

BONN DECLARATION ON TERRORISMJuly 17, 1978

The Heads of State and Government, concerned about terrorism and the taking of hostages, declare that their Governments will intensify their joint efforts to combat international terrorism. To this end, in cases where a country refuses extradition or prosecution of those who have hijacked an aircraft and/or do not return such aircraft, the Heads of State and Government are jointly to cease all flights to that country. At the same time, their Governments will initiate action to halt all incoming flights from the country or from any country by the airlines of the country concerned.

They urge other Governments to join them in this commitment.
