Kentville Advertiser: Mrs. VanBlarcom and daughter, of Brighton, Digby Co., have been spending a couple of weeks in town, guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wyman.

Word has been received here that Lieut. Bevis W. Turnbull, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eeber Turnbull, has been severely wounded and is in the General Hospital at St. Omer, France.

A paper has been circulated, signed by the principal Digby merchants, agreeing to close their places of business every Thursday afternoon, during the summer season, commencing May 2nd.

M. T. E. G. Lynch, and Conn. E. M. Robertson, have returned from Digby Neck, where they have been in the interests of the Military Y. M. C. A., appointing committees in the different towns and villages. They were very much pleased with the cordial reception received at each place, and the intense interest the people of Digby Neck are taking in this work.

Charles W. Grenier passed away Friday afternoon, aged 78 years. He formerly lived in Quebec, but came to Nova Scotia twenty-three years ago as a French Missionary, sent by the Grand Ligne Mission and settled in Weymouth. He retired from active work about ten years ago, and for the last five years has made his home in Digby. He is survived by his widow and one adopted son, Edward Grenier, of Weymouth, one sister, Mrs. J. N. Douglas, of Toronto; one brother, Mr. Seraphine Grenier, of Troy, N. Y.

The funeral took place Monday morning with interment in the Methodist cemetery at Digby.

William P. Ward, (colored) wanted in Boston, Mass., for a very serious crime, was arrested in Weymouth, on Monday, by Constable Langford, upon order of Superintendent of Emigration, Ottawa, as an undesirable alien. The prisoner was brought to Digby, Tuesday, and lodged in jail. Inspector Blanchet, of Montreal, arrived in Digby on Wednesday, via St. St. Express, returning to St. John in the afternoon, with Ward. The prisoner will be taken to Vaneboro, and handed over to a Boston officer, who will be in waiting there. Constable Langford deserves much praise in his capture of this criminal.

Died in New Jersey

The death of Mrs. Annie M. Sullivan, of Carney's Point, N. J., took place on April 1st, at a private hospital in Hillington, Delaware, where she had been recently taken. Mrs. Sullivan had suffered three years with diabetes, but bore up bravely until the end.

Mrs. Sullivan was the wife of John G. Sullivan, son of the late James Sullivan, of Freeport, N. S., and the daughter of the late John H. Fisher, of 227 St. James Street, St. John, N. B. Interment was made in the Baptist cemetery, Federicktown, N. J.

She leaves to mourn their sad loss a husband, one sister, Mrs. John B. Jones, of St. John, two brothers and four other relatives, including Ratus B., Sackville. Previous to the war he was in the drug business in Annapolis, N. S.

Death of James F. Elliott

LAWRENCETOWN

There will be meeting in the Methodist vestry on Friday evening at 7.30 and in the church on Sunday evening, at the same hour. Both on new time.

A very successful Mission Band was held in the Methodist vestry on Sunday afternoon. The new officers were appointed and the mite boxes were opened. An encouraging sum was realized and more is to come in.

Rev. O. P. Brown gave a very interesting talk in the hall on Monday evening to encourage the farmers of Clements vale and elsewhere to raise as large crops as possible this season.

For Teachers and Trustees.

Induced by the larger salaries paid, a larger number of teachers, than ever, are planning on going West this summer. Many of these would stay, if proper salaries were paid. In the year 1917-1918, the average salary paid to B Female teachers in Nova Scotia was $289.65. The average salary paid the same year in Annapolis County was $232.55, this not including grant. As these B teachers were almost all engaged in the valley, it shows that the valley was paying almost $50.00 below the average salary. This is something of which our valley should be ashamed. Instead of paying $50.00 below the average, the valley should pay $50.00 above the average.

During the coming year, the average salary for B teachers in Nova Scotia will be over $300. If our school trustees could pay $350 to their teachers, half of those now going West would remain with us. If trustees do not rise to the emergency there will be many schools without teachers the coming year. Trustees should not delay in engaging their teachers.

If no suitable applications haven't been received, they should advertise at once, offering a proper salary. A teacher that offers to come at a low salary should not be considered as it shows the low value they place on their own worth. If teachers are engaged before the annual meeting, the trustees can then properly estimate the amount it is necessary for the ratepayers to vote to support a school for the ensuing year.

Have you engaged your teacher? If not, place an advertisement in your local paper at once. A large number of the best teachers are already engaged for the ensuing year.

M. C. FOSTER, Inspector of Schools.

Yarmouth Fishing Notes

[Yarmouth Telegram]

The Digby schoer, Dorothy G., arrived in port on Wednesday, after a number of her crew, who had been stricken down with the grippe, returned on the banks. Capt. Show, who has been in port for men to relieve the sick crew, and sailed again last evening. The schooner hailed for about 10,000 lbs. of mixed fish, of which she landed a few bags ago at Lockport; Frances A., 2,000 lbs. of mixed; Nelson A., 2,000 lbs. of mixed; and 4,000 mixed. On Thursday morning, Mr. Amiro made a shipment of 12,000 lbs. of halibut by express to the Boston market.

The schr. Dawn, another of Mr. Amiro's fleet, which has been tied up at Public during the past winter for the fisheries, Capt. Dan D'Entremont will be in charge of this vessel.

The Gateway Co.'s schr. Lucy A., which went out on Tuesday evening on her first trip, returned to port on Wednesday, having broken her mainmast head in the gale that day.

Mr. E. B. Smith, of Port Laforet, one of the leading wholesale fish merchants on the South Shore, was in Yarmouth Thursday and returned Friday morning.

Vessels arriving during the past few days report poor fishing on the grounds this week. There were few arrivals Thursday, all with very light catches as follows:

At the Gateway Co., the schr. Ohio, Hecaway and Lucy A., each had about 1,900 lbs. of halibut and 7,000, 6,000 and 4,000 lbs. of shuck respectively.

At the N. Y. and Yarmouth Co. wharf the Buema had 12,000 lbs. of shuck and the S. B. Millard 3,000.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited. Gentlemen,—I had my leg badly hurt, the pain was very severe and a large swelling came above the knee. I expected it would be serious—I rubbed it with MINARD'S LINIMENT, which stopped the pain and reduced the swelling very quickly. I cannot speak too highly of MINARD'S LINIMENT. AMOS T. SMITH. Port Hood Island.

Schr. Eskimo, owned by Herbert Hicks, of Clementsport, and which has been lying in the Joggins during the winter, was taken to Clementsport last week to be fitted up for the season's work.

Married at Victoria Beach.

The marriage of Vesta L. Foley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McGrath, to Orbin Everett, took place at Victoria Beach, on Wednesday evening, April 10th. Rev. Isaac Brindley performed the ceremony. The bride looked very charming in a gown of white silk with shadow lace and satin ribbon trimming. After the ceremony, the guests, who numbered sixty, repaired to the dining room, where a nice collation was served. The remainder of the evening was spent in music, singing and games. They received a large number of useful presents. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful piano suit was of pearl grey cloth, with button trimming and a white satin hat with ostrich feather trimming. We wish the happy couple a long and happy wedded life.

New Parsonage at Hantsport

The Baptist congregation at Hantsport has purchased the beautiful residence owned by Gordon Churchill, for a parsonage. This house adjoins the church, and there is probably no finer Baptist parsonage in Nova Scotia. The church will take possession on the first of June. The church had obliged itself to buy a lot adjoining Mayor Sterling's store and intended to build thereon, but Mr. Sterling kindly released the church from its obligation. The new Baptist minister, Rev. L. H. Crandall, has arrived from Bear River, his former pastorate, and is meeting with much success here.

Capt. Medley Bienthorn, of Parraboro, who was among Friday's guests at the St. James Hotel, Bridgetown, has purchased from Herbert Hicks, Clementsport, the schooner Mercedes, now in winter quarters at that port and will take her to Parraboro to engage in the coasting trade. The Mercedes hails from Weymouth and was purchased by Mr. Hicks several years ago. We than her had with one of the Melanson fleet out of St. Mary's Bay and the schooner Cora B. from St. John, both of which were wrecked.
