STANLEY SAVER

Very gratifying indeed, is the news published yesterday morning that Stanley, when last heard from, was alive and well. He had been in the hands of the Indians for some time, and had been treated with great kindness. He had been in the hands of the Indians for some time, and had been treated with great kindness. THE BEARING'S SEA OUTRAGE.

The United States authorities are continuing their outrage upon international law and ordinary justice. In making the seizures mentioned in our dispatch yesterday morning they have been entirely in accordance with the provisions of the act according to Secretary Bayard, who has spoken in no uncertain tones upon the matter. It is only natural that the British government should demand reparation from the United States for the wrongs they have caused to be inflicted upon the British subjects.

THE LOSS OF THE SEABIRD.

As misleading statements have been published concerning the loss of the Seabird, the government with reference to the loss of the schooner Seabird, we propose to set the public right upon the matter. The attention of the government was first called to the loss of the vessel and the uncertain fate of the crew in March last, but at that time, as we have already pointed out, there was nothing upon which to base a suspicion of foul play. Enquiries were, however, set on foot, and the result was that the attention of the government was first called to the loss of the vessel and the uncertain fate of the crew in March last, but at that time, as we have already pointed out, there was nothing upon which to base a suspicion of foul play.

THE CHINA STEAMERS AND VICTORIA.

Mr. Van Horn's report, if not satisfactory, is in Friday's Colonist has knocked the last prop away from the faith of those who expressed (if they had not been already) the belief that the Chinese steamers would call at Victoria or the northern ports of the province.
