

TWENTY-ONE DEAD IN COAST STORMS

Two Devastating Windstorms
Strike Atlantic Coast, Bringing Disaster and Death.

DAMAGE IS GREAT

Associated Press Despatch.
New York, Oct. 25.—Two devastating windstorms struck the Atlantic coast states today, resulting in at least 21 deaths and heavy damage to homes and shipping.

In Pike and Barbour counties, Alabama, a tornado sweeping in from the Texas coast killed sixteen persons, injured more than a score and levelled dozens of homes.

The second storm, roaring in from the Atlantic, passed from the Maryland and Delaware coasts through New York and into New England.

Of Rockaway Point, New York, two fishermen were drowned, and another fatality was reported from Wolburn, where 500 houses were damaged and the town thrown into darkness. National guardsmen were flled out to protect property from looters.

In Baltimore, seventeen navy seamen assembled for manoeuvres in connection with the Schneider cup seaplane races, broke from their moorings. Seven of them were completely wrecked, and the others badly damaged.

An expectant mother in New York city was pulled out of a window when the wind twisted a clothesline around her. She was killed, and the child died after a caesarian operation had been performed.

The wind in New York is said to have attained a velocity of 55 miles an hour. Trans-Atlantic liners were delayed by buffeting seas and smaller shipping along the coast was left in tangled confusion as the wind passed.

SEAPLANES WRECKED.

Associated Press Despatch.
Baltimore, Md., Oct. 25.—Seventeen of 23 United States seaplanes, here for a navy pageant tomorrow, broke from their moorings near Solers Point in a 75-mile gale today, and were strewn along a five-mile stretch of beach tonight. Another plane, moored off Bay Shore Park, tore free and disappeared.

Seven of the derelict planes were total wrecks when found. Hopes were held out that the other ten might be partially salvaged.

Commander T. G. Ellison, in charge of the squadron, said only the six which held their moorings would be able to take part in the pageant. Ellison is scheduled to precede the Schneider cup race at Bay Shore park. Two of three pursuit planes moored at Bay Shore park rode out the storm and were safe tonight. No report had been received regarding the whereabouts of the third. It pitched out of sight on the bay, riding a high running sea.

No Let Up Seen In Bad Weather

Unsettled Condition To Continue Indefinitely, Says Bureau.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Toronto, Oct. 24.—The unsettled condition of the weather, which has prevailed practically since September 21, will continue for some time, said Sir Frederick Stuart, chief of the weather bureau, today. He added: "We have had a most unusual season of autumn cold. I think it is many years since the main temperatures have been as low as they have since September 20."
