PROSPECTUS FOR 1873---SIXTH YEAR.

"THE ALDINE,"

a illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to the handsomest Periodical in the world.

A Representative and Champion, of American Taste.

'Not for Sale in Book or News Stores. "Not for Sale in Book or News Stores.

THE ALDNE, while issued with all the regularity has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant charactary, gare, light and graceful literature, and a collection of pictures, the tarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white Almost specimens of artistic skill, in black and white Almost seed and the real value and beauty of THE ADLINE will be mos appreciated after it has been bound at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with irrais of a similar class, THE ALDINE is an unique and and original conception—alone and unapproached—abtoined without competition in price or character. The Deceases of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape of number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then there are the chromos, besides !

ART DEPARTMENT.

To pressess such a valuable option: of the nrt world at a cost so triding, will command the aubscriptions of a thousand in every section of the country, but, as the usefulness and attraction of THE ALDINE can be one shaded; in proportion to the numerical increase of its appointers, the publisher proposes to make "assurance deads aure," by the following unparalleled effort.

THE PHET OF JUVENILE PERIODICALS GOOD THINGS

FOR THE YOUNG OF ALL AGES. EDITED BY GEORGE MACDONALD,

AND ILIUSTRATED BY THE BEST ARTISTS.

AND EUGERALTED BY THE REST ARTISTS.

"A" This M. Lazine has hitherto been bested under the title of "GOOD WORDS FOR THE YOUNG." To mark the important changes and improvements which have been introduced, it has been thought well to after the name to the simpler and "gibler one given abore. Good Thinnos will address fixely to the young of all sges, from the little beginner, who can just read a picture, to the big boys and girls who study at the desk or shout in the plaground; and co onwards up to the veterans who, after all their learning, turn to the children for a fresher wisdom, and after all their work, sit in the shady comer and play the old games over again in liteir heads, "GOOD THINGS" hopes, as a periodical, to have its margins well thumbed and dog-carred; and when the binder has rimmed shose and made if the first the library, the volume will try for a fixed place there in good company. The avors of a multifude of asserted "goodies" cannot be not interested.

NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

Now, as heretofore. Tur Thirdun strives to be first of all and precialized a series paper.

France a Republic—England and Germany gradually permeated with Republican ideas—Spain swaying in the nervoless grasp of a ruler too good for a King and tow weak for a Republican, who is unable to govern thegreat island that blocks the entrance to our Gulf of Mexico, and equally unable to give it in—the German-speaking peoples agitated by a new Protectantism, separating from the See of Romo on the doma of Papal Infalliability and assuming to recognize the "Old Catholics"—he whole continent pervaded by the intellectual ferment litat comes of the conflict between old ideas, philosophical, theological, material, and the advance of physical Scienco—Russia and Great Britain running a race for the final gains that shall determine Aslatic co-premacy China seconing ready to abbarlon her advances and reclose her half opened gates—Japan abolishing feudalism and inciting Western civilization to tradiato Western commerce to enrich her tong-lidden empler—such are phases of the news from abroad which the mails over all Continents and the wires under all Seas are daily bearing to us. With able and trusted correspondents in the leading capitals, and wherever great changes are in progress, The Tannusk aims, at whatever cost, to law before its readers the most prompt, complete, and popular presentme—of these diverse and conflicting motements, through all of which, as it fondly trasts, the toiling masses are everywhere struggling up toward larger recognition and a brighter future.

At home the struggle for freedom seems over. The last slave has long been a editize—the last opposition to emancipation, enfranchisement, equal civil rights, has formally been abandoned—No party, North or South, longer desputes the result of the War for the Union ; all declare that these results must never be undone; and, with a whole people thus united on the grand platform of All Rights for All, whereto our hloosty struggle, and the prolonged civil contests tha an honest statement of the lacts, and this they always get.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE, now more than thirty years old, has endeavored to keep up with the progress of the 250 in improvement and enterprise. It devotes alarge share of the columns to Agriculture as the most essential and general of human pursuits. It employs the ablest and most am ressful cultivatars to set forth in brief, clear essays their practical views of the Farmer's work It reports public disscussions which clucidate that work; gathers from every source agricultural news, the reports of the latest experiments, the stories of the latest successes and failures, and whatever may tend at once to better Agriculture, and to commend it as the first and most important of progressive Art, based on natura science.

cesses and better Agriculture, and to commend it as the first and most important of progressive Art, based on natura science.

The Weekly Triuwer appeals also to Teachers Students, and persons of inquiring minds, by the charme ter of its literary contents, which inclinds reviews of all the works proceeding from the master minds of the old or of the New World, with liberid extracts from those of especial interest. Imaginative Literature also claim attention; but in a subordinatedegree. "Homo Interestse" are discussed weekly by a lady specially qualified to instruct and interesther own sex, and the younger portion of the other. No column is smore eagerly sought or perseal with greater average profit than hers. The News of the Day, clueddated by brief comments, is so condensed that on reader can deem it diffuse, while given sufficiently inductal to satisfy the wants of the extensive correspondence of The Dally Triumers from the extensive correspondence of The Dally Triumers from every country, and its editorials of more permanent value are here reproduced in short, The Weekly Triumers commends itself to Millions by unintering to their intellectual wants more fully than they are neet by any other fournal, while its regular reports of the Country Produce, and other Markets, will, of themselves, save the farmer who regulariy notes them far more than the fournal's price.

For the family circle of the clucated farmer or artisan, The Weekly Thinder of thousands who, having read it from child-lood, still cherish and endoy it in the prime and on the down hill of life. We respectfully urge those who know its worth to commend The Weekly Thinder is the life of the clucated farmer or clubs at piece which carrely pay the cost of paper and pressivers.
