A perfectly constructed Summer and Winter Hotel, costing a quarter of a million dollars, situated on the line of the Canadian Pacific Railway, near the summit of the Rocky Mountains in the Canadian National Park.

The house is electric lighted, and has every comfort and convenience found in city hotels of the highest grade. The numerous hot sulphur springs in close proximity vary in temperature from 80 to 121 degrees, and perfect bathing facilities are supplied. Testimony to the wonderful curative properties of the waters is plentiful. A first class livery of driving and saddle horses forms part of the establishment, and there are excellent roads and walks in all directions, built and maintained by the Governtions, built and maintained by the Govern-ment. The house is 5,000 feet above sea ment. The house is 5,000 feet above sea level and is surrounded by magnificent mountain peaks 5,000 to 8,000 feet high. In grandeur of scenery and purity of atmosphere the region is immeasurably superior to any similar health resort on the continent. The hotel rates are from $3.50 a day upward, and special terms for longer time may be had by addressing GEORGE HOLLIDAY, MANAGER, Banff, Alberta, Canada. We have first-class talent and an Immense Stock for our customers to select from. You can have your choice of over 1000 Pieces of New Tweeds, etc., etc., all bought from first hands so that no Middleman's Profit is added to the price of any garment.

The Sacque Coat, single-breasted, is still the form of coat for he million. Above all others, this is the business suit. It is worn as a loose, easy garment, is of moderate length. It is made to close with one, two or three buttons, but the two buttons is the new style, cut away well in front from the second button. A wide latitude is permitted in the selection of materials. Tweeds, rough and smooth-faced, Donegal stripes and Bannockburn checks, worsteds, silk mix-tures, etc., etc., so that all tastes meet on one common platform.

Then there is the Double-breasted Sacque for winter wear. This is both comfortable and fashionable and recommends itself by its suitability to theseason: it has an air of warmth and comfort about it.

When coats and vests are made different from trousers other fabrics than tweeds will be in request. Such as Naps, Chinchillas and Angolas. Pearl Buttons, Cord Edges and Velvet Collars will be rominent features.
