

CHICAGO MARKET.

CHICAGO MARKET—January 11, 1900

From the Bartlett Frazier Co., Chicago. H. J. COOB, Manager, 39 St. Sacramento St.

OUT OF LINE FOR EXPORT — N. W. RECEIPTS RUNNING HEAVY—QUIET MARKET BUT STEADY IN GRAIN — STRONG IN PROVISIONS.

Chicago, Jan. 11.

At 5-04 for both March and May wheat at Liverpool, openings were 1/8 lower than the previous close. However for the last few days the openings show declines each day of from 1/4 to 3/8. Later cables stated that both wheat and corn were unchanged.

New York openings this morning were the same as the close yesterday except that July was 1/8 higher. The market here developed some strength at first wheat advancing from 74 1/4 to 75 1/4, from 73 3/4 to 74.

At Chicago where country acceptances of corn were very slight, the corn prices advanced from 33 to 33 1/2, but in wheat both openings and later sales were perhaps a little better.

Rycroft writing to Bartlett & Frazier in Montreal office says that Chicago is quite out of line for export, a strong demand for which is needed owing to Northwest receipts now running heavily.

N. W. cars 412 as against 340 last week and 412 last year.

Primary receipts:

Last week 182,857, shipments 198,805.

Last year, 678,346, shipments 160,617

Four ports, 467,444, shipments 208,004

Provision market prices opened with advances to-day. May pork was 5 cents up on yesterday's highest. May lard was 5 cents higher and May ribs advanced the same amount. The tendency of the market was also an upward one.

Provision receipts were: Eggs 81,000; cattle, 7,500; sheep 17,000. Kansas and Omaha 19,000 hogs and 5,700 cattle.
