

ing a rule of ye, Jock—they're a'bad'! "Scoundrels!" exclaimed his dupe; and down on the table he flung a batch of notes. They were impounded at once by the authorities, and the man's suffrage invalidated. —Quarterly Review.

THE ATLANTIC PACKETS.—What is called the Sands line of Transatlantic steamers, which consisted of the Washington and Hermann, has ceased running. The owners have decided on withdrawing them from the Atlantic, on account of the loss of the American mail subsidy. This will reduce the trips across the North Atlantic by mail, and other large steamers, to 500 a year, or nearly five times every week from England, and also from North America. The following are the names of the Transatlantic steamers now running, viz.: Cunard's Collins' Vanderbilt's, Liverpool, New York, and Philadelphia, Glasgow, Liverpool, Hamburg, Montreal, North Atlantic Steam Navigation, and the Montreal Ocean Screw Steam.—When the Transatlantic telegraph has been established some time, it is probable that the communication between England and North America will be daily.

THE DROP OF WATER, THE BROOK, THE RIVER, AND THE OCEAN.—A drop of water that sparkled like a jewel in the sun, once fell from the clouds into a little mountain stream, and ere it lost its identity, exclaimed, in all the anguish of desolation: "Alas! what a catastrophe! I am swallowed up in immensity!" The little stream laughed, as it leaped down the mountain side, at the lamentation of such an insignificant thing as a drop of water; and in vain of its consequence, continued brawling its crystal way, with all the pride of conscious superiority; till at length, with a sudden plunge, it fell headlong into a mighty river; and, like the drop of water, was lost in a moment, crying out in its last agonies: "O fate, who would have thought a brook of my size could be swallowed so easily!" The river murmured in its contempt for the foolish little stream, and continued its course, gathering strength and pride, breaking through mountains, tearing the rocks from their seats, and coursing in a thousand meanders through flowery meadows, till it found its way to the vast melancholy ocean, in whose boundless waste it lost its being, like the drop of water and the little stream. "Is it possible," exclaimed the mighty river, "that I have been thus collecting tribute from half the world, only to become nothing at last!"

Irish Moss.—I am not alone in my partiality for Irish moss. There was a time when it was a fashionable dish; and it is still, everywhere in France and Great Britain, more or less prescribed as food for invalids. The poor of Brighton use it instead of arrowroot. The curly mammal gristles are bleached like linen and cotton and when dry will keep for years.—An amiable and interesting writer—the late Dr. Landsborough—gives a recipe for cooking it, which is found to be excellent from experience: "When used, a teaspoonful of it is boiled in water; this water, being strained, is boiled with milk and sugar, and seasoned, such as nutmeg, cinnamon, or essence of lemon. It is then put into a shape, in which it consolidates like blancmange; and when eaten with cream, it is so good that many a sweet-lipped little boy or girl would almost wish to be on the invalid list to get a share of it.—Dickens' Household Words.

A happy comment on the annihilation of time and space by locomotive agency is as follows: "A little child who rode fifty miles in a railroad train then took a coach to her uncle's house, some five miles further, was asked on her arrival, if she came by the cars. "We came a little way in the cars, and then all the rest of the way in the carriage."

DR. McLANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE AND LIVER PILLS.—A singular combination but very effectual, as the following will show: New York, November 20, 1852. Knowing, from experience, the valuable qualities of Dr. McLane's Vermifuge and Liver Pills prepared by Fleming Bros. Pittsburgh, I have for some time back considered it my duty, and made it my business to make those articles known wherever I went among my friends. A short time ago I became acquainted with the case of a young girl, who seemed to be troubled with worms and liver complaint at the same time, and had been suffering for some months.—Through my persuasion she purchased one box of Dr. McLane's Vermifuge, and one box of Liver Pills, which she took according to directions. The result was, she passed a large quantity of worms, and thinks that one box more of the Pills will restore her to perfect health. Her name and residence can be learned by calling on E. L. Theall, Druggist, corner of Rutger and Monroe streets. Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. McLANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE manufactured by FLEMING BROS. of PITTSBURGH, PA. All other Vermifuges in comparison are worthless. Dr. McLane's genuine Vermifuge, also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BROS. LYMAN, SAVAGE & Co., St. Paul Street, Wholesale Agents for Montreal.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness. BOSTON, MASS., 20th Dec., 1855. Dr. J. C. AYER: I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your Cherry Pectoral. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. EDEN KNIGHT, M.D. A. B. MORTLEY, Esq., of Uxbridge, N. Y., writes: "I have used your Pectoral myself and my family ever since you invented it, and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy." Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza. SPRINGFIELD, MASS., Feb. 7, 1856. BROTHER AYER: I will cheerfully certify your PECTORAL is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup, and the most distressing of your family. I have used it in the South and appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people. HIRSHAM CONKLIN, M. D. AMOS LEE, Esq., Montreal, La., writes, 3d Jan., 1856: "I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your PECTORAL by the advice of your Clergyman, and in a few days I was able to resume my usual avocations, and in less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicine is the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend." Asthma or Phtisis, and Bronchitis. WEST MANCHESTER, PA., Feb. 4, 1856. Sir: Your Cherry PECTORAL is performing marvellous cures in the most distressing cases of your family. I have used it in the South and appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people. HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant. A. A. RAMSEY, M. D., ALBION, MONROE CO., IOWA, writes, Sept. 6, 1855: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your Cherry Pectoral for giving relief to the consumptive patient, or curing such as are curable." We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial. Consumption. Probably no cure remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach; but even to those the CHERRY PECTORAL affords relief and comfort. AGATOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, March 5, 1856. DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL: I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your CHERRY PECTORAL has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her relief. She was cured by your Cherry Pectoral. I am of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill, for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from cough, and calls herself well. Yours, with gratitude and regard, ORLANDO SIBLEY, of SHELBYVILLE. Consumption, do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cure all round us bespeak the high merits of its virtues.—Philadelphia Ledger.
