EUROPEAN AFFAIRS.

The Danish question seems by latest reports to be unchanged since our last European review. Nothing of importance so far has resulted from the Conference, and it would appear that but little satisfaction can be expected. Both Austria and Prussia refuse to send representatives until the Danish Government has agreed to certain preliminary conditions. The Danish Government has refused to do so, and the Conference has adjourned until the 1st of June. It is generally expressed belief that before any concerted action can be decided upon by the Great Powers, Denmark, as an independent monarchy, will have ceased to exist. The opinion of England is gradually shifting towards the necessity of vigorous action on the part of the British Government, and the Emperor of Austria is also inclined to support the Danish Government. LIBERTY IN THE ISLE OF MAN.

The following account from a London paper of the extraordinary action of the Manx Legislature will be, no doubt, interesting to our readers. We will give the remarkable similarity between the case of Douglas and that of Victoria in the intellectual attempt to obtain proper municipal power from the petty Parliament, with its amusing assumption of dignity. The Manx Legislature, which is only a few miles from the coast of Ireland, has recently passed a resolution to elect a body to be known as the Manx Council. This body is to be composed of members elected by the people of the island, and is to have the power of electing a Mayor and a Corporation.
