

ARTHUR FREDERICK BROADBRIDGE

Mr. Broadbridge was born on February 15, 1915 in Elham, Kent, England. He studied at the University of Saskatchewan where he received a B.A. and an M.A. (History). He taught school in Saskatchewan for several years before serving with the Royal Canadian Air Force during the war. He was discharged in 1945 as a Flight Lieutenant.

Mr. Broadbridge joined the Department of External Affairs in 1949. He has served abroad in Chicago, Washington, Cairo, and in Berlin, where he was Deputy Head of the Canadian Military Mission from 1967 to 1970. He has also had assignments in several divisions at departmental headquarters in Ottawa, serving most recently as Deputy Director of Pacific Division since 1970.

Mr. Broadbridge is married and has three children.