PRICE TWO CENTS.

NEW BISHOP OF LONDON ARRIVES A MAN OF STRIKING PRESENCE

Met at the Depot by Rev. Father Aylward, Water Commissioner Philip Pocock and Others-Was Taken at Once to the Palace and Later Enjoyed an Auto Ride Around the City.

Bishop Fallon, accompanied by Rev. affection. He expressed his pleasure T. W. Smith, of Lowell, Mass., the new at arriving, and when near the cenhead of the Oblates, arrived in the tral portion of the depot, he said: sity last night at 6:25 o'clock over the Grand Trunk. He was met at the depot by Rev. Father Aylward, rector dered what his first impressions were. Moriarity, of Halifax, an old friend of the bishop's, and Water Commissioner Pocock. He was hurrled into Mr. Pocock's automobile and taken to the palace, where he remained a short time, going later to Mt. St. Joseph, There he will remain until the consecration on Monday next. There were few people at the station, not many knowing that his lord- physical power.

The New Bishop. shoulders above other men. Father Aylward and Mr. Pocock are not small men by any means, but Bishop must be much over six feet in height, heavily. He is not fat, but big, and his step is as light and springy as that of a well-trained athlete. miringly, as he paused at his work Joseph. to gaze after Bishop Fallon.

An Affectionate Greeting. old friends, and they chatted together for a moment like long-lost brothers, brothers, will arrive tonight on the Father Aylward introduced the International Limited from their home other members of the party to his in Cornwall, Ont., to attend the conlordship, and he greeted them with secration.

DANIEL DEACON.

the Soo—Snowfall Very Heavy.

down, and all trains are delayed.

The Storm in Chicago

locomotive. The engineer and fireman

CROPS LOOK EXCELLENT

Well Pleased.

TAGS TAKE WELL

crops are over a month in advance of remark regarding him.

jumped and escaped injury.

smile that won't come off.

reeded all expectations.

HEAVY BLIZZARD

fore midnight.

morning.

"Well, this is my first visit to London." He gazed at the Grand Trunk station as he said it, and those wonof St. Peter's Cathedral; Rev. Father He would not be interviewed on this occasion and hurried to the automobile. Father Aylward and Father Schmidt accompanied him to the palace.

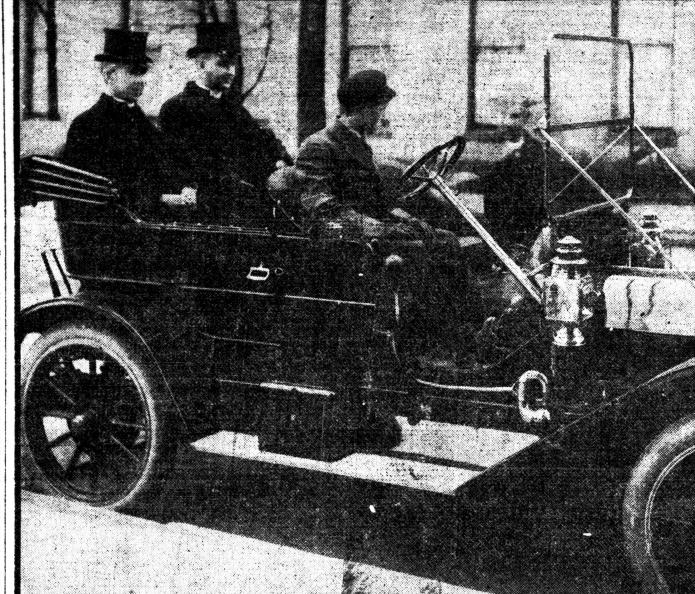

> First Impressions. First impressions of his lordship are always that of strength, his magnificent physique and splendid carriage giving one the idea of great

When he speaks, it is easy to see ship was coming to London at that why he is beloved by his people. He has a gracious face always, beaming with human kindness, and such The new bishop is a big man. Like with human kindness, and such as Saul of old, he stands head and would lead men to do deeds of valor for such a man.

Keen of eye, quick of perception, Fallon is much taller than they, and a physical force in itself a rich legacy, is certain to become one of the He is a strongly-built, man, with broad shoulders, and must weigh Driven Over the City.

Later in the evening Bishop Fallon asked to be shown the city, and was driven all over the city by Mr. Po-Gee, no wonder his lordship could cock. He expressed much admiration play foot all," said a railroad man ad- for the city. Later he went to Mt. St Already a number of clergymen have arrived to take part in the consecration. His greeting was affectionate and carty. Father Moriarity and he were and will be here this evening. Bishop Fallon's parents, and his six

THE ARRIVAL OF THE NEW BISHOP OF LONDON.

The Advertiser staff photographer snapped Bishop Fallon just after he had taken his seat in Water Commissioner Philip Pocock's car, prior to being taken to St. Peter's Palace. Rev. Father Aylward, rector of St. Peter's Cathedral, can be seen seated to his lordship's right. Mr. Pocock's picture was spoiled by the wind

$4,000 DAMAGE WAS DONE SIMPLE SERVICE AT BY BLAZE ON RICHMOND ST. Mr. Daniel Deacon Aged 94 TWAIN'S FUNERAL

Stores of Stevely & Sons, and Ryan & Russel, Also the Regal New York Only Stopping Place Glove Company Suffer—Cause of the Fire a Mystery— Firemen Did Good Work

J. W. BENGOUGH'S TRIBUTE Rev. Dr. Vandyke and Rev. Dr. J. H.

in the Dead Author's Last

Journey.

Thousands. vices, as simple as was his wholesome street. life, accompanied the tributes paid here today to Samuel L. Clemens alarm.

Twitchell Voiced the Eulogies of streams on the blaze. osopher and citizen of the world New York city was but a stopping place in the dead author's last jour- second floor in the workshop of the ney. His body was brought here from Regal Company. The flat is divided There was a stove in one of the rooms died, to be taken to Elmira, N. Y., for difficulty in reaching the flames with ed there.

SWEEPS MICHIGAN avenue and Thirty-seventh Chief Aitken directed his energy. Af- last evening at 5:42 over the C. P. R. street, was the place selected for the ter a short but hard struggle the de- but is expected back today. He could services at 3 o'clock this afternoon, partment got the better of the blaze, not be located last night to be notified and two close friends of Mr. Clemens and in half an hour it was extin- of his loss. Storm Extends From Duluth to were chosen to voice the grief and guished. speak the eulogies of thousands. This honor went to the Rev. Dr. Vandyke. formerly pastor of the Brick Church, of Ryan & Russell, grocers. They are to get at the flames." and now professor of English litera-

Venerable Dr. Jos. H. Twitchell, of Calumet, Mich., April 23 .- A heavy blizzard, with a 50-mile wind, from the Although the Brick Church is a spacious edifice, seating 1,200 persons, north, reached its climax shortly beit was by no means large enough to contain all who desired to see for the The storm area extends from Duluth last time the face of Mark Twain. the doors were to be open to the general public. After the services, it was The snow is very heavy here, more than six inches has already fallen, and announced the opportunity would be given for those outside to enter the the temperature is dropping rapidly, the temperature is displayed of church and file past the plain manobeing now in the neighborhood of gany casket containing the body of church and file past the plain mahothe dead humorist. In keeping with quite alarmed. the known sentiments of Mr. Clemens In several parts of the peninsula telegraph and telephone wires are on the subject of funeral pomp and show, there was to be no vocal music and no pallbearers. Two organ seleclections, brief prayers and the few

Chicago, Ill., April 23.—Chicago has words of eulogy were to constitute the been in the grasp of a heavy snow service.

and violent wind storm for several After the service the body was to be hours today, and there are no signs of placed on a train and taken to Elits abating. The snow followed one

Continued on Page Eleven. of the heaviest rainfalls of the year M'NULTY DIDN'T MAKE The wind was so strong during the night that it lifted the roof of a barn UP LIKE A ROMEO and dropped it on the cab of a passing

Consequently Julia Martell Couldn't See Him in Satisfactory Light. Miss Julia Martell, a rather pretty young woman, who told Magistrate Love that she had been in London Farmers of the London District Are since January last, was fined $10 or 21 days at the police court this morning, for using unbecoming language Farmers from the surrounding country who were on the market this to P. C. John McNulty, who evidently morning were very optimistic regard- didn't impress her as a Romeo. ing crop conditions and the outlook The young woman was driving around with some young men last "Fall wheat never looked better," night, and when they passed by the said one man to The Advertiser. The officer, Miss Martell made an insulting

Later when the party returned, she last year, eggs, butter, pork and beef are all fetching good prices, so it is little wonder the farmer wears the smile that won't come off.

About midnight P. C. McNulty found the girl rambling around the streets in a partly drunken condition, and as she could not, or would not, give any satisfactory account of herself, she was taken to the station. There she gave Ottawa, April 23. — This is hospital two names, Julia Martell and Mrs. tag day in Ottawa. Fifty thousand Rogers. This morning she said she tags were sold up to 10 o'click this used to be known as Mrs. Rogers, bemorning. The success so far has ex- cause she was living with a man of that name. She was unmarried.

With such remarkable selling in the "You can't talk to policemen the way early forenoon it is expected that tag you did, in this city," said the magisday will receipt $15,000, which amount trate. "Ten dollars or 21 days." Miss Martell took the days.

Fire did about $4,000 damage to the situated on the ground floor, and the stock and machinery of the Regal water poure in a deuge on their Glove and Mitt Company, Ryan & stock. The sike also filled the place, Russell, grocers, W. Stevely & Sons, and the pushable goods were comstoves, etc., and to the building at 360 plately descroyed.

Richmond street, shortly after eight Mr. Ryon estimated his loss at about o'clock last night. The cause of the $2,500—possibly more. fire is unknown. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

The fire was discovered at 8:20 by

The Regal Company suffered about $1.000 damage to their stock. Considerable material is water-soaked, but New York, April 23.—Funeral ser-ices, as simple as was his wholesome street. He happened to be passing building is also burned somewhat, but through the laneway at the rear of the loss will not exceed $500.

building, saw the flames and gave the

The department was on the store was flooded and the smoke also (Mark Twain), author, humorist, phil- scene in a hurry, and soon had many did some damage. The loss will not exceed $200. All losses are covered by insurance. Cause Not Known.

The cause of the fire is not known. his home at Redding, Conn., where he died to be taken to Elmira V V for Mr. Fred Riley, the proprietor of the The Brick Presbyterian Church at fire in the central portion, and to this Regal Company, is in Toronto. He left guished.

A Heavy Loss.

The heaviest loss suffered was that rooms on the second floor made it hard ture at Princeton University, and the Venerable Dr. Jos. H. Twitchell. of STILL EXTREMELY CRITICAL

The condition of Dr. John D. Wil-1 to the Soo. Only a few boats are out. Four hundred cards of invitation were is causing his friends a great deal of than he has been during the past 24 Culties the early pioneers experienced.

Born in New York.

Fire on Second Floor.

forceful streams. There was much

The fire was discovered to be on the

RED ROSE PROMINENT ON ST. GEORGE'S DAY

by Local Englishmen to Howard, of Christ Church. On Monday ture. evening a patriotic concert will be cot in the Tuberculosis Sanatorium.

[G. N. W. Despatch.] Cathedral tomorrow,

ROOSEVELT LECTURES

Celebration Will Be Transferred His Audience Includes All the Members of the French

the city today in honor of St. George's delivered a lecture on "Citizenship" He was a keen temperance advocate was on the staff of the Collegiate Inwas on the staff of the the city today in honor of St. George's delivered a lecture on "Citizenship" He was a keen temperature at the city today in honor of St. George's delivered a lecture on "Citizenship" He was a keen temperature at the first to enter Knox College and study for Pfohl, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Mr. Deacon has two sons and three to enter Knox College and study for Pfohl, Mr. and Mrs. John Mr. and Mrs. John Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. and Mrs. J. S. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. any kind in the local lodges, but to- audience was composed of all the daughters: John, of Beaconstield ave- the ministry. He is affectionately remorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock the members of the French cabinet, 900 nue, with whom he lived; George B., membered by his old pupils. Mr. members of many of the fraternal organizations will march in a body to St. Paul's Cathedral to hear a special members of the French cabinet, 900 nue, with whom he lived; George B., membered by his old pupils. Mr. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Sullivan, Mr. and of 47 Stanley street; Mrs. E. R. Newans, Wharneliffe road; Mrs. R. Blinn, Brick street, and Mrs. C. G. Jarvis, of day evening.

membered by his old pupils. Mr. Mr. and Mrs. F. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Vaegele, ans, Wharneliffe road; Mrs. R. Blinn, banquet of the First Church on Monand Mrs. John Driscoll, Mr. and Mrs.
George Mahaney Mrs.
and Mrs. John Driscoll, Mr. and Mrs.
George Mahaney Mrs.
and Mrs. George Mahaney Mrs. ans, Wharneliffe road; Mrs. C. G. Jarvis, of day evening. St. Paul's Cathedral to hear a special guests, by whom Theodore Roosevelt Grimsby. patriotic sermon by Rev. R. S. W. was regarded a most important fea- Dr. Ferguson, who was called, stated

In the course of his address, he made have lived to be 100, had he not met held in the city hall, and the proceeds reference to the subject of human with the accident. will be devoted towards furnishing a right and property rights in the following:

ed interests can be put into a few and was sinking fast. His death is ex-Montreal, April 23.—Englishmen in words. Every civilized society, propected to occur at any time. He has been unconscious ever since the accidence's Day, and the floral emblem guarded; ordinarily and in the great dent on Thursday afternoon. associated with the event is to be seen majority of cases, human rights and on all sides. No dinner will be held property rights are fundamentally and this year, but a smoker at St. George's in the long run, identical; but when it Home, not quite finished, will take its clearly appears that there is a real who confessed the theft of $65 from Very Rev. Dean Bidwell, of conflict between them, human rights the C. P. R. ticket office in Elmstead, Kingston, will preach the annual sermust have the upper hand; for propappeared in police court, and was montre mon of the society at Christ Church erty belongs to man, and not man to sent to St. John's Industrial School, Quebec Cathedral tomorrow.

| Toronto, for an indefinite period. | Father

GRAND OLD MAN AT DEATH'S DOOR

Sullers Terrible Fall at His Home in South London.

SKULL IS FRACTURED

of the Oldest Men in

Mr. Daniel Deacon, one of the best-The Regal Company suffered about known residents of South London, fell downstairs at the residence of his son Mr. J. R. Deacon, Beaconstield avenue on Thursday afternoon and sustained injuries from which he cannot possi-

His skull is crushed in at the back as the result of the fall, and Mr. Deacon has never regained consciousness His death is only the matter of a few A Remarkable Man.

Mr. Deacon is in his 94th year, but notwithstanding his great age, was as active as a man of 60, and was in the of taking long walks every day On Thursday afternoon about four o'clock he was going upstairs to get dressed for his afternoon walk when in some unaccountable way be slipped and fell backwards down the stair: Miss May Deacon, and she at once called a physician.
The case, however, is a hopeless one.

Attended Prayer Meeting. Mr. Deacon's wonderful activity was the marvel of all who knew him. Every day when the weather was fine he was which he was a member. He attended the recent "Made-in-Lendon" Exhibition. His memory was perfect, and cousy, about seven miles north had never known what it was to be

Came Here in 1874. He moved to the vicinity of Brick street about 1874, and lived there until twelve years ago, when he came to the city. He took a very active interest in the affairs of the Askin Street that as far as Mr. Deacon's general health was concerned he might easily The Latest. It was reported this afternoon that

"My position as regards the money- weaker than he was this morning

BOY STOLE $65. Windsor, April 23.-John Milligan,

DISCUSSED SUNDAY CAR QUESTION

Secrecy Being Maintained But It Is Said an Appeal Is To Be Made to the Railway Commission at Ottawa to See What Can Be Done in the Matter.

The operation of Sunday cars to will be done immediately to stop the Port Stanley tomorrow was the sub- cars, although the members felt very ject of a warm discussion at a meeting of the Lord's Day Alliance of the taken as soon as possible. city, held yesterday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. rooms.

day car matters were discussed, and stopped. every member present was instructed to preserve the utmost secrecy regardng what was done. It is learned, however, that nothing the matter, strongly that some action should be The matter will be discussed again shortly, and attempts will be made to

It is stated that nothing but Sun- have the running of ears on Sunday, In the meantime, it is said, the rail. way commission is being communicat.

A HEAD ENGINEER MAY NOT BE NAMED

It May Be That the Water Commissioners Will Select Man for Themselves.

The discussion on the advisability of a head engineer for London has reached the stage where less than half a dozen names are being considered, taken one way or the other.

and some definite action will now be There is no denying the fact that the uncertainty regarding this matter has somewhat disorganized the depart-

There is opposition brewing against the appointment of a head engineer, and it is not altogether certain that a man will be named. Some of the aldernien are in favor of allowing maters to remain as they are. would leave the water commissioners free to name a man to take charge of their work, and would allow the present engineering department to con-

EX-MAYOR DR. J. D. WILSON Whose Life Is Hanging in the Balance. Owing to an Attack of Blood-Poisoning.

LONDON MAN WON THE MEDAL IN PHILOSOPHY

He was found by his grand-daughter, M. M. Omond Distinguished Himself in Queen's University.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Kingston, April 23.—M. M. Omond, commissary, and John Maloney, base M. A. London, won the gold modal in senger agent of the Walash, will asout for long walks. On Wednesday be philosophy at the Queen's University attended the prayer meeting in the examinations, after one of the keenest Askin Street Methodist Church, of competitions. The medal is donated by the university and is greatly prized.

> The young man referred to is the son of of the gold medal is the fitting climax is a brother.
>
> "He was always at the head of his

THE WEATHER

TOMORROW-COLD; SNOW FLUR- Mrs. Donovan, Miss Donovan. RIES. FORECASTS. Toronto, April 23-8 a.m.

Today-Strong winds and gales, shifting west and north; showers today, turning beleet and snow tonight. Sunday-Strong winds and gales, west to north; cold, with local snowfalls TEMPERATURES.

 Stations.
 $ a.m.
 Min.

 Victoria
 60
 44

 Calgary
 68
 40

 Port Arthur.
 40
 18
 Stations. Waether

ed with to see what can be done in BUFFALO SENDS

BIG DELEGATION

Names of Those Who Will See the Consecration of Bishop Fallon on Monday.

SAID GOOD-BYE

New Provincial of the Oblates Accoma panied Him to This City-Buffalo Farewell

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Buffalo, N. Y., April 23.-Bishop€ elect Michael F. Fallon, accompanied This by the Rev. T. W. Smith, of Lowell, Mass., left yesterday afternoon for London, Ont., where he will be consecrated bishop of the London diocese in St. Peter's Cathedral on Monday, Father William J. Kirwin, who succeeds the bishop-elect as pastor of Holy Angels, went with the party as far as the train. Father Smith, pastor of the Church of the Sacred Heart of Lowell, succeeds the bishop-elect as provincial of the Order of Oblates of Mary Immaculate. After returning from a preparatory sojourn of ten days at the Scholasti-cate of the Oblate Fathers, at Tewkesbury, Mass., Dishop-elect Fallon spent a busy forenoon yesterday bidding parishioners and friends who called upon him an affectionate farewell. The bishop-elect took with him the beauecclesiastical robes presented by parishioners. These he will wear on Monday at the consecration ceremonial, which will be attended by one of the largest gatherings of ecclestas. ties and dignituries ever witnessed in anada at the consecration of Buffalo Represented.

Buffalo will be well represented at the consecration by a large delegation who will leave this city on Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, travelling over the Wabash in a solid electric-lighted Pullman train of eight cars, sumptuously furnished and specially equipped for this occasion. Every car will be of the finest Pullman workmanship. The club car will have barber, valet and all other conveniences for the men and there will be an observation car with maid and all conveniences for the women of the party. The remainder of the train will comprise state room and drawing room sleepers, and two floralv-decorated dining cars for the women, In short, this Puliman special will be a first-class hotel on wheels and will be at the disposal of the party while in London. Superintendent E. G. Kirk, of the Poliman Company, G. M. Hart, superintendent of cort the delegar

The Delegation.

The delegation from Ruffalo will in clude the Rt. Rev. Bishop Colton, the Rt. Rev. Rishop Hickey, of Rochester Monsigners Nelson H. Baker and A of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Omond, of 243 P. Connery, the Rev. William J. Kir-Oxford street. In his early schooldays win, of Holy Angel's: Father Shahan, "Dr. Wilson is better this afternoon than he has been during the past 24 "Born in New York."

The could go back through the long of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Omond, of 240 Oxford street. In his early schooldays he was a pupil at St. George's school, be was a p than he has been during the past 24 alarm.

Dr. George H. Wilson, his brother, states that his condition is very serious at the present time.

"He is in a very critical condition," said he to The Advertiser. "We have not been able not given up hope yet, but we are quite alarmed."

The improvement in his condition is encouraging. We have not been able not given up hope yet, but we are quite alarmed."

The improvement in his condition is encouraging. We have not been able to do so."

The improvement in his condition is encouraging. We have not been able to do so."

The improvement in his condition is encouraging. We have not been able to do so."

The improvement in his condition is encouraging. We have not been able to locate the abscess, but are hopeful of being able to do so."

The improvement in his condition is encouraging. We have not been able to locate the abscess, but are hopeful of the physicians hours, "said another of the physicians in charge. "He is critically ill, but the collegiate, and was known as a student at the collegiate, and was known as a student at the collegiate, and was known as a student at the collegiate, and was known as a student at the collegiate, and was known as a student the collegiate, and was known as a student at the collegiate, and was known as a student at the collegiate, and was known as a student at the collegiate, and was known as a student at the collegiate, and was known as a student at the collegiate, and was known as a student at the collegiate, and was known as a student at the collegiate, and was known as a student at the collegiate, and was known as a student at the collegiate, and was known as a student at the collegiate, and was known as a student at the collegiate, and was known as a student at the collegiate, and was known as a student at the collegiate, and was known as a student at the collegiate, and was known as a student at the collegiate, and was known as a student at the collegiate, and was known as a student at the collegiate, and was known as a student cousy, about seven miles north of where Brampton now stands. With the exception of an attack of smallpox, when he was 5 years old, Mr. Deacon is a brother.

The following the miles north of the gold medal is the utting climax. Summers, John Hagan, Dr. L. J. Hingley, J. W. Ryan, Giovanni Banchetti, Omond, the druggist, of Dundas street.

W. Killeen, Mark Packard, L. S. Kritten and Comment. Kurtzmann, Thomas Dooley, Thomas "He was always at the head of his class at school," said City Clerk Baker.

C. A. Muldoen, M. O'Brien, M. Mc. C. A. Muldoen, M. O'Brien, M. Mc-Groder, J. Naber, Dr. Cogan, T. V. Ray, S. A. Allen, Thomas F. Crowley Thomas Kavany, R. O'Keefe, J. T. Sunday.

Cabinet.

Cabinet Donald, Orson Yaeger, W. P. Coigan, William H. Fitzpatrick, Michael Dan-E. G. Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Jones, Miss Gertrude Maloney, Mrs. Vogel, Mrs. Weir, Miss Weir, Miss Marion, Miss Hoff, Miss Sauer, Miss W. Smith, Mrs. Donovan, Miss Donovan, Miss Abrams, Miss Crowley, Miss Hickey, Miss Coyle and Miss McGee. The special train will be the home of the delegation from the time they depart until they return on Monday,

SNOW IN CHICAGO BALL GAME POSTPONED

Chicago, April 23.-The game bed tween the Chicago and Cincinnat teams in the National League, scheduled to be played here this afternoon has been postponed on account of