CEYLON TEA COMPANY

WHAT

"THE TIMES" OF CEYLON

Says of this Company, May 4th, 1889.

"We are asked by a Correspondent, 'Which Company, for the sale of Ceylon Tea at home, does the largest business?' and we really do not think that anybody can answer this question. In all probability, the Ceylon Tea Growers, Limited (Khangani Brand), sell more Tea than most, seeing that they have no less than one thousand Agents in Great Britain alone, and, in the course of twelve months, must sell a very large quantity of Tea."

This is indisputable evidence that this Company is a GENUINE CEYLON TEA COMPANY.

"ON what grounds did Henshaw get his pension? I never heard that he did any fighting during the war." "He didn't; but he claims his sympathies were enlisted."

"I SUFFERED continual pain from cinder of the stomach and my face and body were almost covered with pimples. I tried Burdock Blood Bitters, the first dose occasioned slight pain, but I soon found relief, and after taking five bottles I became completely cured. I think B. B. THE time passed very pleasantly in the parlour, and it was not till the clock and the neighbouring bells struck one that the lateness of the hour struck two.

Sparkles.

THE typical American humorist has, as a rule, no tendency to overestimate the value of the Christian minister, but here is what nevertheless escapes him: "Are you a preacher?" asks someone of the famous showman. "No, sir," says the showman, "but I believe in morality—I likewise believe in meetin' houses. Show me a place where there are not any meetin' houses, and where preachers are never seen, and I'll show you a place where old hats are stuffed into the windows, where the gates have no hinges, where the women are slip-shod, and where maps of the devil's wild land are printed on men's shirt bosoms with tobacco juice—that's what I'll show you. Let's consider what the preachers do for us, sir, before we abuse them."

"MY baby was very sick with diarrhoea, and after everything else had failed I tried Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry; the first dose gave relief, and a perfect cure soon resulted."—Mrs. John Clark, Bloomfield, Ont.

"WE call the new boy who is distributing type 'Circumstances,'" said the compositor. "Why is that?" "Because he alters cases."

A LADY wrote to an editor for a receipt for pies, and the editor replied that he would send the receipt as soon as he received the pies.

MISS MAUD GRANT, of Mountain, Ont., writes: "I can recommend Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for summer complaints and diarrhoea. There is nothing to compete with it as it succeeds even in the severest cases."

WHEN a man has run his race in this world and the end comes he is out of breath.

SIR ARTHUR SULLIVAN is credited with saying, in reply to an ignorant but pretentious woman who asked him if Bach were composing anything nowadays: "No, madam; he is decomposing."

BEECHAM'S PILLS cure Bilious and Nervous Ills.

PRACTICE makes perfect, but the perfection resulting from piano practice is tough on the neighbours!

FIRST Society Man: "A man might as well be dead as out of the fashion." Second Society Man (in high collar and regulation evening dress): "Yes, and he might as well be dead as in it."

"I HAVE used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in my family and can highly recommend it for summer complaint, diarrhoea, etc."—Mrs. Geo. West, Huntsville, Ont.

ONE-HORSE fellows—cavalrymen.

MRS. WATTS: "How is your new girl?" Mrs. Potts: "Oh, she's a perfect heathen. I left her to straighten things up before the minister called, and she never even dusted off the Bible."

"I HAVE been bothered with neuralgic pains in the head and face since childhood and have tried all possible remedies. A friend persuaded me to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and after having used it I obtained instant relief, and thoroughly recommend B. B. B."—Jas. Inglis, Breckenbury, Assa.

"Is your husband a religious man?" "I'm not quite certain. When I hear him speak at the prayer meeting I think he is; when I hear him speaking at home I think he isn't."

A TRUE BALSAM—DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY is truly a balsam. It contains the balsamic principle of the Wild Cherry, the balsamic properties of tar and of pine. Its ingredients are all balsamic. Coughs, colds, sore throats, bronchitis and consumption speedily disappear under its balsamic influence.

"ON what grounds did Henshaw get his pension? I never heard that he did any fighting during the war." "He didn't; but he claims his sympathies were enlisted."
