

have our daily avocations pressing imperatively upon us, and we therefore earnestly invite every one interested in our objects of study, to send us any items worthy of record, especially if connected with the early history of Canada, or other matters within the precincts of our publication, and thus render us a very welcome service.

We may not say with Macbeth "We have bought Golden opinions from all sorts of people" but we have received many kind words from valued friends, and thus sustained we go on cheerfully and hopefully.

— Since going to press with the first sheets of this number, we have received, through the kindness of John Lovell, Esq., Publisher, the accompanying engraved portrait of Wolfe, which is believed to be a very creditable likeness. The Silhoutte which form our frontispiece, is from a rare contemporary print, and represents the hero while leading on his troops to the attack upon Quebec. The Dominion Government has adopted this portrait, along with that of Montcalm, for Vignettes on the $2 note.

HONORS TO NUMISMATISTS.—Dr. Joseph Leidy and Henry Phillips, Jr., Esq., (Secretary of the Antiquarian and Numismatic Society of Philadelphia,) have been chosen for the sixth time members of the "Congress Internationale d'Anthropologie et Archæologic," which will assemble this year in August at Stockholm. The meetings of the congress which are under Government patronage from various nationalities, have been held at Spezzia, Bologna, Paris, Brussels, Neuchatel, Copenhagen, and other places, and are attended by the most distinguished students and antiquarians of the
