

LATEST IN FURS.

The Russian sable in the most most costly of all furs, not ever excluding the silver fox. Joseph Rogers has in stock some very beautiful boas of this rare fur, so soft and fine in its rich brown shades that all others look coarse beside it.

These boas are flat, with collar shaped to the neck, and are finished with natural tails and claws. They range in price from $100 to $500. The firm show a very beautiful one at the latter price. It is worth while seeing such furs, even though they are beyond the purse of all except the richest.

The firm show also some very stylish ripple capes, as shown in cut. These capes have a circle sweep in width and are made of seal, sable or any fashionable fur. These capes are about 20 inches in length, and when of seal contain as much as three skins. The collar is the popular Medici. The capes have inner pockets of chamois, which is more durable than satin.

The latest ladies' jacket shown by J. Rogers is the Elba (see cut). It is exceedingly stylish, with Newmarket back and double front. Sleeves very full and narrowing to cuff width at the wrist. The collar is made with revers smaller than those in vogue at the beginning of the season. The coat is made from 26 to 30 inches in length.

The newest thing in collars has not yet appeared in the firm's catalogue, but is in stock. It is a deep collar pointed to the depth of 12 inches at back, and 15 in front, with full ripples on the shoulders. It is made of sable or Persian lamb. A very pretty one shown is of moire Persian lamb with sable border.

The firm's stock of furs is well worth examining.

BUSINESS OFFICE AND PRINTING DEPARTMENT:

Rear Building, Manning Arcade, Toronto.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE:

$1.00 Per Year; Single Copies 10 Cents.

YOUNG LADIES

Who desire to increase their pocket money should write to the HOME JOURNAL and obtain information from their Circulation Department. No young man or young woman who is desirous of improving themselves should be deterred from making at least a trial experiment. No one can lose anything, all are certain at least to make money. There is no competitive element in the plan; to all we allow a generous commission whether you secure one subscriber or a thousand.

We regret that there are still a few of our subscribers who have suffered delay in receiving their numbers of the CANADIAN HOME JOURNAL. We have changed our mailing arrangements and are making especial efforts to secure sure and prompt delivery of the JOURNAL to every subscriber. The date of publication will hereafter be the 25th of each month, and subscribers not receiving their JOURNAL by the first of the month, or, in case of distance, within a few days following, will oblige us by promptly notifying us of the fact by card addressed to the business office, which is now moved to the Manning Arcade. Subscribers will oblige us by giving their name and address in full, also date of subscription.

Any communications should be addressed CANADIAN HOME JOURNAL, not HOME JOURNAL, in order to avoid confusion with other publications somewhat similar in title.

We are securing a number of good canvassers, who are doing successful work both in the city and outside; but there is still a large number of towns and villages uncovered. The commission offered is very liberal, and remains the same whether one subscription or twenty be secured. To canvass for the CANADIAN HOME JOURNAL is easy and pleasant work, since the newspapers throughout the country have appreciated our efforts and given us cordial support by their approving words. The JOURNAL is becoming rapidly known, and only needs to be brought under the personal notice of every home keeper, or head of household, to be at once taken in as a regular visitor.

In order to further encourage Canadian women and girls to secure subscriptions, we offer a bicycle, of the best quality and make, to the one—boy or girl, man or woman—who secures the largest number of subscriptions over one hundred between Jan. 1st and June 1st, 1896. This is in addition to the usual commission on each subscription. This is a splendid chance to obtain a bicycle free of cost, at a season when the possession of one will afford most enjoyment.

The offer is genuine, a liberal commission on each subscription, and for the largest number obtained over one hundred—a bicycle, of the best quality and make.

Remember the time allowed is full six months, extending from January 1st to June 1st.

Write to the Business Manager for subscription and details.

Concerning the woman's work reports, we have again to thank the secretaries and presidents for their kindly interest and prompt response to our request.

A copy of the JOURNAL is forwarded to each society reporting; where the name of the corresponding secretary is attached, as we prefer, the magazine is addressed directly to her.

SCHOLARSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT.

FREE COMMERCIAL OR SHORTHAND INSTRUCTION.

The Home Journal Publishing Company (Ltd.) have completed arrangements with the proprietors of the Wells' Business College, one of the leading commercial educational institutions of Toronto, whereby they are enabled to offer a three months' course of instruction in either the Commercial or Shorthand Departments of this successful college, free of charge, to every young lady or gentleman who will take the trouble to secure twenty (20) new subscribers for the HOME JOURNAL, Canada's favorite family magazine. This is undoubtedly the most liberal offer ever made by the publishers of a Canadian periodical, and there is no reason why at least one person in each locality should not succeed in obtaining one of these scholarships. By adopting this plan we expect to add many thousands of new subscribers to our lists.

This offer is open until June 1st next, which gives ample time to secure the necessary number, but there is no reason why any person with a little persistence should not take sufficient names in a week. If you wish further information regarding the college, —which is the oldest of its kind in Toronto, having been established over eleven years—write the Business Manager of the JOURNAL, Manning Arcade, Toronto.

Negotiations are now pending with one of the Conservatories of Music for a contract, and we hope to be able to announce next month that those who prefer it may have a MUSICAL instead of a Commercial Scholarship.
