THREE HOMERS AND TRIPLE BRANTS FAIL TO FEATURE TECS' 16 HITS

Score 10--1 Win Over Beavers To End Series Here, Reis Piling Up Another Good Win.

UST as Hump Pierce's elongated hurler, Kieffer, was working along on a one-run margin that looked slender but strong enough to bear the strain, the men of Wetzel, with two of their number already vetoed, unloosed an attack in the fifth on the unsuspecting but hard-toiling Beavers saw successive homers by Schaefer and Mackey following Butler's warning triple and five runs chase across in that frame, three more in the next, one tally in the seventh, and Gadsby blaze away with the third homer of the pastime in the eighth, just a second after the Beavers had cleared the paths with a double play. It was the hardest bombardment of the season, with the possible exception of the memorable affray Ernie Calbert's Hams staged when the season was but young and the locals a motley, inexperienccatch of the year. He sprinted to get under Burrell's fly, and, turning round to find he was short, leaped and stabbed the flying sphere with one hand, holding it intact after he had completed two somersaults. In fact, up to this tragic fifth, Kieffer had frowned down the London attempts at swatting, and though three were recorded, two of them were Spectacular Smash-Up Also Provides Thrills On Grand Circuit.

HARTFORD, Conn. Sept. 5.—Small fields started in the opening day's grand circuit races at Charter Oak Park this alternoon, but two of the three events furnished plenty of excitement and an additional thrill was contributed by a spectacular smash-up. Lon McDonald furnished an upset when he drove King Watts to victory over Bill Sharon and the Great Volo, favored in the 2:08 trot. and Pluto Watts, a full brother of King Watts, raced to an expected victory in the 2:10 trot. Edith Worthy won the 3-year-old trot in a duel with Suavity. Driver Fred Edman was knocked from his sulky when he was turning Tallahatchie for the score in the first heat of the 2:10 trot by Peter Earl. champion 3-year-old, with Nat Ray in the sulky. Ray was giving Peter Earl a workout and was coming down the stretch at a lively clip when the horses in the 2:10 trot turned for the score. He attempted to cut through, but Peter Earl cashed into Edman, knocking him to the track unconscious and hurling Ray into the air. Neither driver was seriously hurt.
