committee.

A very long discussion followed as to the best course to pursue. It was resolved to discharge the committee. Then came another long discussion as to the next step, the petitioners, through Mr. Macleod, asking that immediate steps be taken to bring their case to an issue.

Several members of the Presbytery pointed out that the law of the church must be obeyed, and that the sessions interested who had been cited to appear in the afternoon had to receive fresh notices of ten days, and that no meeting of the Presbytery could be held until the lat Tuesday in September, and that it would be unwise to call a pro re nata meeting sooner. ADDITIONAL polling places in several electoral districts are established by proclamation in the official Gazstte of yesterday's date as follows: In South Victoria—Schoolhouse, Strawberry Vale. Cariboo—Post office, Alexis Creek, Chilcotincountry. South riding West Kootensy—Waneta; 15-Mile house, Kaslo wagon road; Three Forks, and Duncan. West riding Lilloost—John Currie's house, Pemberton Meadows. Westminster, riding of Delta—Westham island. Westminster, riding of Bichmond—Trevor's store, Nelson island. In the North riding of Yale, the polling places at M. Sullivan's house, North Thompson river, and at James Fullarton's store, Stump lake, are discontinued, and the following additional polling places for the district are proclaimed: School house, North Thompson river; Noble's house, North Thompson river; Smith's store, Louis creek; C. P. R. office, Griffin lake; Bulman's house, Stump lake; court house, Nicola lake; post office, Douglas lake. In the North riding of West Kootenay the polling place at Lardeau is discontinued, and one is established at Thompson's Landing. could be held until the let Tuesday in September, and that it would be unwise to call a pro re nata meeting sconer.

Nearly two hours were spent in trying to arrive at some conclusion that would meet the wishes of the petitioners as well as comply with the law of the church and protect the interests of the sessions previously cited. It was suggested to call a meeting of a new committee to meet in Nanaimo on the 10th of July, but this too was found impracticable.

Ultimately it was resolved on motion to appoint a committee consisting of the moderator (Rev. Mr. Macrae, Nanaimo), Mr. Rogers, Mr. Alex. Shaw and Rev. Alex. Tait to meet at Nanaimo on the day previous to the ordinary meeting of Presbytery in September next, and to report their findings to the Presbytery on the following day. The usual power was given to this committee to investigate the matter referred to in the petition, and that the clerk be instructed to cite all parties interested.

The Presbytery was adjourned to meet at Nanaimo in September, the Moderator pronouncing the benediction at 1 a.m.

A ROMANCE in the lives of two young people came to light in Seattle yesterday. According to the Seattle Telegraph, Norman H. Randall and Miss Olive Ketchum were married secretly in one of the Episcopal churches here on the 28th of August, 1890, and since that auspicious moment the secret of the wedding has been carefully and successfully kept from their most intimate outside friends. But two persons in Seattle besides the contracting parties were aware of the occurrence, and they were the mother and sister of the young lady. Perhaps the knowledge of the affair might have been kept secret for a long time yet, had the reasons for keeping it quiet at all continued to London, June 21.—G. P. Mills completed day his bicycle ride from Land's End to hin O'Grost's. His time was 3 days, 5 ars, 49 minutes. From Land's End to with he had wet weather and heavy roads. W. Shoreland, F. T. The Vancouver Dominion Day celebration programme cannot yet be obtained, but it has been learned that owing to the delay in the arrival of accountments the military camp will not take place, though the Victoris and local companies, it is expected, will turn out, making four companies in all, and drill and parade as last year. The Navy will give a street parade in which 1,000 men will take part; the firemen will hold their tournament on the bituminous rock pavement on the forenoon of the first day; the sailing races will be held on Monday, and the aquatic sports on Tuesday. Speaking of aquatics, a member of the Vancouver senior four-pared orew states that the James Bay quartette knocked the conceit so clean out of them, that if the same gentlemen go over to contest the senior races with them, they very much fear the laurels they have held so long will be matched from their brow—but that they had not been idle and will put up a good race.

clouds were seen approaching from the southwest and the water was rising at the rate of an inch an hour, causing people to remove their furniture in some parts of the city. Between four and five o'clock the storm burst and people had to run for shelter, for half an hour such a storm raging as few people had seen. Sand, lumber, tin cans, light stoves and everything moveable whirled about, and all who possibly could sought shelter. The Adams House caught fire, but it was soon extinguished. On the lake the storm raged, waves were running from five to ten feet high, and about this time Mr. and Mrs. McGregor, who had been in a boat to a friend's house on the lake front, were struck by the full force of the storm, and in a moment the boat was upset, Mrs. McGregor being swept away. Between 4 and 5 o'clock in the height of the storm all the houses below Third street were swept away, and the wharf, which cost about $8,000, was soon seen to be destroyed. It is impossible to estimate exactly the damage done. A low estimate of the loss would seem to be $100,000. A hundred people or more having small houses which they could live in rent free, are now without a home and have lost their all.

Then Wriglesworth amashed the ball for two bases, Schultz scoring and Partidge going to third. Gouge made his third hit of the day, Partidge crossed the plate, and the spectators were wild with excitement as the prospects of the Victorians pulling the game out of the fire were within the bounds of realization. Wriglesworth attempted to make home on Gouge's hit, but cast one fatal glance over his shoulder at the whereabouts of the ball, which was responsible for the tieing run failing to materialize. Wriglesworth was caught as the plate by the throw from the field, and the crowd in hushed suspense awaited Umpire Edward's decision. The numpire called the runner out, thus closing the finest, closest and most brilliant contest that has ever taken place here. The game was further characterized by an absence of all loud coaching, the captains of the two teams having agreed to suppress anything tending to awaken a display of feeling—and the result was a gentlemanly, manly exhibition of America's great pastime, which aroused the unbounded and impartial entousiasm of all spectators. Nor were the players alone entitled to credit; the unpiring of Mr. Edwards, who had more than one close decision, was faultless. The visitors agree that more prompt or accurate decisions they have never known; and certain it is that the Victoria boys can say the same.

To have given up the refugees would have been, in his opinion, their surrender to immediate slaughter, without the protection of law or the formalities of a trial. In other words, he exercised that privilege of asylam which is based simply on considerations of humanity. The establishment of a firm government and the restoring of peace and the due process of law in Salvador seem likely to be followed by surrendering the Bennington's refugees to the new government. Meanwhile the chief care of Commander Thomas probably is to see that they do not escape from his ship, for the experience of Portugal in that respect has conveyed a warning likely to be heeded.

MURDERED BY INDIANS.

Washington, June 20.—The state department, several days ago, received a report from the vice-consul at Juayamas, Mexico, that two Americans, said to be R. E. L. Robinson, of Texas, and James Logan, of Louisiana, had been murdered by Ceris Indians on Tiburon, one of the Shark islands, in the Gulf of California, about 100 miles above Guayamas. These men had embarked on a ten ton hoop at Yums, and were exploring along the gulf. Two of the party went ashore on Shark island to hunt deer. The Indian natives at first made friendly advances, but afterwards shot them, and the two survivors made their way to Guayamas and reported the fact. Acting Secretary Uhl at once telegraphed the consul's statement of the affair to Minister Gray, directing him to take immediate steps before the proper authorities, and, if the statements were true, to demand the punishment of the murderers. Minister Gray yesterday acknowledged the receipt of the instructions, and is presumably acting in the matter.
