

principle like other principles which it has under consideration.

Taking the above considerations into account my Delegation has examined the amendments introduced by 19 Latin American delegations and now co-sponsored by 36 delegations in Document A/C.1/L.388/Rev.1 and, conscious of the efforts made to develop an acceptable text, is prepared to vote in favour of them. On the assumption that these amendments are adopted we are also prepared to vote in favour of the draft resolution as amended. In doing so I must recall that, as we said on this occasion last year, our action here is basically of a political nature and should not be allowed to prejudge the further development on a legal basis of the principle of non-intervention.
