

fessor of Classics at Bishop's College, Lennoxville, was married to Annie Louisa, younger daughter of C. S. Parke, Esq., M.D. The Bride was attended by her Sister and Cousin, Miss Parke and Miss Rosie Scott, as Bridesmaids, while the Reverend E. A. Dunn and Mr. Louis Scott acted as Best Man and Groomsman. The Marriage Ceremony was performed by the Very Reverend Dean Norman in the presence of a large congregation. After a Reception at Ringfield, the Summer residence of the Bride's Grandfather, Geo. Holmes Parke, Esq., the happy couple left Quebec, amidst the good wishes of their friends, by the C. P. R. for Montreal, where they embarked on the S. S. "Lake Ontario" and sailed for England. We feel sure we are but echoing the sentiments of all our readers, when we offer to Professor and Mrs. Parke our hearty congratulations and wish them "Bon Voyage," through life.

Erratum.

We are requested by the Archdeacon to say that the name of the Reverend T. W. Fyles has been omitted by mistake from the list of Priests of ten years' standing on page 75 of the Synod Journal for this year. Members of Synod are requested to insert Mr. Fyles' name in its proper place in the list in their copies of the Journal.

Clergy House of Rest, Cacouna.

At the Annual Meeting of the Managers and friends of the Clergy House of Rest, Cacouna, held at the House on the 5th August, 1896, the following resolution was passed:—

"That the Clergy House of Rest be continued for another year, and that a Clerical Secretary be appointed in each Diocese to communicate with the Clergy, and to lay before them the advantages of the House and afford them all the information required."

In accordance with the above resolution a circular has recently been sent out to all the Clergy in each Diocese of our Province, setting forth the following facts:—

"The Clergy House of Rest was established by lay members of the Church of England in 1891. The only object is to afford to the Clergy, and the Clergy only, rest and recreation, and this at as low a cost as possible. It is not intended that it should pay its way, for it cannot. But, at the same time, its managers and friends do not feel themselves justified in asking for further subscriptions to continue it beyond this next year unless a larger number of the Clergy can avail themselves of it. The property is held in trust by the Bishop of Quebec. Should its original purpose fail, a power is granted to apply the trust to some other use in connection with the Church of England. Of the advantages to be gained from a residence at such a House it is superfluous to speak. Cacouna itself is situated just opposite the Saguenay River, and is noted for its invigorating and bracing air. It can be reached from Quebec city by boat or rail. By a timely application to the general passenger agent at Moncton, N. B., half fare permits are granted to the Clergy along the Intercolonial Railway. Between Sherbrooke and Quebec a like favour is granted both by Q. C. R. and G. T. R. The fare—Clergyman rate—from Quebec to Cacouna is $1.30. The House is open for July and August. Reference as to board, etc., may be made to the following Clergymen who know the house:—The Reverends Canon Richardson, Canon Foster, M.A., F. M. Webster, M.A., Halifax, Canon Dixon, Montreal, Canon Ellegood, M. A., Montreal, J. J. Roy, Sabrevois, R. W. Samwell, Wales, Ont., Venerable Archdeacon Bogert, M.A., Ottawa, Ont., the Very Reverend Dean Lauder, Ottawa, the Reverends A. Jarvis, M.A., Napanee, Ont., J. Cheyne Davidson, M.A., Peterboro, Ont., Alfred Brown, M.A., Paris, Ont."

To this we will only add the testimony of a well known Clergyman of the Diocese of Toronto, taken from the Visitors' Book which is kept in the House. He writes as follows:—

"I am delighted with the Clergy House of Rest, Cacouna, P. Q. It is conveniently reached by boat or rail. The air is pure and healthgiving, and the bathing good, the water being not too cold.

The House is wholly unlike an ordinary summer boarding place. Its equipments and arrangements are ideal. A verandah runs all round the house. The rooms are
