HOW O'DONNELL SHOT HIM.

The Time Story of the Death of Infor-mer Carey—The Deed Enacted in the Steamer's Fore Cabin in the Presence of Mrs. Carey.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—Details received by mail of the shooting of James Carey by Patrick O'Donnell, on the steamer "Melrose," show Cape Town that Carey was on board the "Kinfauns Castle" exclaimed, "Had cgony, which were on her constitution terdibly. After three years a friend advised the wound have swung for him." O'Donfault to discharge the physician and send for another. This was about four years ago, and a need to can be considered to the constitution terdible classes. through a paragraph which was published in the Cape Town papers. Re immediately commenced drinking, and while in a saloon in that city was heard to denounce Carey. Intent on killing Carey he took passage by the steamer " Melrose Castle" for Port Eliz:cable, O'Donnell waiting for such an oppor tunity as would present no possibility of interference or failure. The first two shots were fired in quick succession, both penetrating Carey's back; he staggered and partly turned, and the third and last shot struck him in the throat, when he fell. The blood from the wound in his throat spurted in a powerful but jerky stream and covered the walls and furniture in a most borrble manner. Mrs. Carey, with a scream jumped at O'Donnell and clasped his arms in an attempt to prevent him from firing again. O'Donnell pushed he gently away and said:—"Shake hands, Mrs. Carey. I disn't do it." He then quiety sat down and rimained perfectly still until he officers of the vessel placed him in iron. Carey was quickly lifted from the floor and placed on the cabin table, where in a few kinutes he died, without attering a word. The correspondent of the Daily News at Cape Town telegraphs that O'Donnell, the murderer of James Carey, will be tried in England and will be sent home immediatey.

DYING AT THE AGE OF 184. A CLEVELAND MAN WHO WAS WITH THE IBISE INSURGENTA N 1798.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 12.-John O'Malia died in this city yesterday at the residence of his son-in-law, Michael Herron, in Vermont street. He was born in Brayo, Mayo county, Ireland, in 1779, and was probably one of the oldest persons in Ohio. His death was the result of old age, as he enjoyed good health up to the day of his death. He was a remarkably well preserved old man, his form being but elight; neat. He had a full set of natural neath and a full head of hair. His everagit was good and ne resolt the remarkable to the firm of his read the newspapers up to the time of his death without the use of glasses. In speaking of his remarkable health and preservation, ho sald a few days before he died: "I was never eick an hour in my life. I don't know what a headache, a backache, a sideache or a toothache is, but nevertheless I can't live much longer?' He added with a smile: Well, it's time for no to go at any rate. O'E sta came to America twenty-five years was ther to his 80th year, and followed the compation of a day laborer. He was a lad working man up to tural color natil he was past 93, and was of an iron-gray color at the time of his death. He often said that, as be looked over his past life of more than a century, it was with a feeling of satisfaction that he could imitifully state that during his entire life he never had a quarrel with a person, never struck a man in his life, and was never struck by any one. His conscience was clear, and he died in perfect peace with man and God. Up to within a few hours of his death he took pleasure in recounting the scenes of the old Irish rebellion of 1798. He was then 19 years of age, and left his native village of Brayo to join the United Irishmen, who were then mustering at Castlebar and were being drilled by French officers. The garrison at Oastlebar had been captured from the English forcer, and the insurgents were awaiting the arrival of the French allies, who were expected to land at Westport, nine miles distant O'Malia was with the robels but a few days when they disbanded.

A MYSTERIOUS SKULL. ST. OATHARINES, Aug. 22 .- While Mr. Wardell was engaged in unloading corn from the hold of the burned steamer "Glenfin'ss" this morning he came across a human skul! The find excited considerable comment a on enquiry, being made it was found that mone of the hands were missing, and as the Glenfinlas" entried no passengers the wame of the original possessor of the skull is chronded in mystery. We learn that several boxes of miscellaneous cargo were shipped on the boat at Chicago for Montreal, and the position of the relic when found would lead to the belief that it was contained in one of those boxes. Dr. Sullivan examined it this morning and expresses the opinion that the skull is part of a corpse which had been burned, particles of clay still adhering to the cavities of the jaw.

HEALED BY FAITH.

A CHIPPLED GIRL MIRACULOUSLY RESTORED TO FIRST-RATE HEALTH.

Boston, Aug. 21 .- When eight years old Grace Mary Hanley was suddenly afflicted with some subtle disease, which completely robbed her of all strength and the use of her itmbs. Her malady increased, and all resources of medicine felled to in any way rethat O'Donnell, when he discovered at sources of medicine felled to in any way re-Cape Town that Carey was on board lieve the little sufferer. Shesuffered intense under peculiarly favorable circumstances. At one time the girl seemed to rally, but only to the extent of being able to walk painfully about the house on crutches and without the power of helping herself in any other way. For over two years she remained in this conweth. The shooting was done in the fore dition, never leaving her father's house except in a carriage and when accompanied by some friend. About two weeks ago the Fathers of the Mission Church advised Colonel Hanley to have ble daughter begin a novem to "Our Lady of Perpetual Hope." Nine days ago today the novena was begun, the father or aunt going to the church with the girl in a carriage, helping her on her crutches into the church. It was with wildly-boating heart that Colonel Hanley this morning brought his child to church, it being the ninth and last day of the novena. It was during 7 o'clock mass, and near the end, that the girl was taken in, attended by her father, her mother and aunt, with other members of the family, beside the whole cougregation assembled for devotion. At communion Grace was helped to the altar, where she partock of the sacrament and almost immediately whispered to her aunt that she could walk. Without any help whatever, but still with the anxious hands of her aunt held close by for fear she would tall, Grace got up and walked to her crutches, picked them up, and accompanied by her overjoyed friends, walked to her house two blocks away.

FRANCE AND CANADA.

EXPRESSIONS OF SYMPATHY TO CARDINAL GUIDERT FROM CANADIAN BISHOPS.

The Paris correspondent of the Liverpool Times writes:-The Bishop of Three Rivers has written to the Archbishop of Paris to express his agreement with the letter of the Archbishops and Bishops of Canada expressing their sympathy to Cardinal Guibert in the midst of persecution in these latter days. The letter of the missionary Blshop is full of that great confidence which hard Apostolic work under contract with faithful Republican Catholics gives to the Christian prelate. The Bistop prays that Divine Providence may give back to the French nation that post of gust-dian of Catholic interests which has made France the leading spirit of modern civilization and the chief glery of made Francs Christian society. The letter of the Archhishop of Quebec and of the Bishops of the Provinces of Quebec and St. Boniface cannot fail to produce beneficial results, if the French statesmen will only learn that the Catholic Church has no leaving towards Bourbons or Bonsparter, her only sim being the salvation of souls and the regeneration of humanity by her doctrines and religious dircipline. When the blood moves sluggishly in the veins because it is loaded with impurities, an alterative is reeded, as this condition of the vital fluid cannot last long without serious results. There is nothing better than Ayer's Snrsnpatilla to purify the blood and impart energy to the system.
