

Mr. Noble Edward Charles Power (51), originally from Montréal, Québec as High Commissioner to Barbados with concurrent accreditation to Dominica, Grenada, Antigua, St. Lucia, St. Vincent and The Grenadines, the West Indian Associated States and Montserrat.

Mr. Power (B.A., University of Montréal, 1953; Graduate Studies, University of Mexico 1953-54; M.A., Columbia University, New York, 1955; Diplomatic History, La Sorbonne, Paris, 1955-56) has held assignments in the Department of National Defence, Minister's Staff, the External Aid Office as Director of Planning for Commonwealth Africa, the Inter-departmental Committee for External Relations and in CIDA in various positions. He was named High Commissioner to Ghana and Ambassador to Togo and Benin in 1971 and, upon his return in 1974, served in CIDA as Director-General, Asia Division and from 1977 to 1982 as Vice President, Bilateral Programmes. Mr. Power has occupied his present position as Vice-President, Corporate Affairs, CIDA, since 1982. In this capacity, he serves on the Board of Directors of the Export Development Corporation as an Alternate Director and also works closely with the World Bank Consultative Groups, the Arab Development Banks and financial institutions and the various Parliamentary Committees concerned with development cooperation in the Third World. He will replace Mr. Allan B. Roger who will return to Canada.

* * * *

Mr. Charles F. Rogers (50), originally from Hamilton, Ontario as Consul General in Buffalo, New York.

Mr. Rogers (B.A., Honours, Philosophy and English, University of Toronto, 1958) joined the Department of Manpower & Immigration in 1958. He has served in Cologne, Hamburg, Port-of-Spain, Vienna, Brussels, and Hong Kong. Since 1979 Mr. Rogers has occupied the post of Minister-Counsellor (Immigration), London. Mr. Rogers will succeed Mr. William R. Van who will return to Canada.

* * * *