy and love in time of affliction, and they could expect good, honest pulpit work; but in return he expected loyalty on the part of the congregation, and a joining with him of heart and hand in the extension of the kingdom of God and the breaking of the bands that bind men in sin.

Dr. Buchan extended to the new pastor the welcome on behalf of the congregation.

During the evening Mr. Charles Cunningham rendered a vocal solo, while duets were sung by Messrs. N. Mills and Chris Leach, and Mrs. Yeomans and Mrs. Scott.

Mrs. Sowerby was presented with a beautiful bouquet of roses by little Muriel Sayer, daughter of Mr. C. R. Sayer, the gift coming from the ladies of the church.

TRUST WILL INVESTIGATE

The Escape of Colin More From the Hospital.

Statements Read From Members of the Staff Who Had Connection With the Case—Bylaws Read and Changes Made.

The hospital trust met in special session yesterday afternoon, and decided to investigate the circumstances surrounding the escape of the late Colin More from the Victoria Hospital on Thursday night last. The inquiry will be made on Friday afternoon, at the regular meeting of the trust. In compliance with a request from one of the trustees, Dr. Balfour obtained signed statements from five members of the hospital staff, who had connection with the case.

Miss McNab, the nurse in charge of More, reported that she came on duty at 7 o'clock on the evening in question. Dr. Drake had visited the patient at 9:30, and remarked on leaving that the latter would probably die during the night. Between 11 and 12 o'clock More had become very delirious, and had gotten out of bed, but had returned immediately. His friends were then sent for. Dr. Balfour had paid his customary nightly visit at about 12 o'clock, and some time after Miss McNab had gone to supper, leaving Mr. G. O. Roadhouse in charge. She had not been gone very long when Mr. Roadhouse was heard calling, and in company with Miss McCutcheon she had run to the patient's ward. Roadhouse told them that he had had a struggle with More, and had shut him in the Oddfellows' room. On entering the lodge ward, the patient was nowhere to be found. The window was half-open and a chair stood beneath it. Drs. Drake and Balfour had been immediately summoned, the police notified and a search instituted.

The statement of G. O. Roadhouse, male attendant, who was with the patient on the night that he escaped, was read, and, briefly summarized, was as follows: He had gone in to treat More at 12:30, and the latter said he would get out of bed, and go to a hotel or a drug store, to get something to stop him vomiting. He told the patient that he had better keep quiet, as everything possible was being done. More again vomited, and started to get out of bed. He tried to reason with him, but the patient sprang up and made for the door. He caught him by the arm, but More was too much for him, and he (Roadhouse) opened the door to get out and summon aid, when More caught hold of it and forced his way into the hallway. He (Roadhouse) then caught More by the shoulders, and forced him into a room near by and closed the door. The nurses, who were at their midnight supper, were hurriedly summoned, but upon entering the room shortly after it was found that the patient had escaped through a window. More was searched for, but could not be found.

The depositions of Miss Murray, a nurse, Miss McCutcheon, the night superintendent, and C. D. Fuller, male attendant, were also read. They substantiated the statements made by Miss McNab and Mr. Roadhouse.

The bylaws governing the new hospital were read and a number of unimportant changes suggested. Adjourned.

ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY

Election of Officers and Presentation of Yearly Reports.

Wm. Wanless Re-Elected President—Annual Banquet Nov. 30—Burns' Anniversary To Be Celebrated With a Ball.

St. Andrew's Society, annual meeting was held last night in Somerset Hall, when officers for the ensuing term were elected and reports for the past year presented. President Wm. Wanless, who put so much enthusiasm and life into the society last year with his untiring efforts to make everything "go," was re-elected for another term. Members present: Messrs. Wm. Wanless, president, in the chair; A. G. Chisholm, acting secretary; J. W. Jones, treasurer; Col. John Macbeth, Geo. Angus, John G. T. Gentleman, Thomas R. Parker, Alex. Purdom, T. A. Rowat, Wm. Darch, John Stevens, J. B. McKillop, George Rennie, Arch. Sharp, Dr. Stevenson, Walter B. Laidlaw, Thomas R. Cathro, and J. B. Falconer.

After reading the minutes of the previous meeting the election of officers was proceeded with. The older members suggested that the younger members of the society should again be elected to office, as "young blood" had charge in 1898-1899, and the year was one of the most successful in the long history of the society. President Wanless was nominated for the second term by Messrs. McKillop and Angus, and the election was made unanimous. J. B. McKillop was nominated for first vice-president by Messrs. Jones and Parker, and George Rennie for second vice-president by Messrs. Angus and Purdom. P. McKenzie, jun., was nominated to succeed Mr. Laidlaw as secretary. J. W. Jones, who has been treasurer of the society for over 20 years, desired to withdraw from office, but the members would not hear of it. They wish him to complete a quarter of a century as their treasurer. All the elections were made unanimous. The relief committee was re-elected, and the physicians chosen were Drs. Maclaren, Wishart, Arnott, Waugh, Macarthur and Stevenson.

Chaplains elected Revs. W. J. Clark, Thos. Wilson, W. Moffat and A. L. McGillivray. Rev. E. H. Sawers' name was dropped from the list, he having removed to Brucefield.

Pipers Geo. Angus and Thomas Mcdonald were re-elected, and J. B. Falconer, a recent arrival from Scotland, was added to the list.

Reports were presented by President Wanless on the picnic at Port Stanley and the ball held in the Opera House, showing these events to have eclipsed all former affairs of the kind held by the society. It was decided to celebrate St. Andrew's Day, Nov. 30, with a banquet at the City Hotel. On Burns' anniversary a ball, that will equal, if not surpass the one held last winter, will take place. Every effort will be put forth to make it a big success.

It was reported by Treasurer Jones that the society had agreed to furnish a room at the new hospital, and that the opening of it would take place on St. Andrew's Day. Some $75 had already been paid to Mr. Jones and Col. Macbeth, both of whom are prepared to receive further subscriptions.

The report of the treasurer, Mr. Jones, showed receipts for the past year amounting to $543 80. The balance from the previous year was $130 35; members' fees amounted to $102; and the receipts from entertainments were $311 45. The disbursements included: Advertising, $14 55; commission on collections, $10; relief, $236 99; rent, $4 50; entertainments, $151 57, leaving a balance on hand of $126 19.

These gloves are the leaders in the trade—gusseted fingers, Paris point stitching—all the newest ideas in make, fit, finish and general excellence. They have, also, Wertheimer's last patented fasteners—an ingenious spring—better than the old style wrench.

Use Only Werthiemer's Gloves.

Make This Note

In your memorandum book: "'Fit-Reform' is not made to order, but is made to fit."

After all it is only a question of fit. "If that suit would only fit me I should be in the biggest kind of luck," says an occasional passer-by, "but it won't," and on he goes. If he would only come in and try on a suit he would find that he was one of five shapes: "Regular," "slim," "short-stout," "tall-stout" or "stout," and that the suit was all of $5 cheaper than the tailor's.

It is costly to pass by some times.

Suits—$10, $12, $15, $18, $20.

Overcoats—$10, $12, $15, $18, $20, $25.

THIRTY BOYS OF THE SEVENTH

Handed in Their Names to Col. Buchan Last Night.

Instructions to Call for Volunteers Had Not Arrived, but All Will Be Settled by Tomorrow Night.

Expectancy was the characteristic of those assembled at the drill shed last night. The hold that military enthusiasm has taken upon Londoners was evidenced in the numbers who attended the drill. Not only the Seventh men themselves, who turned out in good numbers, but citizens of all classes were there expecting that more definite announcements would be made in regard to the Canadian contingent. They were disappointed, however. Col. Buchan, who was there, said that as yet the officers at the barracks had received no instructions to call for volunteers. They had word, however, that they might receive the names of those willing to go. Of these there were 30 who sent in their names, and it is expected that more will apply today. Quite a number of civilians expressed their desire to go, if possible, and some joined the Seventh last night in order to secure any advantage that might ensue from being a member of a military organization. Further particulars will be made public as soon as the official order is received from Ottawa. This will not be long distant, and a prominent official at the barracks has given his assurance that everything will be finally settled and in good working order by tomorrow night.
