REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FINE FARMS FOR SALE IN THE NEW Garden of Canada—Central British Columbia, along the new Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, a new and rich country for progressive men. The Fraser and Nechaeo River Valleys offer unequalled opportunites to the intending settler and the investor. Prices of lands according to the investor. Prices of lands one year some protest these lands have since doubled in value. You have the same opportunity today, but it will not be for long. The country is fast settling up, and in a short time selected farms, such as we offer, will command very high prices. Why not share in these profits? Central British Columbia enjoys the finest climate in Canada; the soil is very fertile; plenty of rain for all farming purposes; crops of all kinds can be raised. We have samples of grains and grasses grown in these valleys this year, which are the equal of any grown anywhere. You can see them at our offices. The fishing and hunting are unexcelled. Call at our offices for particulars regarding our proposition, which may prove to be the opportunity you are looking for. Prices are low and terms easy. If you cannot call write for fulf-information. NORTH MIDDLESEX GOES CONSERVATIVE

Duncan Macarthur Held Seat by Small Majority Compared With Previous Vote.

[Special to the Advertiser.] Parkhill, Dec. 11. — Duncan Mace arthur, of Allsa Craig, was today elected as Conservative member for this riding by a majority of 37 over Mr. John Grieve, of Parkhill, the Liberal candidate. The contest was close ceptionally well in nearly every divi-sion, with the exception of Strathroy, sion, with the exception of Strathroy, where Mr. Macarthur made gains, sufficient to turn the tide in his favor. However, the Liberal candidate had the satisfaction of reducing the normal majority of over 206 in a gestymandered constituency to 37, a most creditable run, indeed. Where he was most favorably known, in the townships of East and West Williams, and in Parkhill, he polled very large votes. Had the weather been more satisfactory he would have won. tory he would have won.
