abore the sea level, and which offers on all sides beautiful and varied prospecies. Powards the west is extended the open sen; to the south spread fertile planes, reaching as far as Gaza, towards the north, as far as Carmol, flowery me never, as far as Carmol, flowery medds of Sharon present thomselves; and to the east the hills of Ephraim and Judah raise their towering heads. They to the city are numerous delicious fragrant gardens, and orange and fragrant gardens, and orange and from groves, and the white walls of no city shine out through the deep green foliage. Its present population is about fifteen thousand, according to Dr. Thompson, the author of The I and and the Book.

A Railway is projected for connecting Joppa with Jerusalom. The company which is interested in the undertaking has received the concession from the Sultan under the condition that the railway be completed before the ex-piration of three, years and that the harhor of Joppa be improved by a secure pier. This railway would bring the visitor, going by steam via Marseilles, Genca, Trieste, Joppa, in an easy journey of a few hours to the Holy City. This suggests the hope that on the one haud Jerusalem would become the emperium of active traffic and the seat of venedicial intercommunication; and, of the other land, Joppa would become accessible and an easily well-frequented place of resort: and both places would regain the position to which they are so folly ontitled.

On Mission School at Joppa, conducted by Miss Baldwin, assisted by several teachers, is deserving of and should receive a generous and hearty support. Laivii of Missions.

IT MAY JONCERA YOU .- How far this It May Jonesia You.—How far this applies to any clergyman in the Dominion we profess not to say. The Now York Church Union quotes the American Presbyterian; the latter says: Though the sentiment of the church is against ministers having any practical knowledge of business, it is a notorious fact that they are compelled to be the financiers of the church throughout the land. If a church is built, and ever paid for, the minister has not only to secure, but disburse the funds: for Bourds of Trustees and, with few exceptions, notorious the minister has not only to secure, but disburse the funds: for Boards of Trustees are, with few exceptions, notoriously inefficient and oftener plunge churches into hopeless debt than free them from it, so that two-thirds of our ministers are compelled to handle through life money enough, in trust to, stock a bank, and almost the entire wealth of the church has to be handled by the men whom public sentiment would deprive of all preparation for their inevitable work." Then again: "The modern sentiment on this subject entails great loss on both the church and ministry. Business ability, through education and experience in the ministry, does not secularize, but gives immense power as Dr. Guthric tostifies and his life work is stronger than his word. My people were all the better of the knowledge of buciness I had acquired in the back; and every minister would be immensely better fitted for his work by two terms in a commercial college, or so much in a commercial college, or so much practical service in the active duties of business life.

-Scene in court: Judge .- " Have you anything to offer to the court before sentence is passed on you?" Prisoner. —No, Judge; I had ten dollars, but my lawyers took that."
