OIL.

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 14.—Oil opened and closed at $1 40.

OIL CITY, Pa., March 14.—Credit balances, $1 40. Eggs were fairly plentiful, though the small market somewhat told against the quantity offered here also. The prevailing price for these was 24c by basket lots and 75c by the single dozen.

Maple syrup was another popular feature of the morning's market, and there was a very fair supply offered, that found a very ready sale.

Enterpolar told against the tures closed steady. Closing bids: March, 15.0lc; April, 14.93c; May, 14.98c; June, 14.75c; July, 14.74c; August, 14.20c; September, 13.30c; October, 12.86c; November, 12.64c; December, 12.62c; January, 12.58c. was a very fair supply offered, that found a very ready sale.

Evaporated syrup went at $1.25 a gallon and unevaporated at $1.25.

Vegetables were very scarce, lettuce and cabbages, outside of the roots, being about the only thing offered.

Big Hay Supply.

In the heavier market produce the market was better supplied. There was a very good supply of hay, more than has been offered in several weeks. There were upwards of 40 loads in all, but on account of the very small supply for some time back, there was no glut on the market. Even the price remained fairly steady, first-class quality going from $16 to $16.50.

Dressed hogs took another strong advance and, almost without exception, sold for $12.

Oats sold at $1.27 to $1.32, only the
